When Wenlock finds Annika, he tells her that she will marry him, but she says she will not. Wenlock is so angry, he turns Annika's parents and the rest of the villagers into statues!

Wenlock then tells Annika she has three days to make a choice—if she marries him, her parents and the villagers will be set free. If she doesn't marry him, they will remain statues forever!

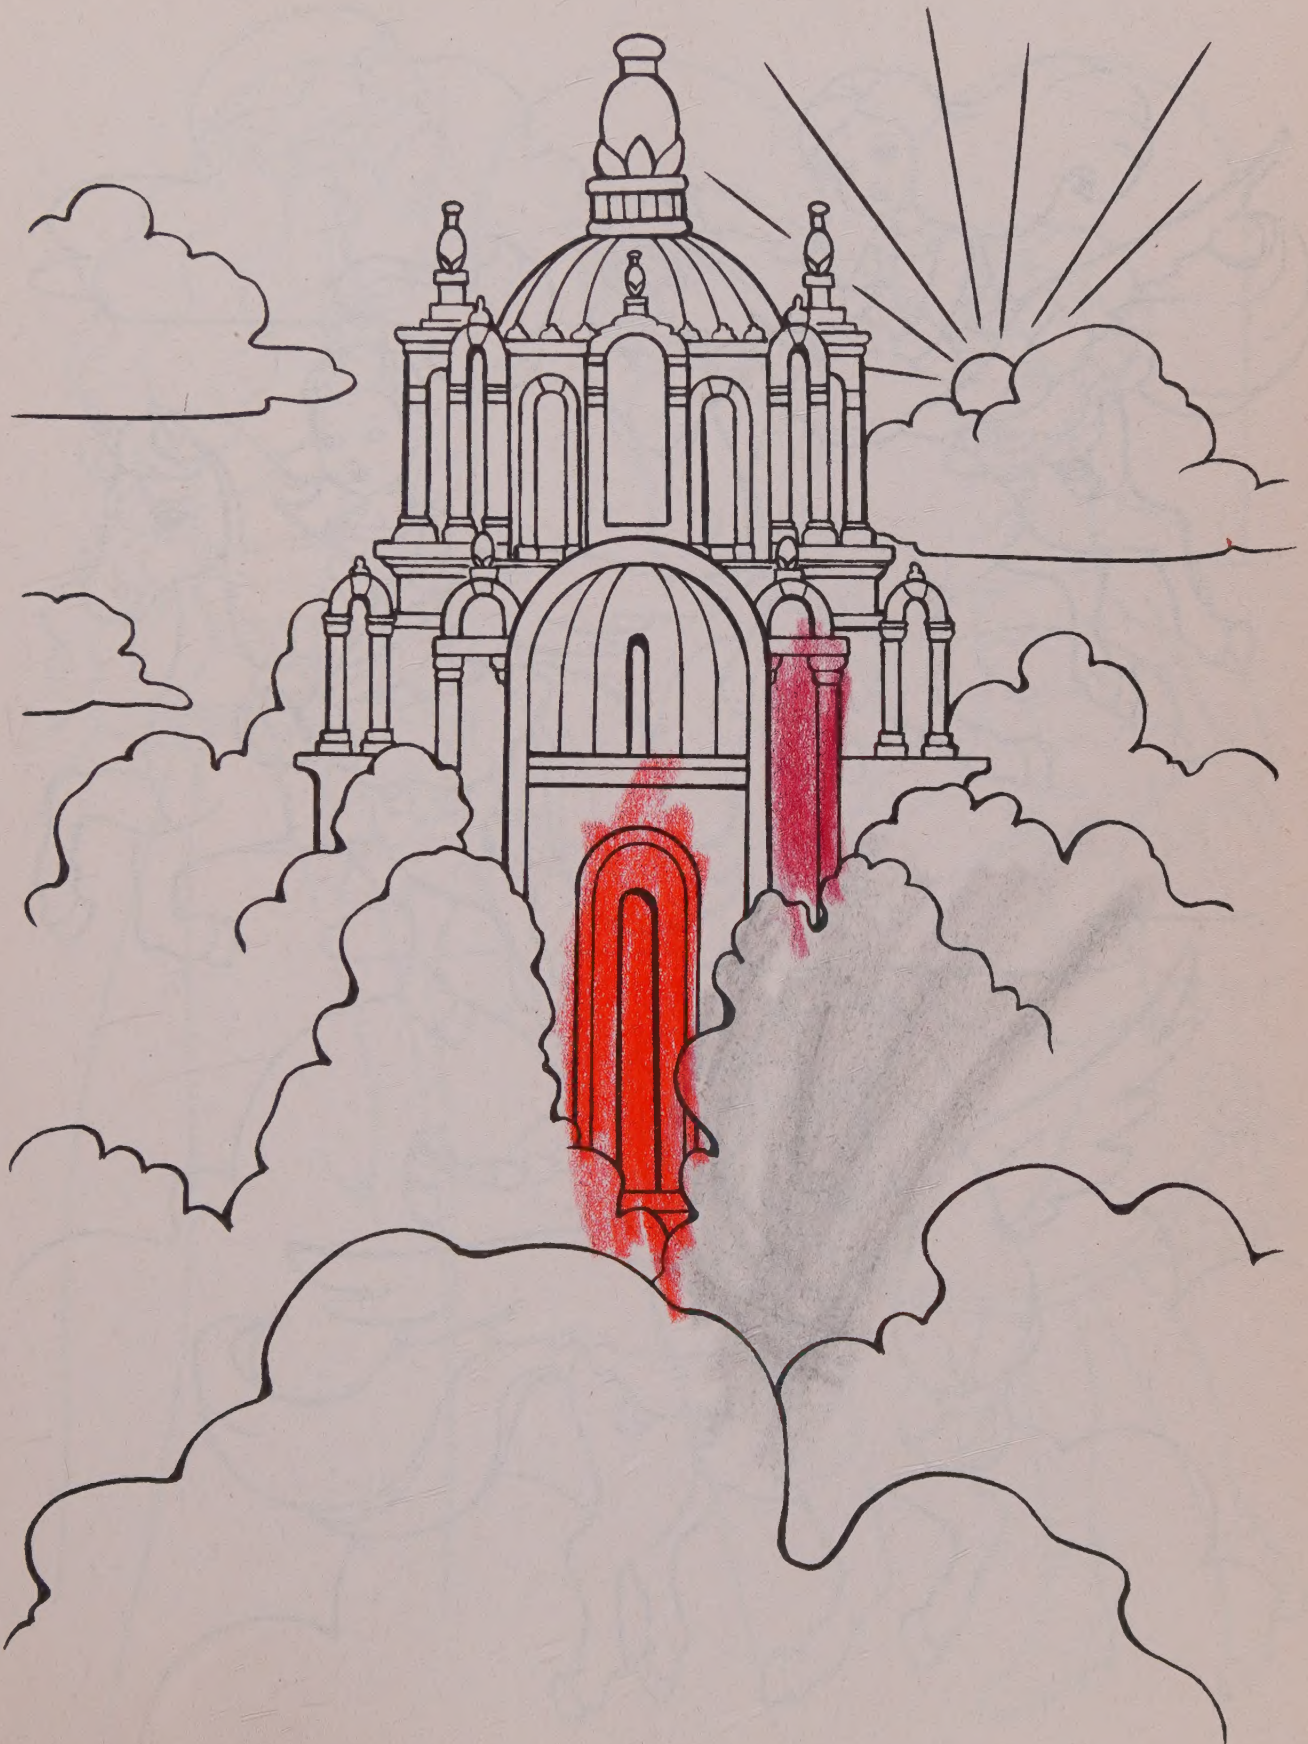

Suddenly, a beautiful flying horse named Brietta sweeps down and rescues Annika and Shiver!

Annika wonders why nobody has ever tried to stop Wenlock. Brietta explains that Wenlock stole his teacher's wand and used it to destroy him. All the teacher's powers went to Wenlock.

Brietta takes Annika to the Cloud Palace in Cloud Kingdom, where they will be safe from Wenlock.

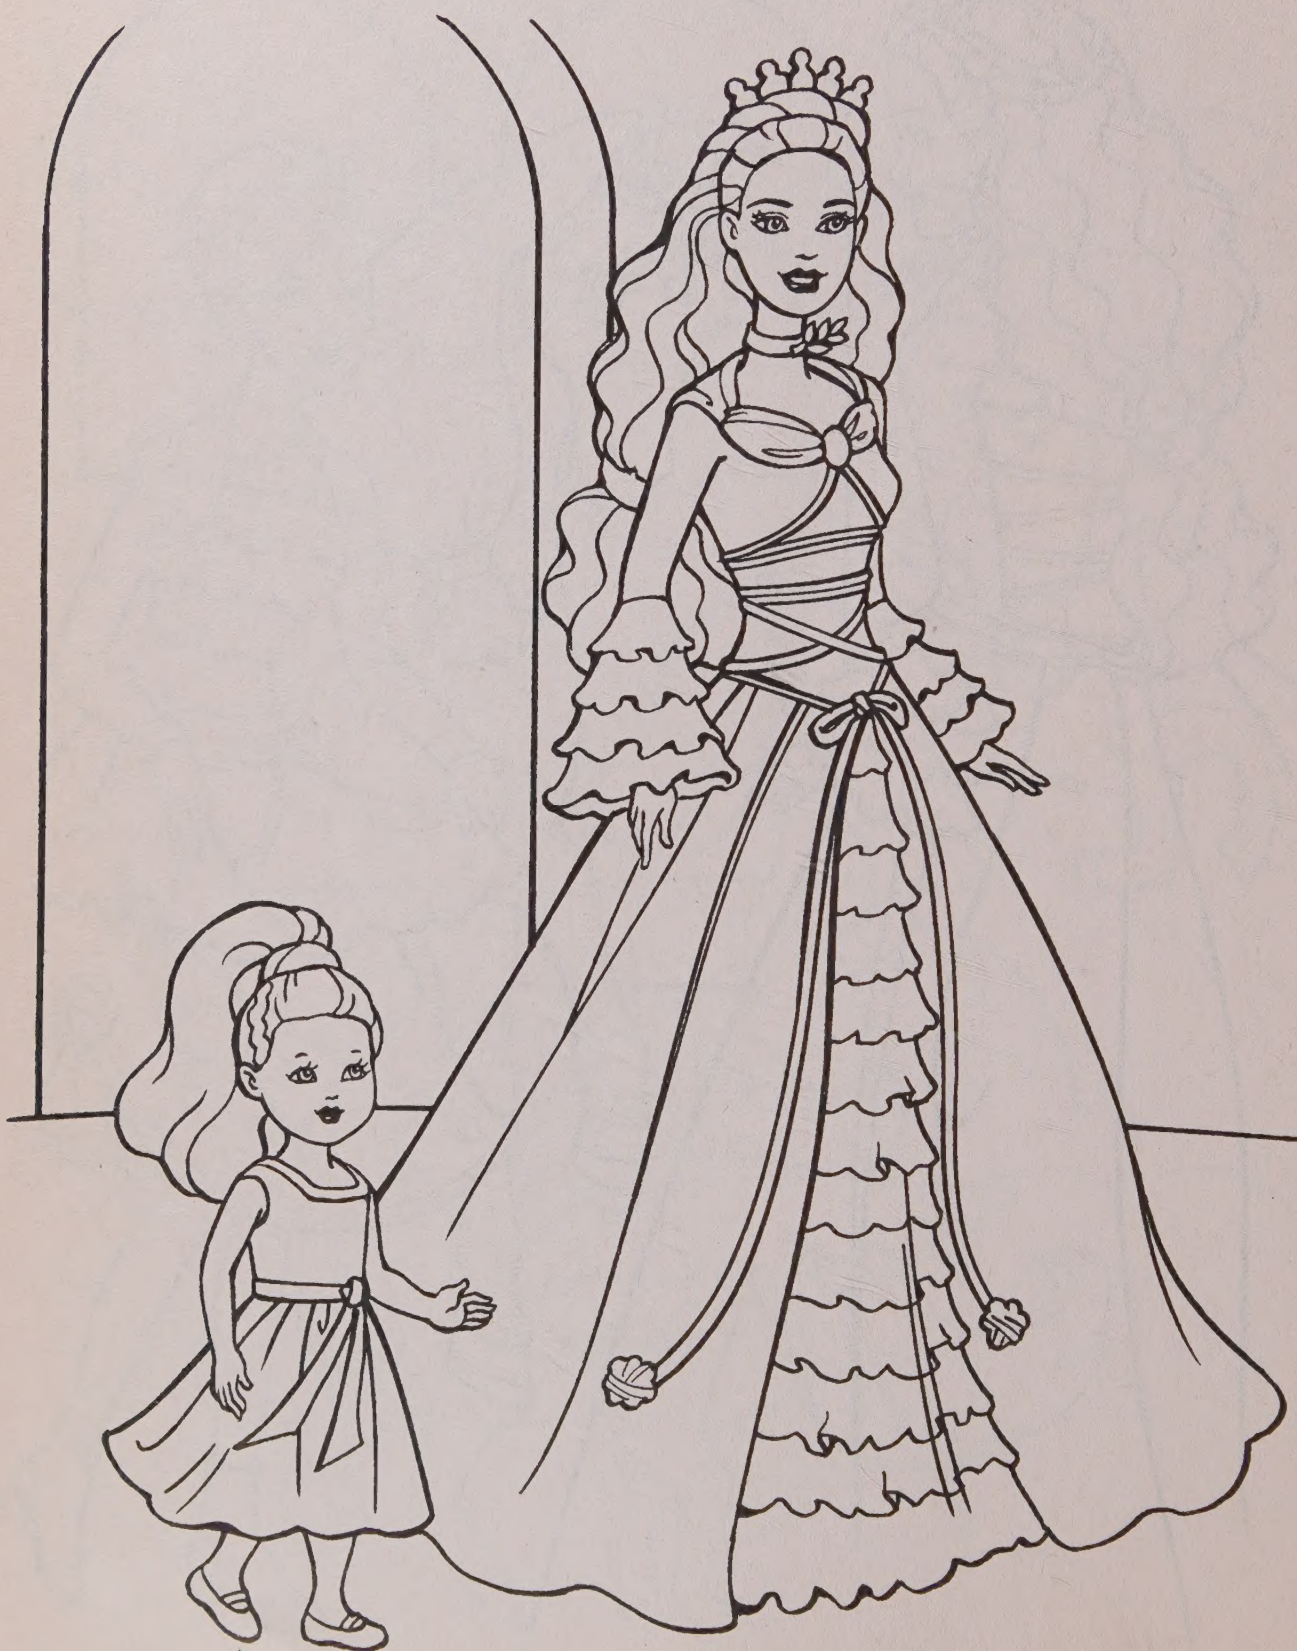

The Cloud Princesses, Rose, Lilac, and Blush, welcome Brietta and Annika when they arrive.

Annika tells Rayla, the Cloud Queen, about Wenlock's evil spell. Rayla tells Annika to rest before they make a plan.

Later, the Cloud Queen tells Annika how Brietta became a flying horse and left the kingdom because she didn't want her parents to be unhappy.

She also tells her that Brietta is her sister!

The Queen explains that sixteen years ago, Wenlock came to visit and told Brietta to marry him.

When Brietta refused, Wenlock cast a spell on her, turning her into a flying horse!

Annika now understands why her parents were always so worried about her.

She has to save them and tell them she's sorry!

Annika learns that the only way to break Wenlock's spell and save her kingdom is to build the Wand of Light. A Measure of Courage, a Gem of Ice lit by Hope's Eternal Flame, and a Ring of Love create the Wand of Light. Annika decides to go on a journey to find these three things.

Brietta, Annika, and Shiver must travel through the Forbidden Forest to find a Measure of Courage, the first part they need to build the Wand of Light.

Shiver trips in the Forbidden Forest and slides down a gully!

When Annika tries to rescue Shiver, she triggers a trap that captures her and Brietta!

Aidan, a friendly young man who lives in the Forbidden Forest, frees Brietta and Annika from the trap. He tells them that a giant set the traps hoping to catch some dinner!

Annika presses on to find Shiver.
She's not afraid of any giant!

Annika finds Shiver at the giant's house.
The giant thinks they'll taste great in his soup!

But brave Annika escapes just in time. She and Shiver quickly slide out of the pot by using a ribbon from Annika's hair.

Shiver and Annika find Aidan and Brietta and tell them how they used the ribbon to escape. Suddenly, something magical happens . . . the ribbon turns into the staff for the Wand of Light! Annika's bravery proves to be a true Measure of Courage!

Aidan joins the sisters as they search for the next piece they need to build the Wand of Light—a Gem of Ice lit by Hope's Eternal Flame. Aidan knows just who to ask about it.

Aidan takes Annika to meet a trader named Ferris, who sends the group on a journey to find the Gem of Ice.

After resting for the night, Annika wakes to see sun shining on a glacier. This gives her an idea! She believes the glacier is the ice and the gem is on top of it. The sunrise of the new day is Hope's Eternal Flame.

Meanwhile, Ferris has contacted Wenlock to tell him about the Princess's quest to build the Wand of Light.

While the four friends continue searching the glacier for the Gem of Ice, magical stepping-stones appear in the snow at Annika's feet.

The steps lead to an icy wall with an ancient message carved into it. The message says “Take only what you need, but never from greed.”

Finally, the friends discover a cave filled with beautiful diamonds. They find the Gem of Ice! Annika remembers the message on the wall and takes only one diamond.

The friends make it out of the cave before an avalanche can trap them!

Only one more item is needed to make the Wand of Light complete—the Ring of Love!

Aidan thinks he can make the ring with a piece of metal from his sword. Instead, Brietta gives him her crown. She wants to help save her parents and the kingdom, too.

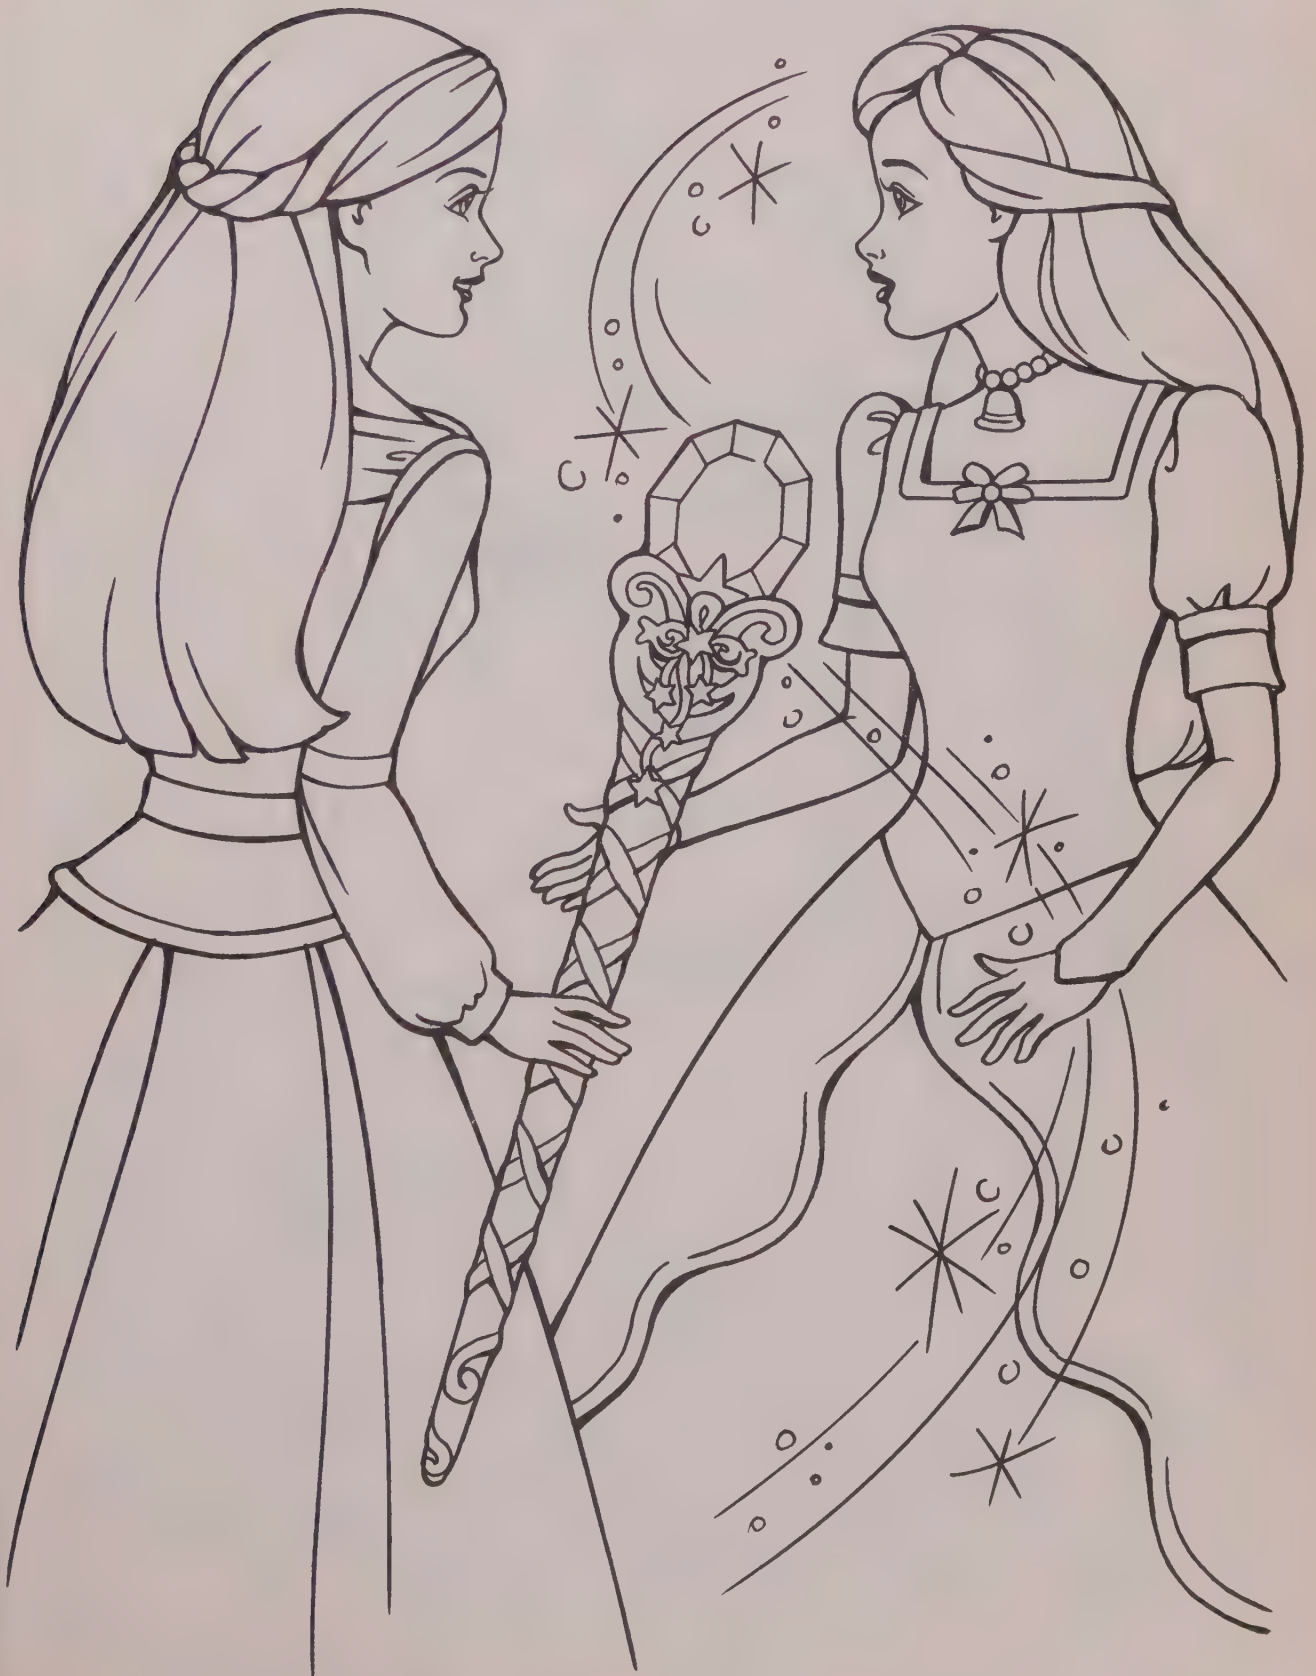

The crown glows when it's near the Wand of Light.
At last, they have found the Ring of Love!

Just in time, on the third day, Aidan puts the three things together and builds the Wand of Light.

It works! Annika uses the Wand of Light to break
Wenlock's spell on Brietta.

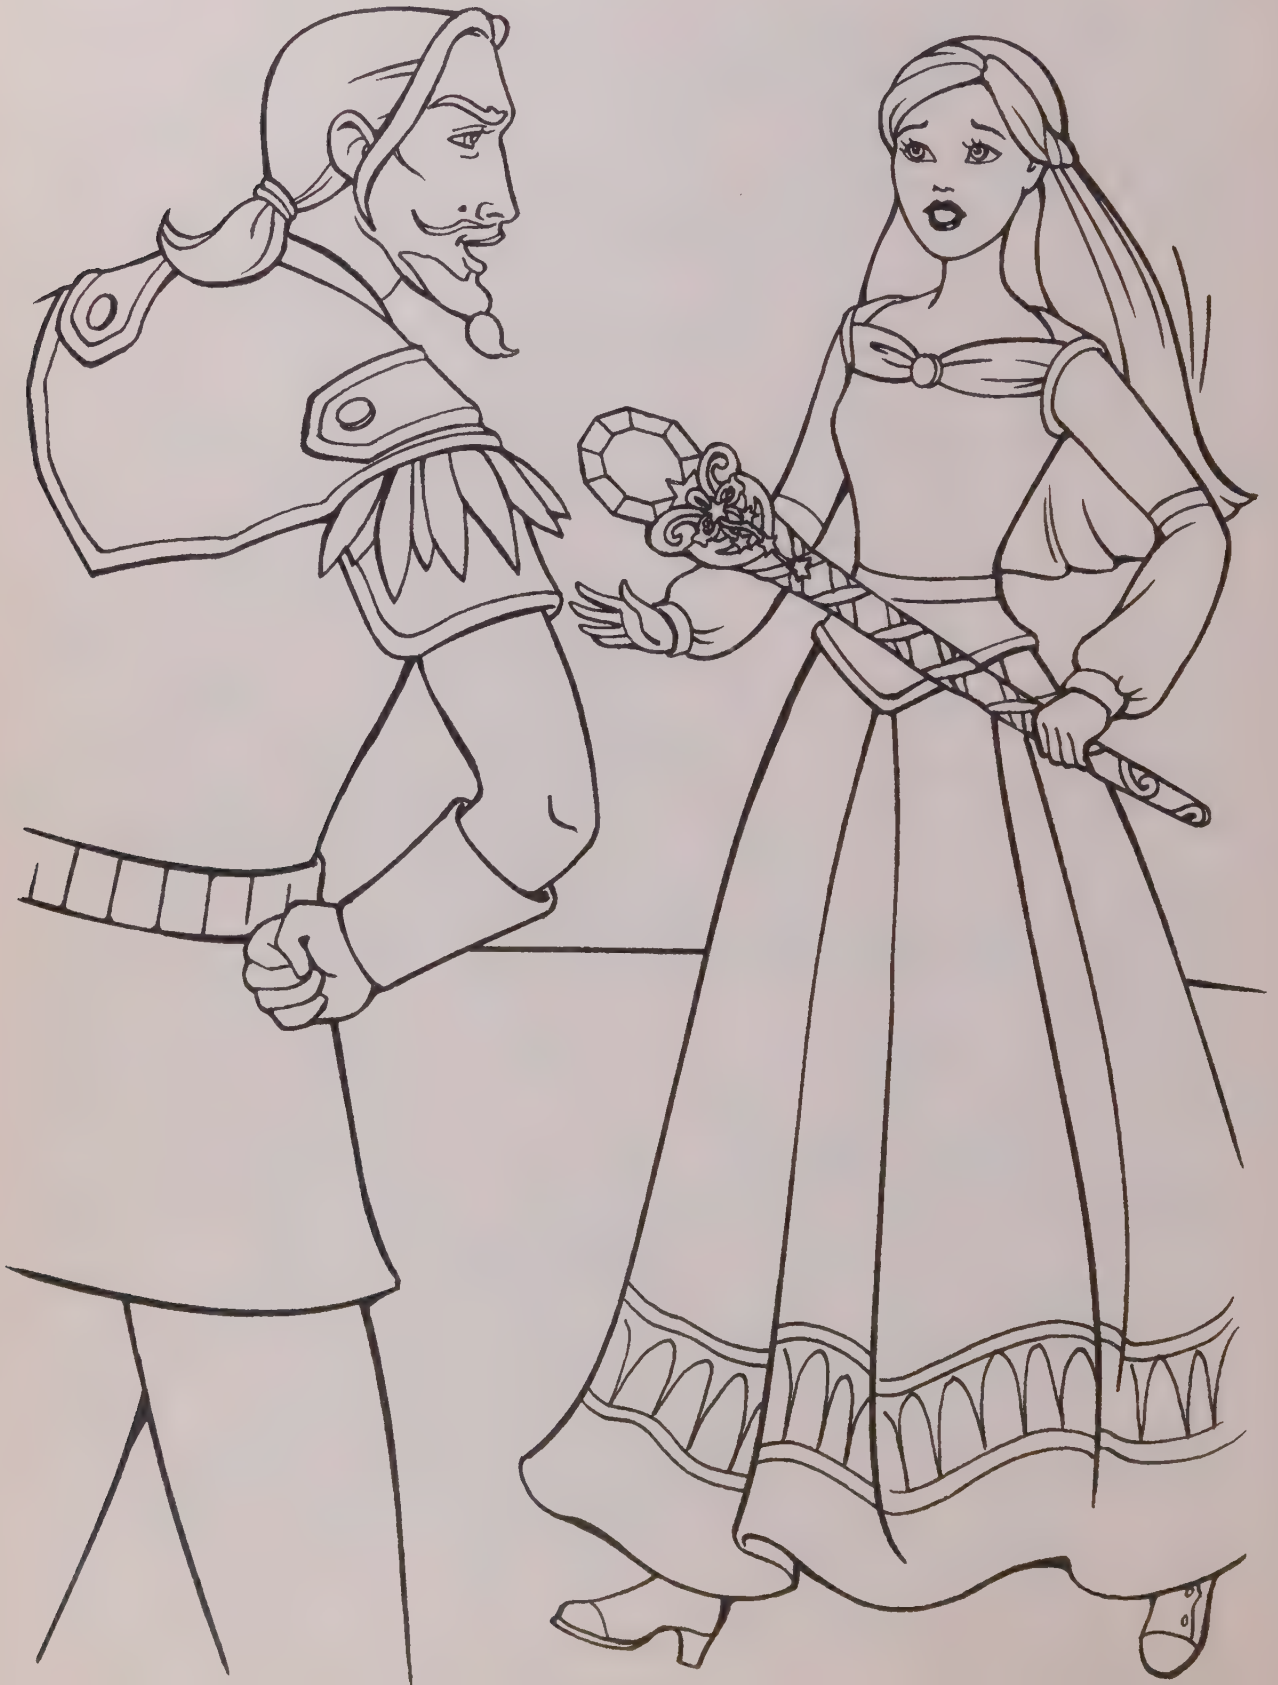

The friends are ready to go home with the finished wand.
But Brietta can't carry them anymore, so she rings the crystal bell and asks the Cloud Queen to send help.
Aidan decides to go back to his family.

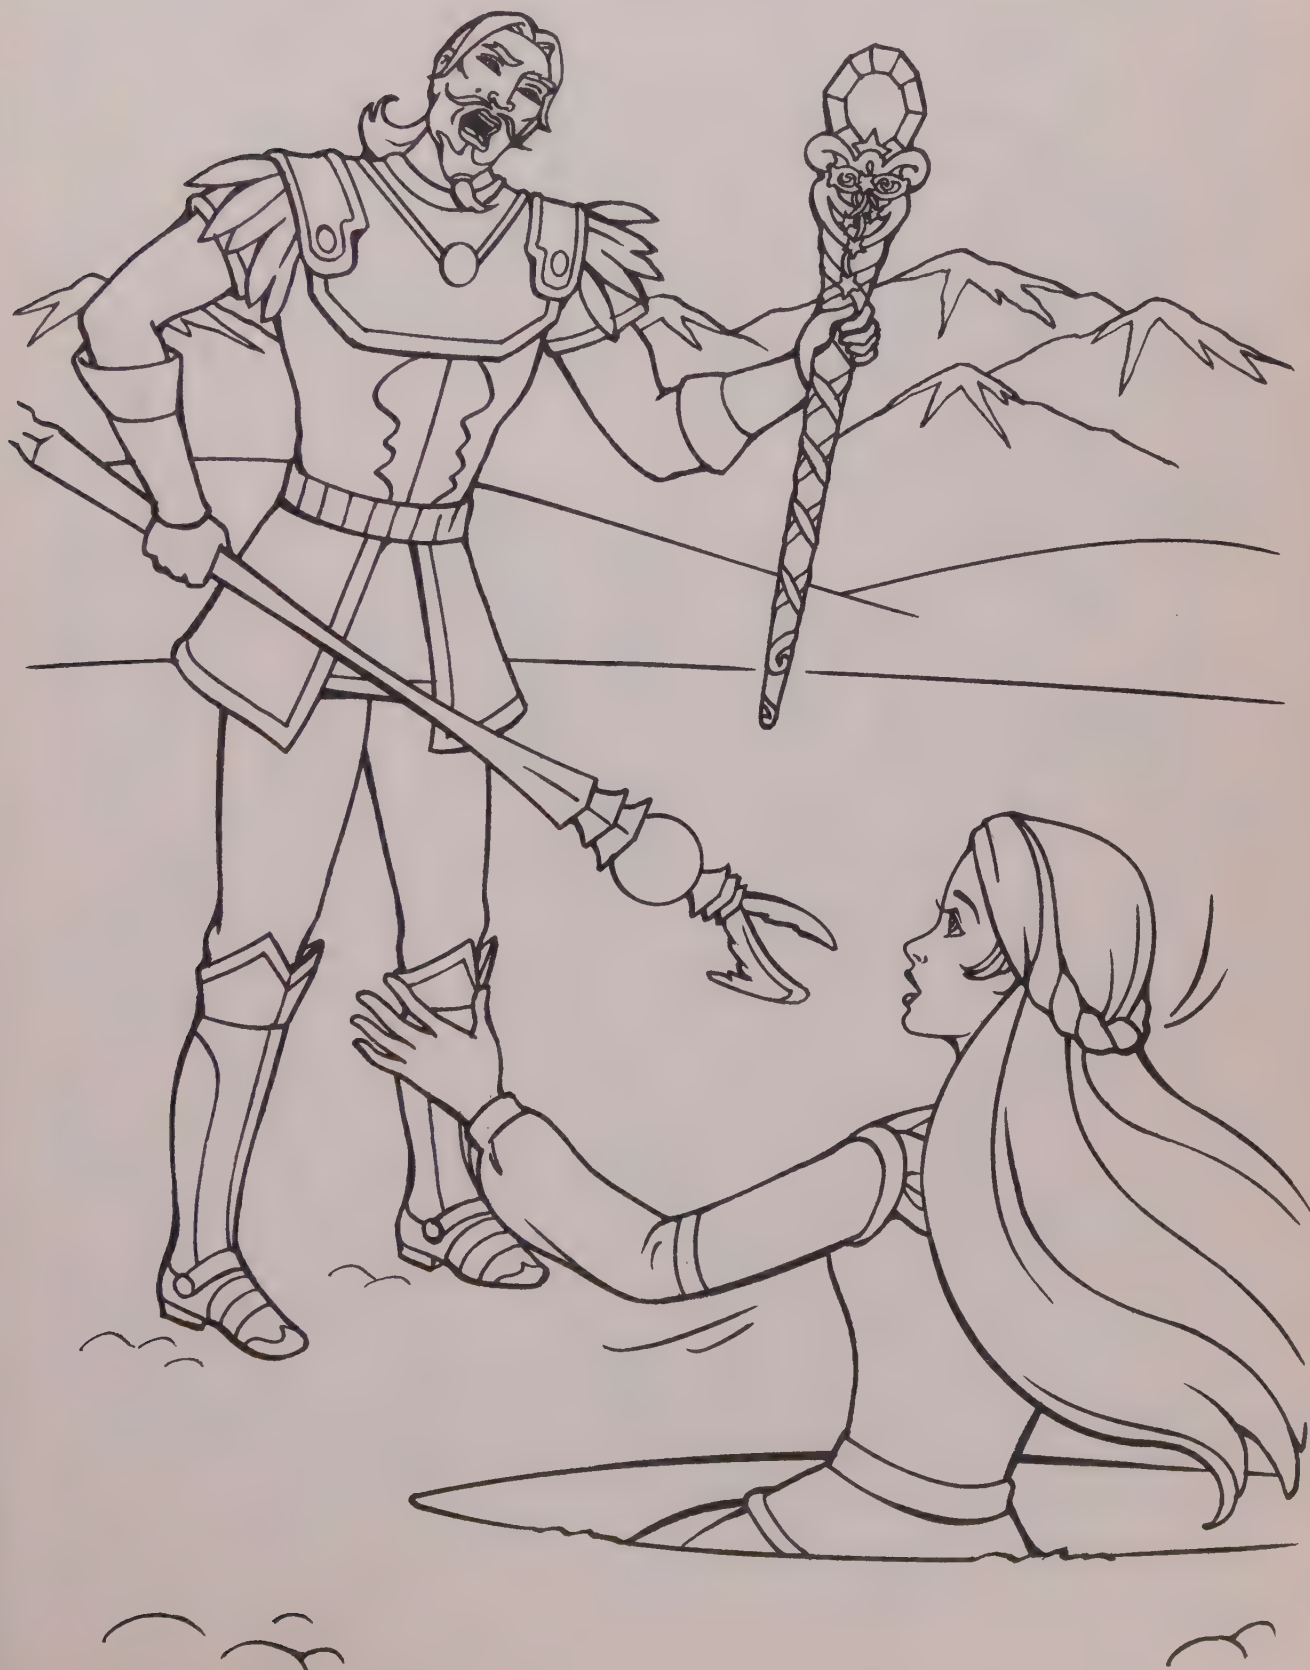

Wenlock finds the sisters on their way home and tries to stop them. He hurts Brietta.

An angry Annika tries to cast a spell on Wenlock. But the Wand of Light isn't working! Now she must agree to marry him to save her family and kingdom.

Wenlock has changed his mind and doesn't want to marry Annika. Instead, he grabs the wand and casts a spell on her that traps her in ice.

Brietta is surprised when Aidan returns to help her save Annika.

Aidan, Brietta, and Shiver take the Princess to the Cloud Palace.

Once at the Cloud Palace, Annika finally wakes up.

Time is running out! Annika needs to get the Wand of Light back from Wenlock before sunset.

Annika asks the Cloud Princesses to paint the sunset very slowly. This will give her more time to find the Wand!

There's no time to waste!
Annika and Aidan race to Wenlock's palace.

Wenlock tests the Wand of Light on his servants, but nothing happens! He thinks the Wand is powerless.

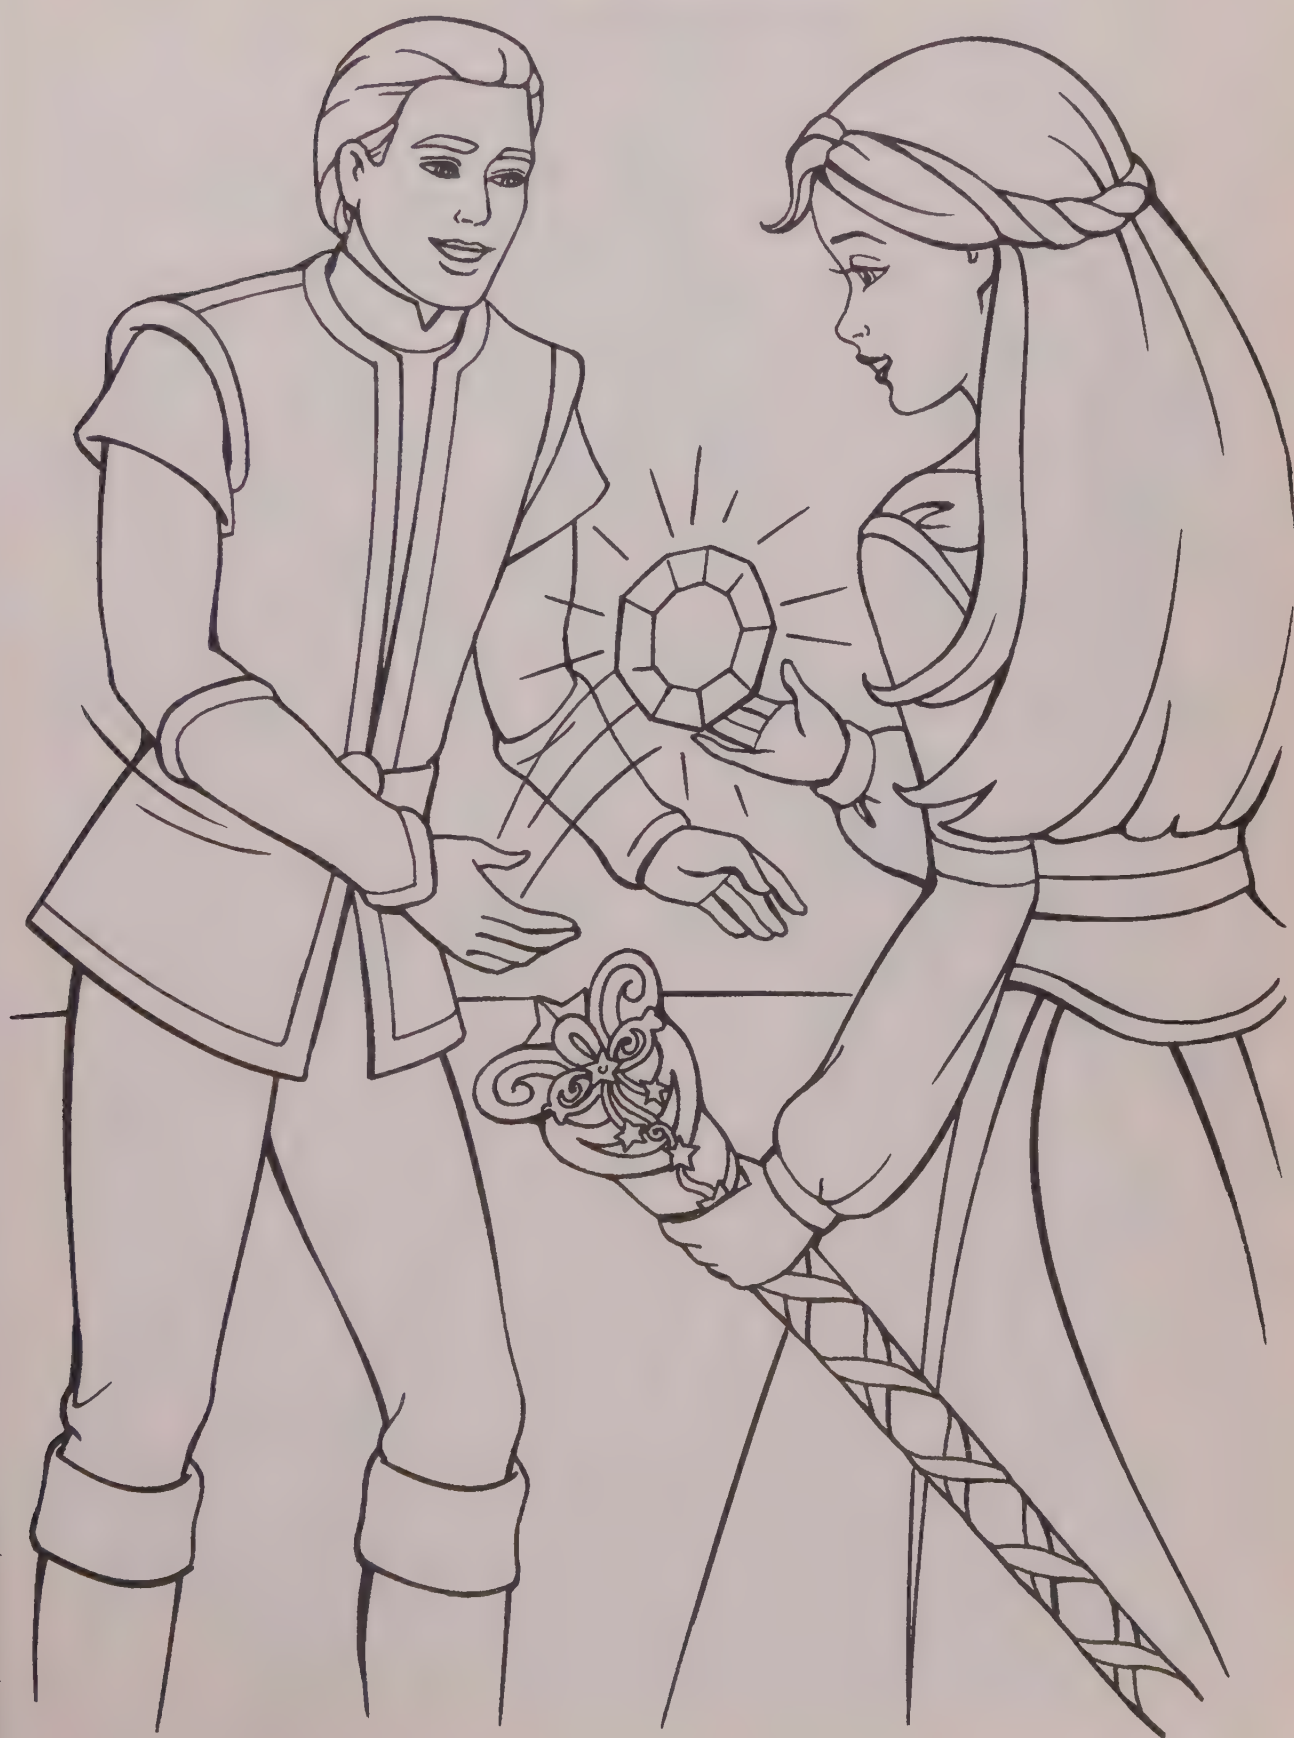

When Aidan and Annika arrive at Wenlock's palace, the griffin is there to meet them! Aidan keeps him away while Annika looks for the Wand of Light.

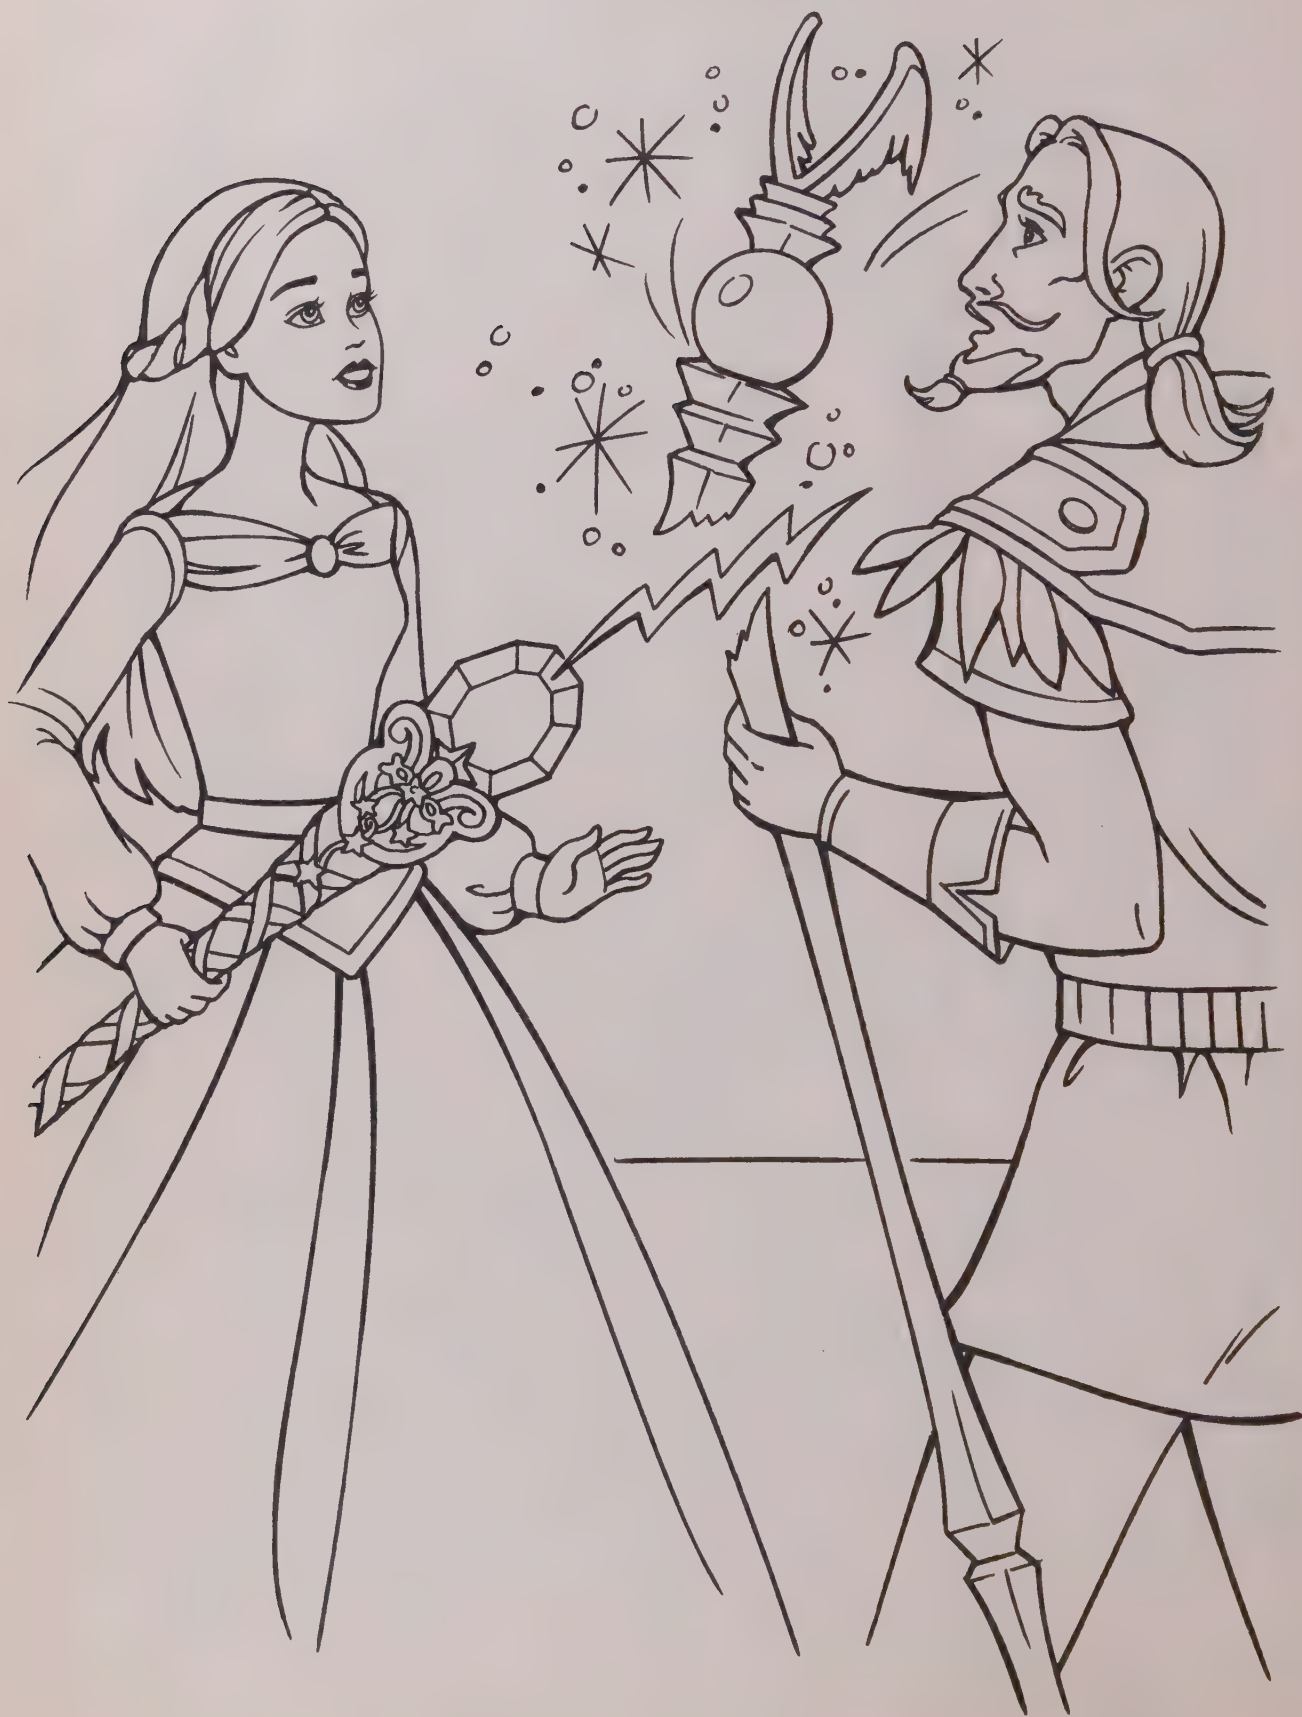

Annika finds the Wand, but the Gem of Ice is lost!

Aidan gives her a star diamond he found in the cave, and Annika is able to fix the Wand.

With love for her family and her kingdom, Annika uses the Wand of Light to destroy Wenlock's powers and break all his wicked spells.

Annika learns that the Wand of Light must be used only out of love, never out of hate.

With Wenlock gone, Brietta is thrilled to be with her family again! The kingdom is back to normal.

Annika and Brietta ask the Cloud Queen to watch over the Wand of Light and keep it safe.

Annika's bravery and loving heart have saved her family and their kingdom from evil. Now it's time to celebrate!

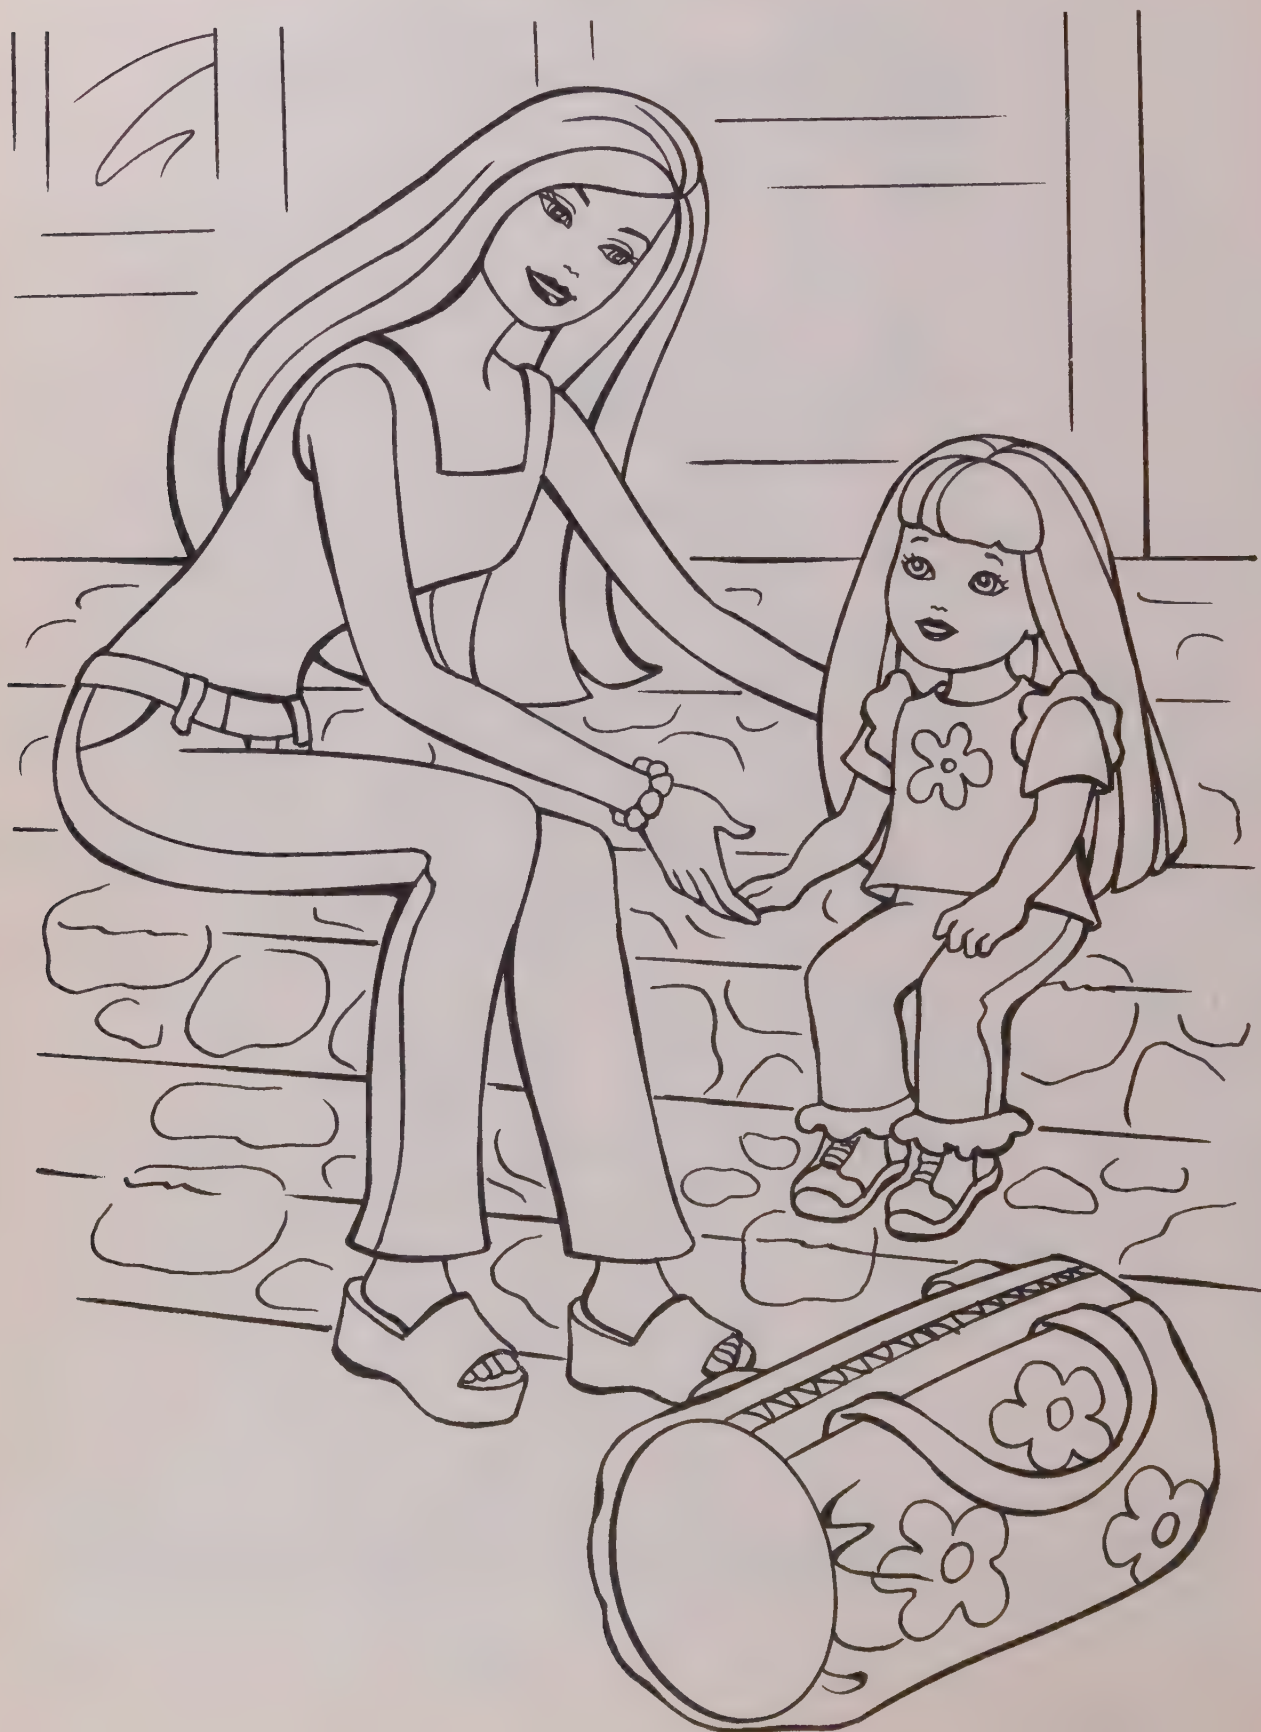

BarbieTM of Swan Lake

The Swan Princess

Kelly is feeling a little afraid to go to sleepover camp.
So Barbie tells her a story about a beautiful girl who turns into a swan.

Her name is Odette, and she is very kind.

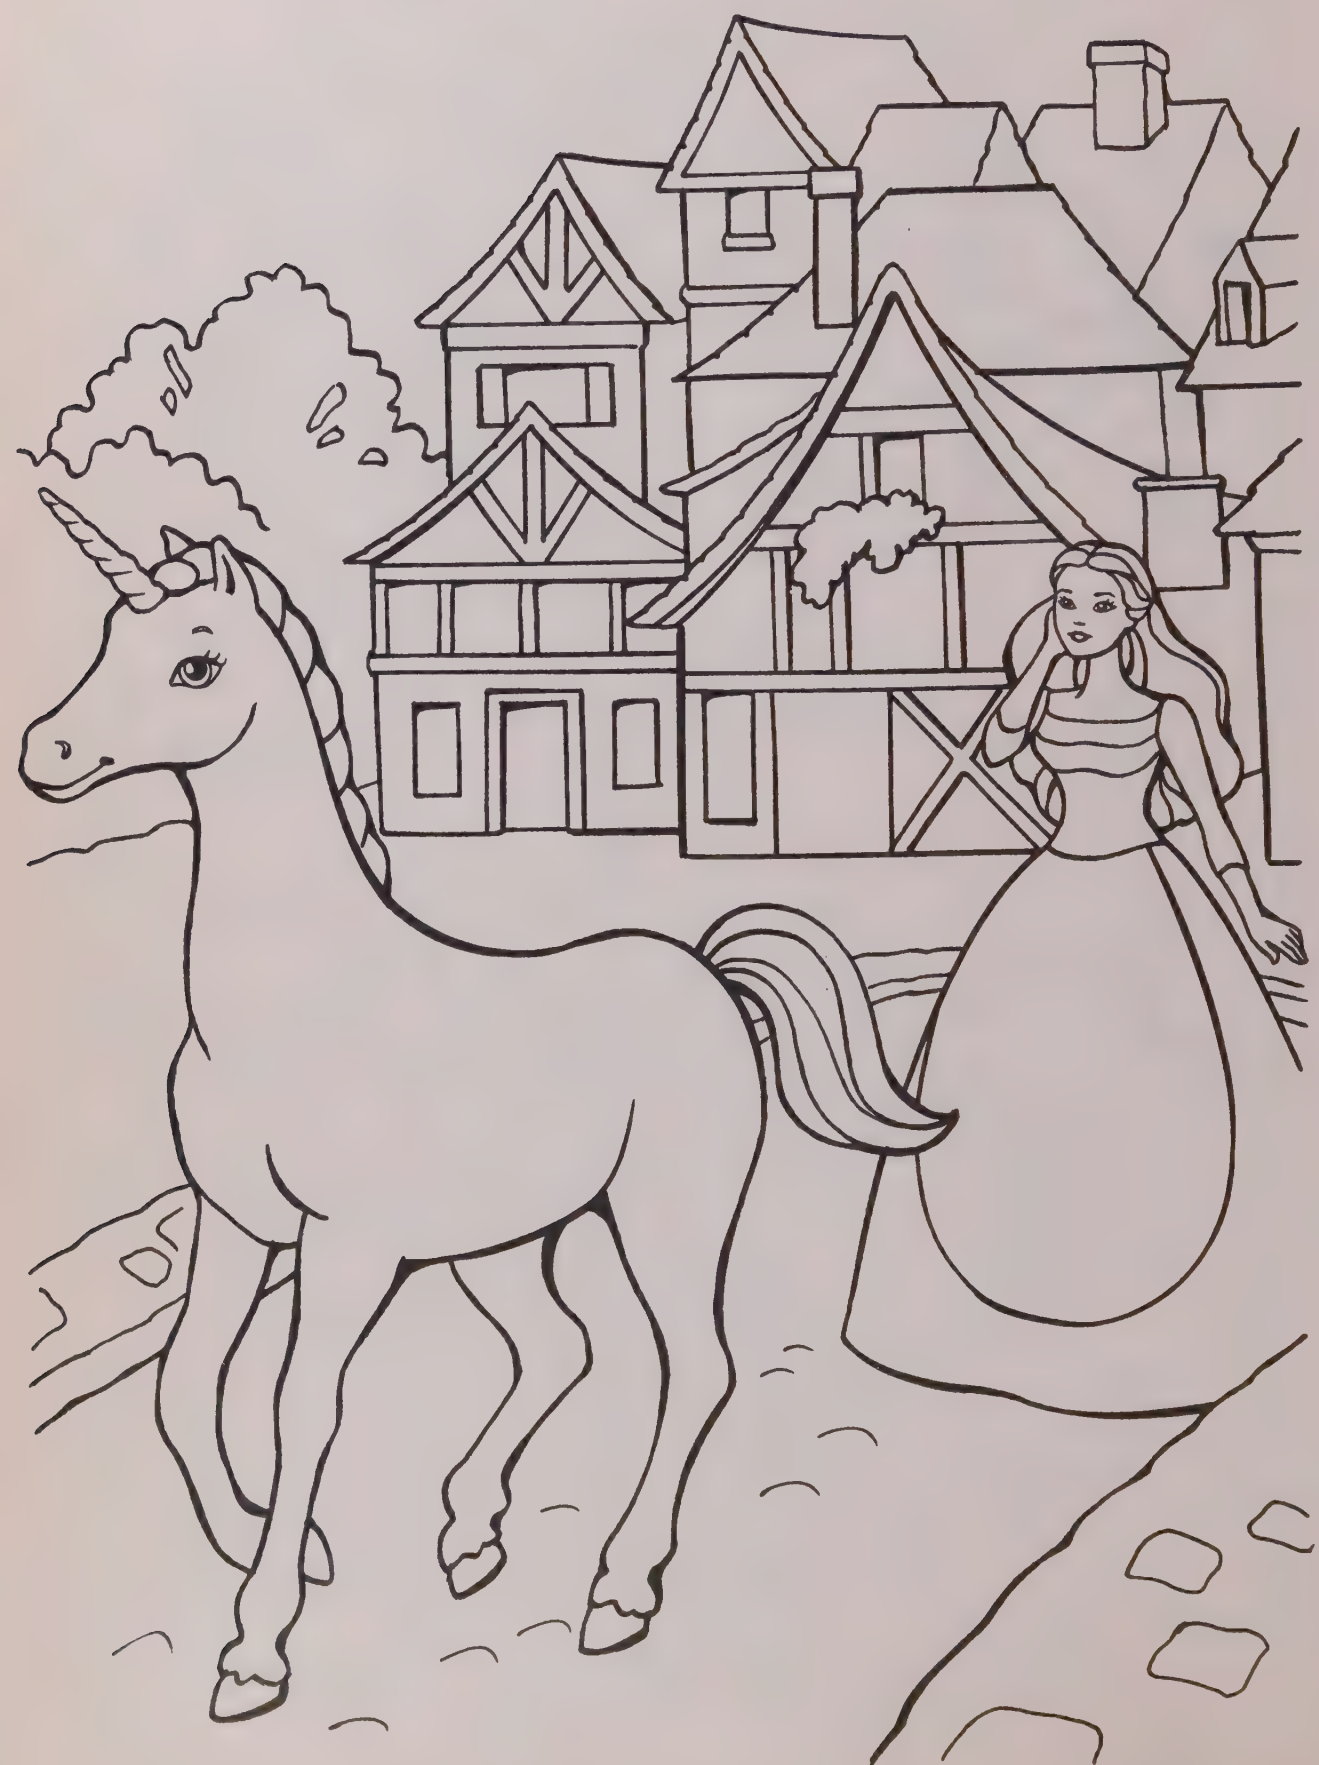

Odette works in her family's bakery with her sister and father.

But the Prince would rather explore the world.

Odette sees a real unicorn in her village!

The villagers use a rope to try to catch it.

Odette follows the unicorn into a beautiful forest.

She finds out that the unicorn can talk and that her name is Lila.

Odette pulls a Magic Crystal from a tree. It glows when she touches it! Odette uses it to cut the rope and free Lila.

The Fairy Queen tells Odette that the one who frees the Magic Crystal will have the power to save the Enchanted Forest from Rothbart.

Soon Rothbart the wizard appears with his daughter, Odile.
He thinks Odette will use the Magic Crystal to save the forest.

To stop her, Rothbart turns Odette into a swan!

To protect Odette, the Fairy Queen gives her a crown fitted with the Magic Crystal. But Odette will also need to be very brave to stand up to Rothbart.

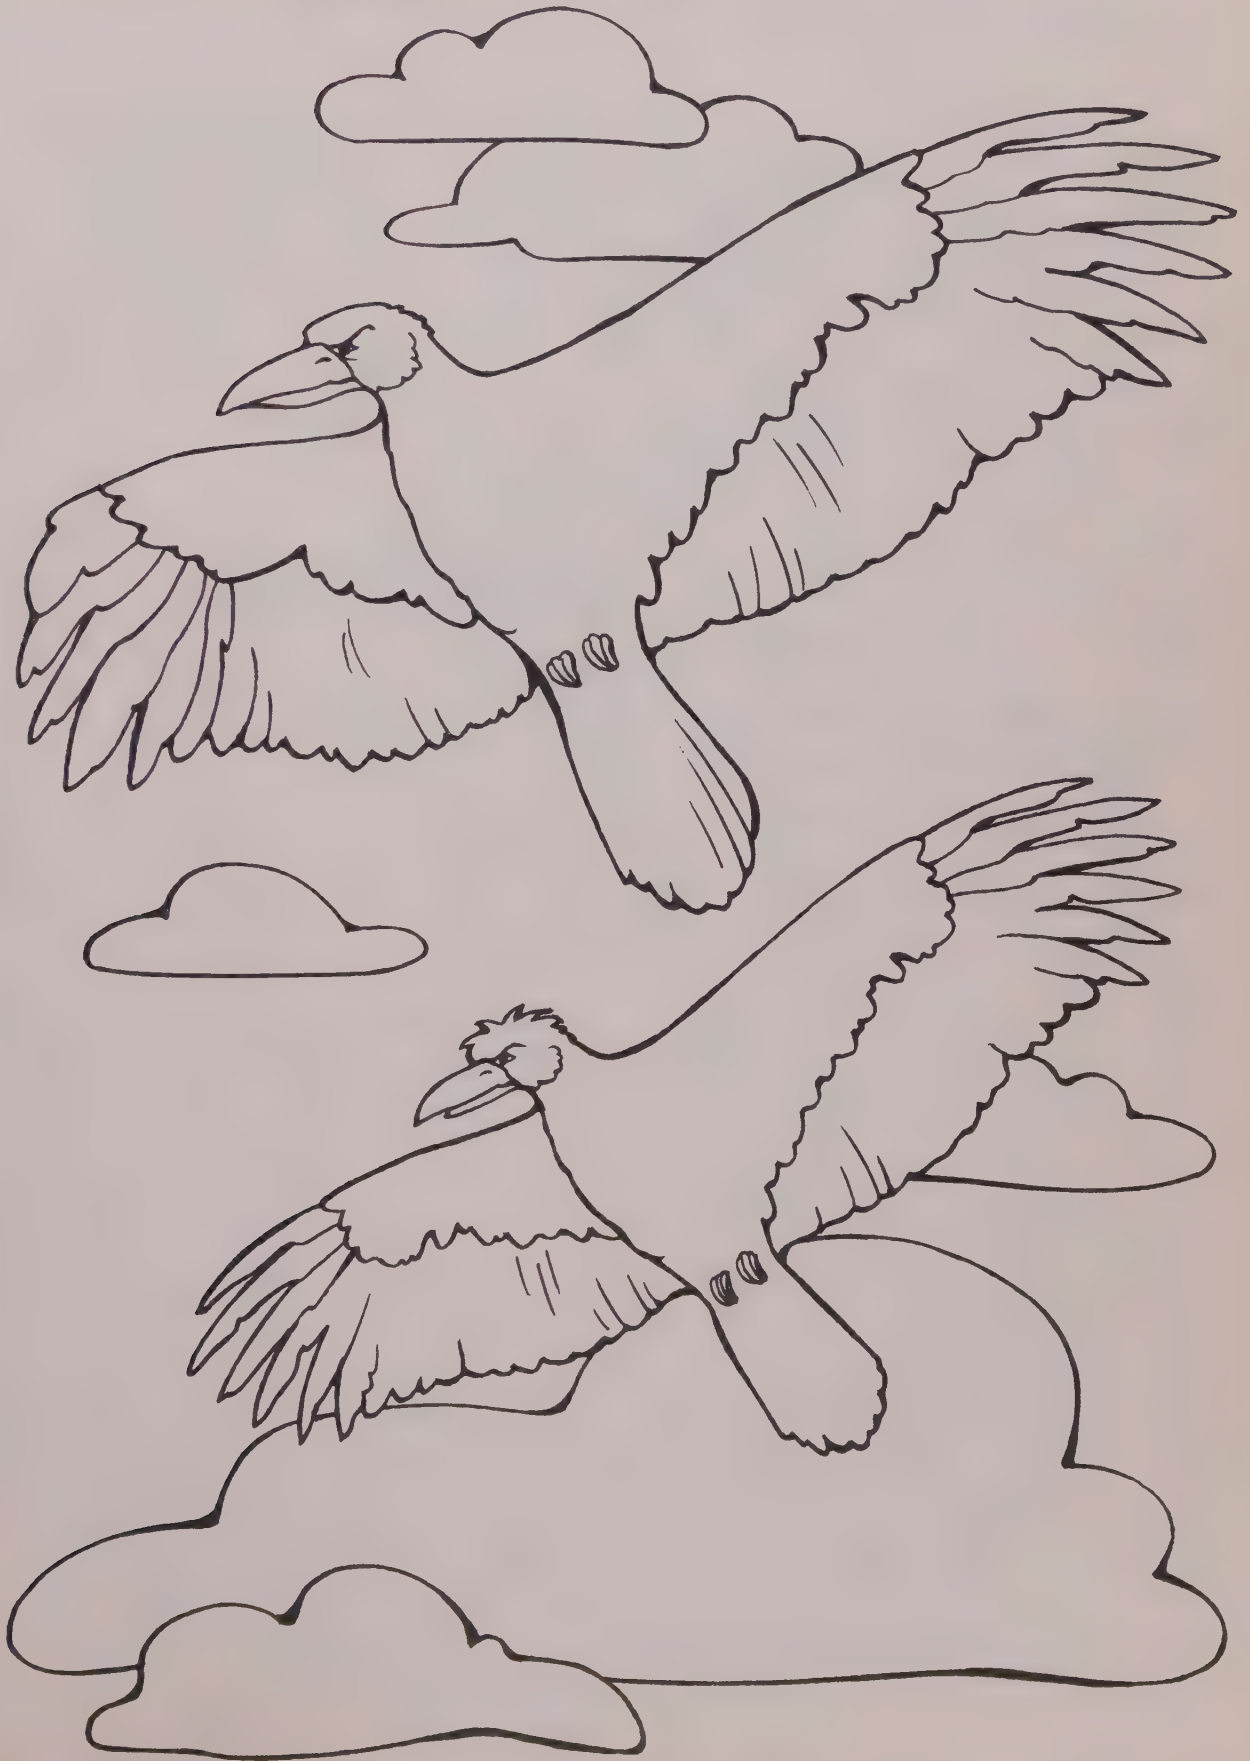

No matter how hard Rothbart tries to destroy the Crystal's power, it still glows.

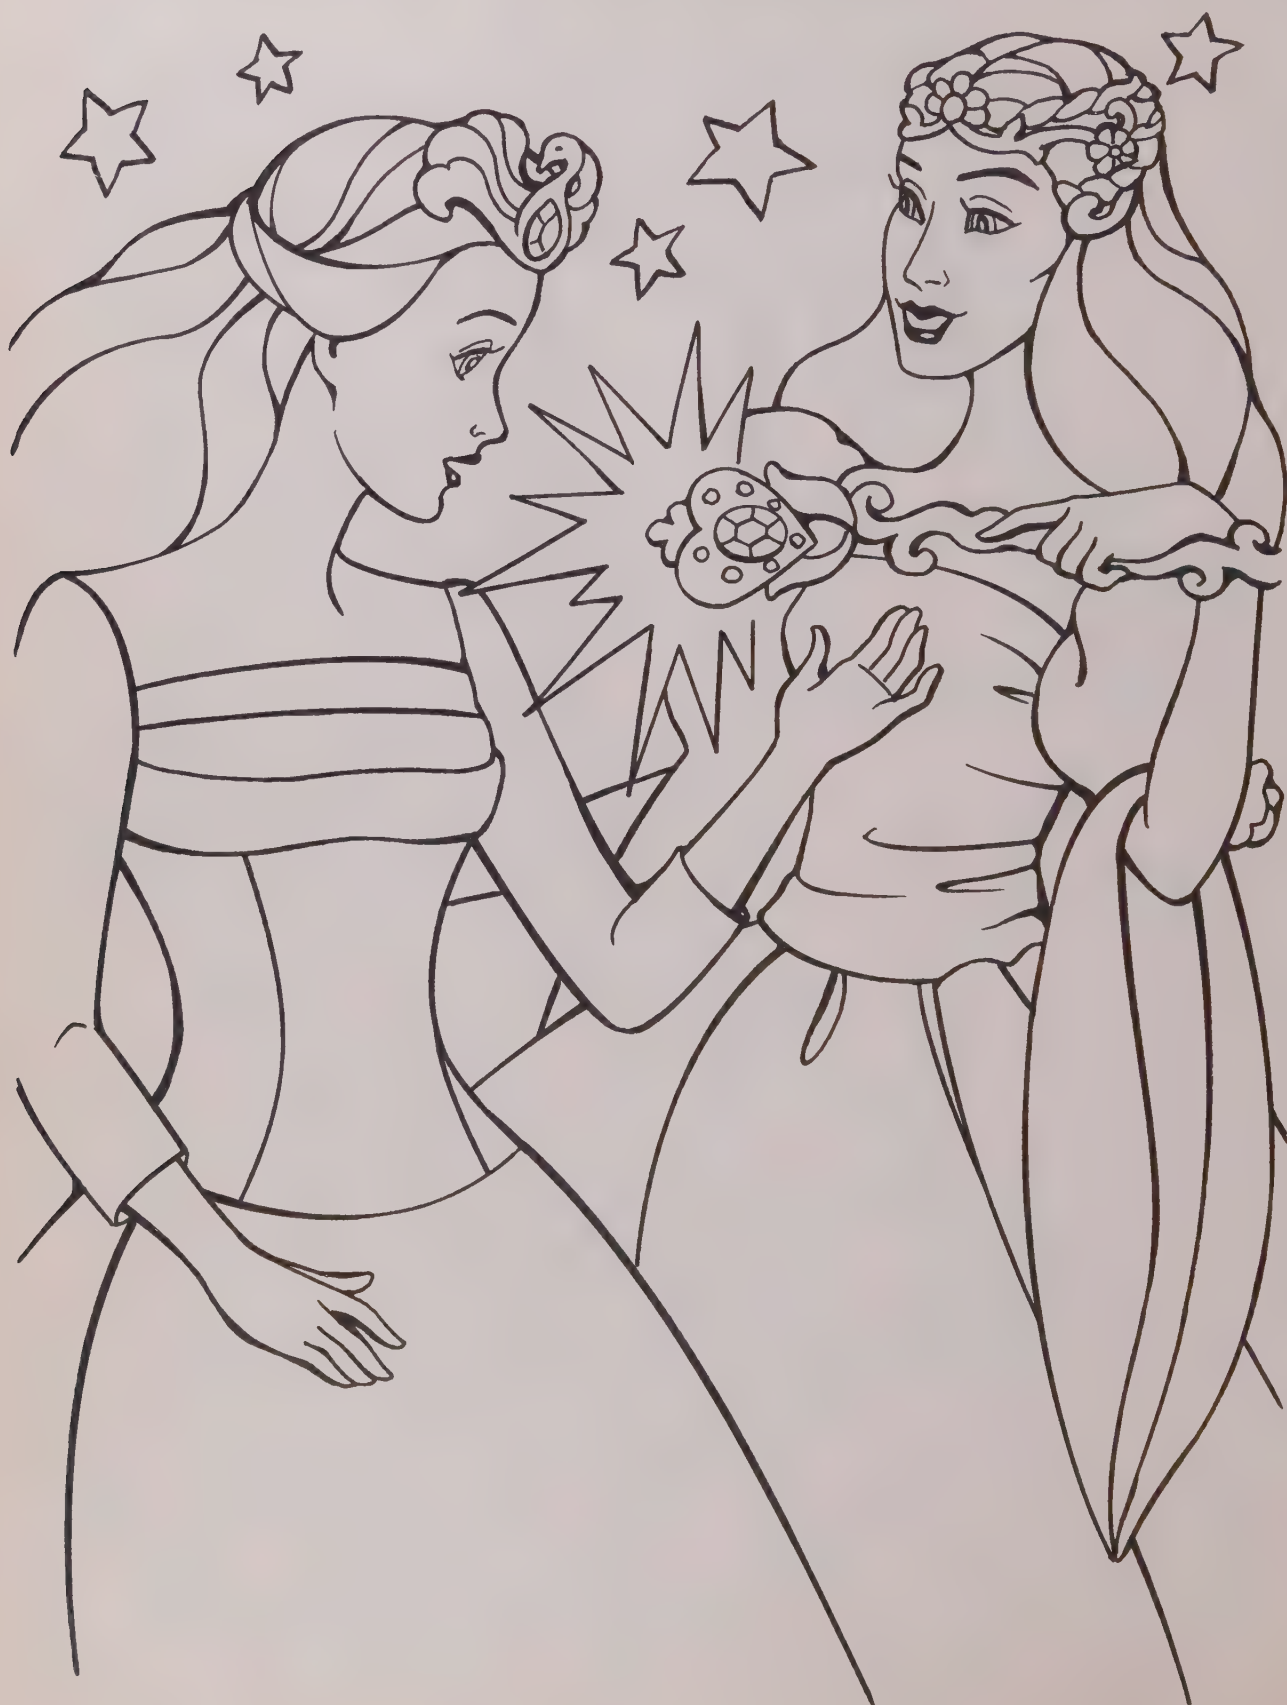

Rothbart discovers he can't use his evil magic on Odette.

He becomes angry, turns into a bird, and flies away with Odile.

The Fairy Queen has enough power to cast a spell allowing Odette to be a girl again only when the sun goes down. In the morning, Odette will turn back into a swan.

Odette's new friends tell her that the only way to stop Rothbart is to find and read the Book of Forest Lore.
Lila takes Odette to find the book.

Erasmus the troll guards the Book of Forest Lore.

Meanwhile, Rothbart comes up with a plan to get the Magic Crystal.

He tricks Prince Daniel into coming to the Enchanted Forest. Rothbart wants the Prince to think Odette is a real swan that he can hunt.

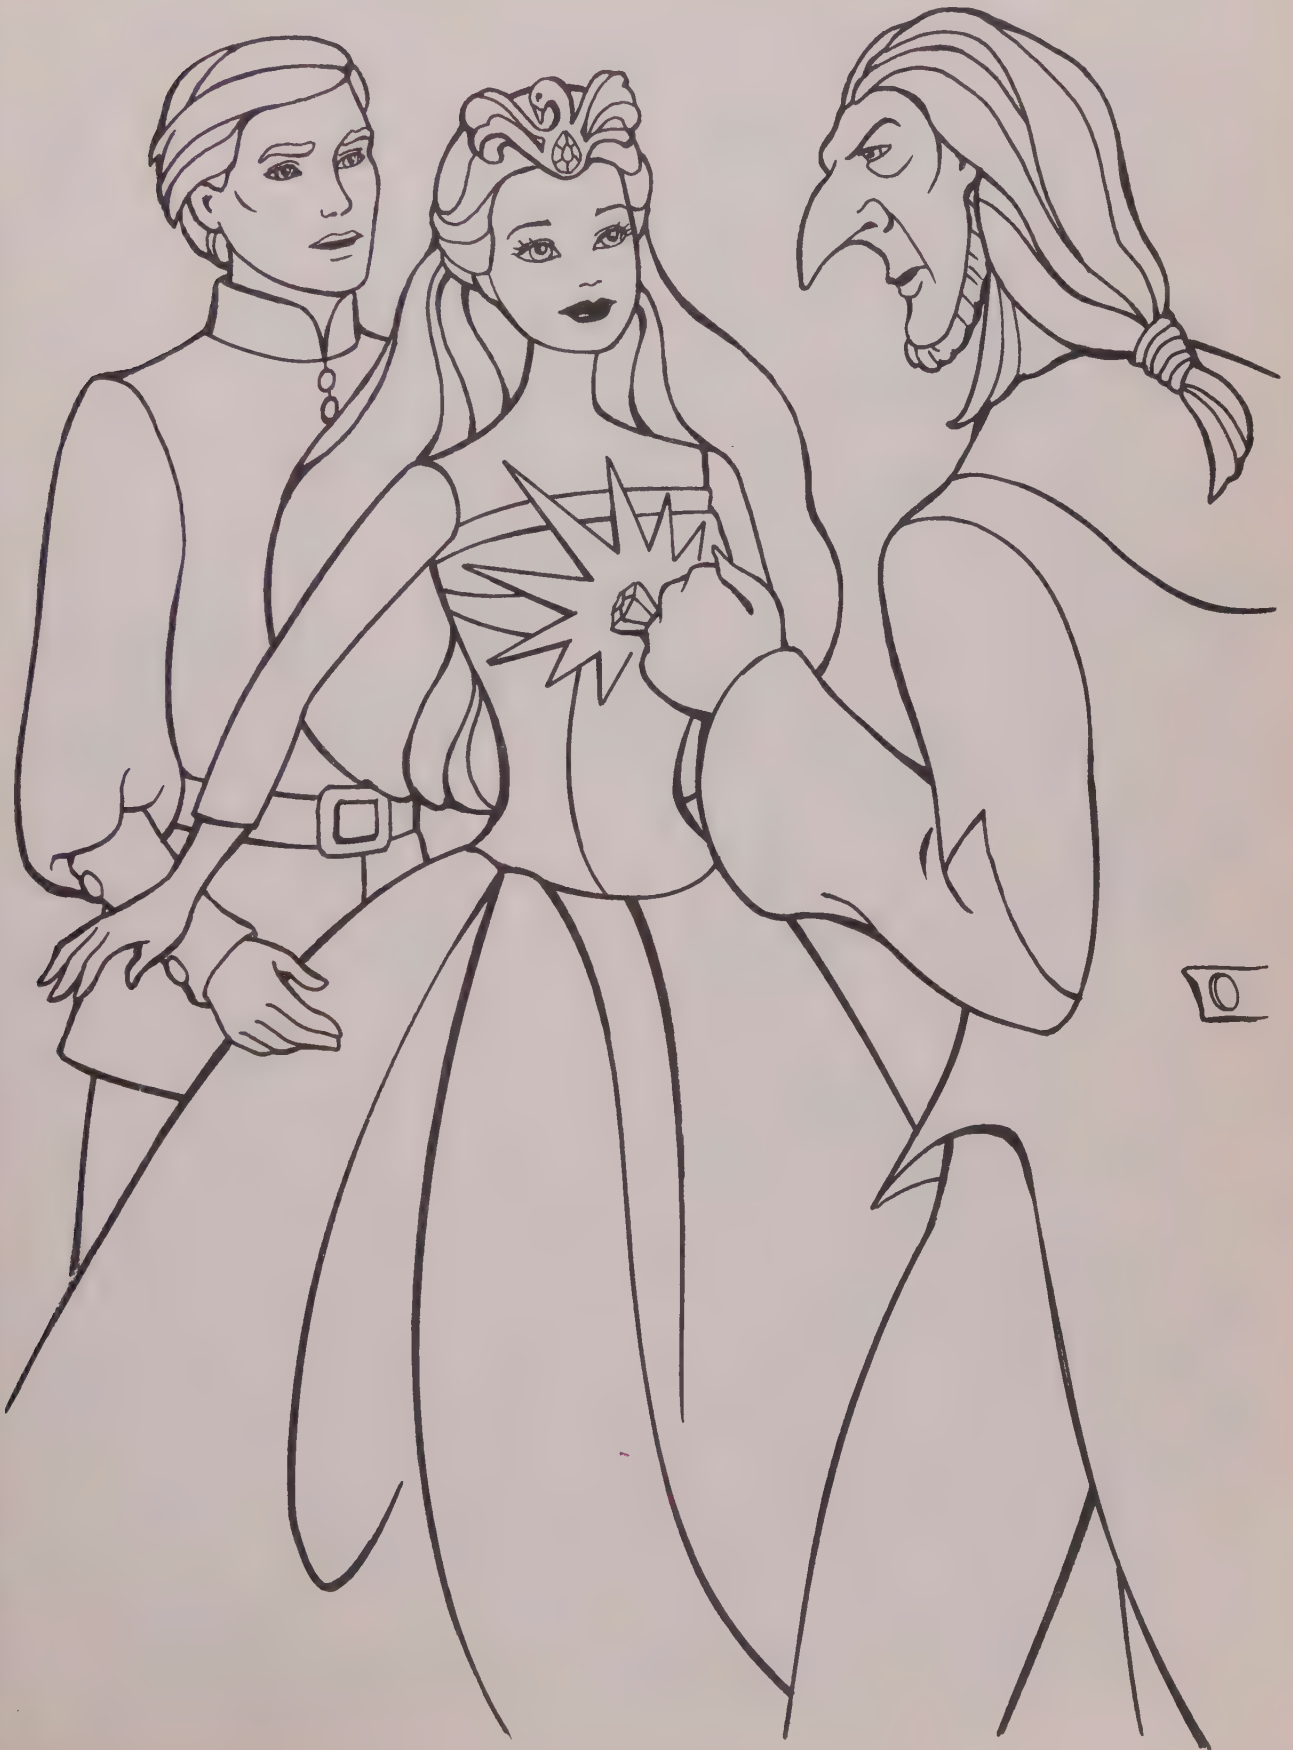

But Prince Daniel cannot shoot the beautiful swan.

Prince Daniel watches Odette change from a swan to a beautiful girl. Odette tells him she is trying to break Rothbart's evil spell.

Prince Daniel won't help Rothbart with his plan. Rothbart becomes angry and tries to turn the Prince into a pig.

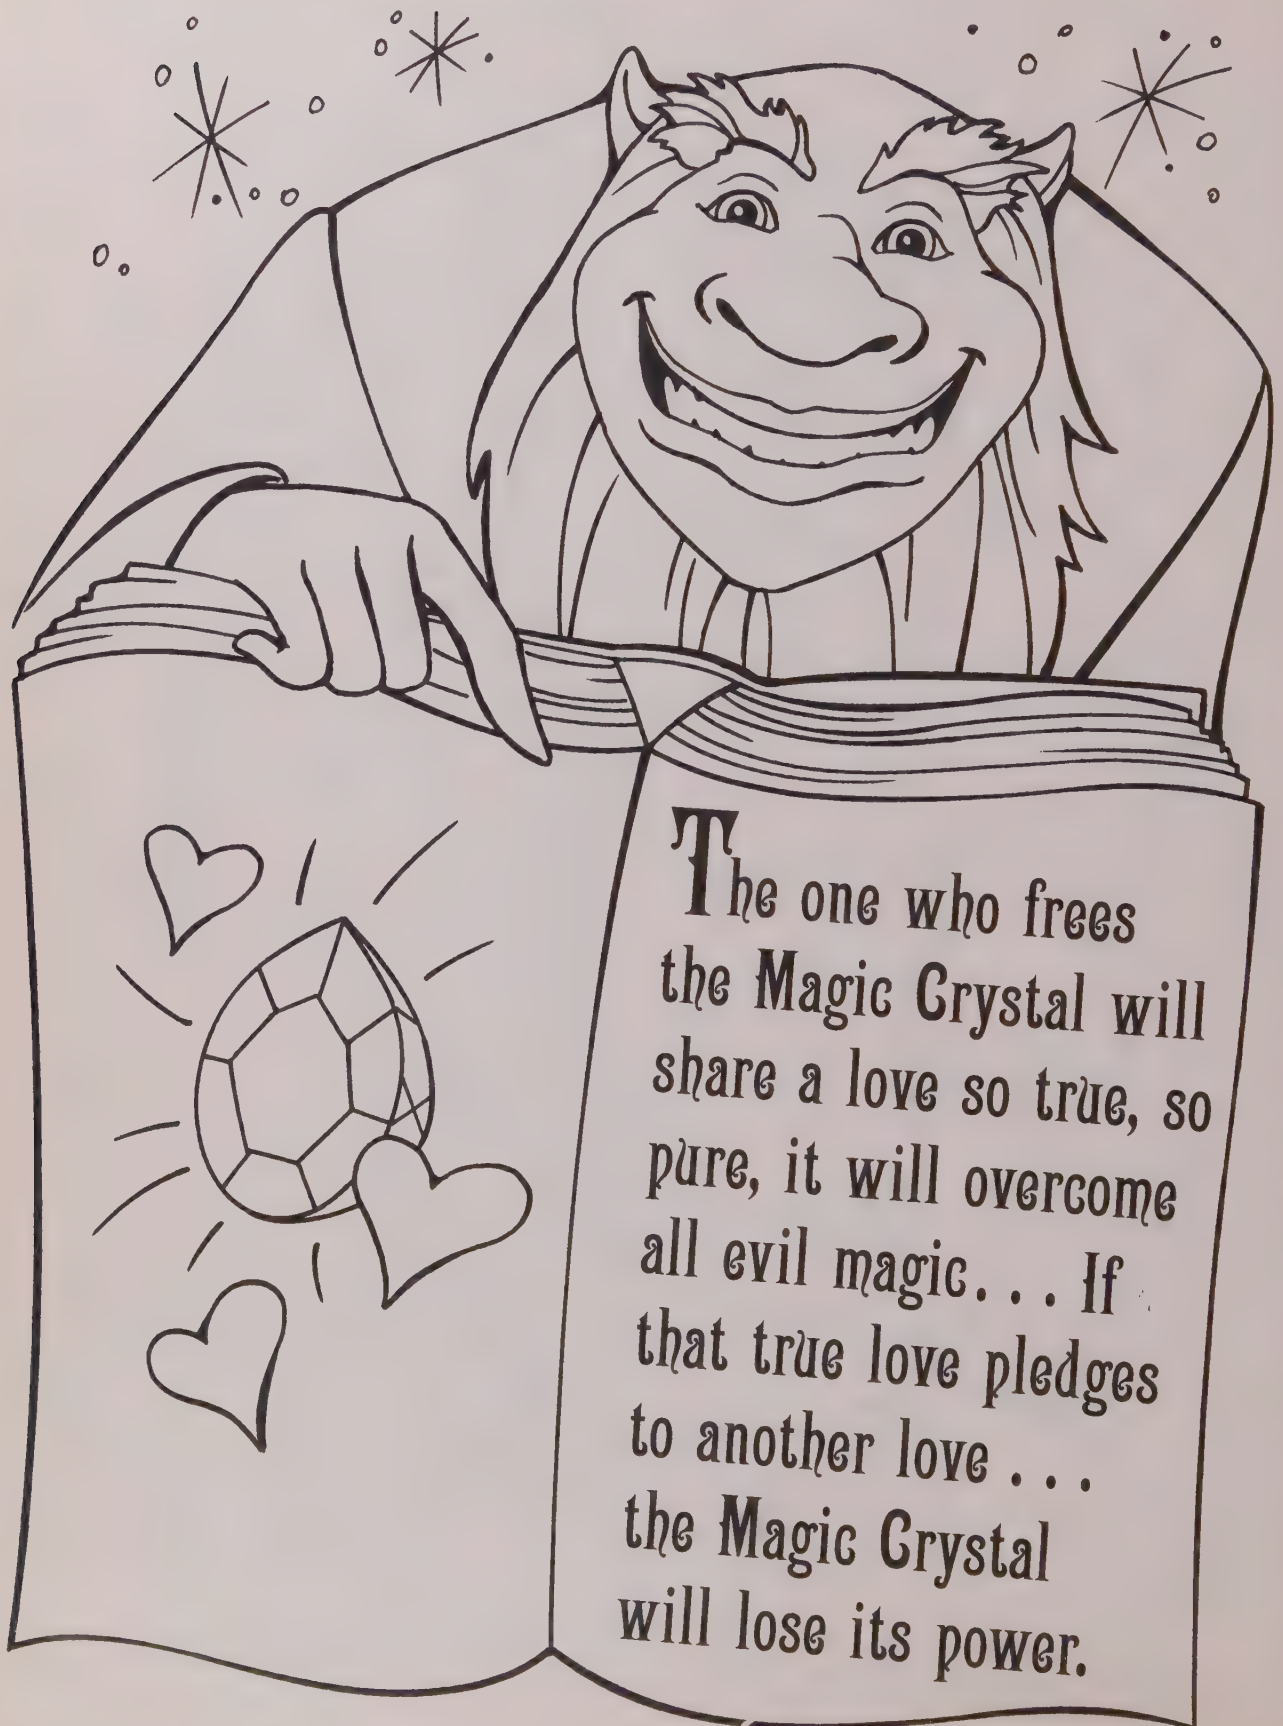

But brave Odette saves the Prince.

The Prince thanks Odette and invites her to the Royal Ball.

Finally, Erasmus finds the legend of the Magic Crystal in the Book of Forest Lore.

The Fairy Queen gives Odette a beautiful dress to wear to the Royal Ball.

Odette's new friend gives her a lucky necklace to wear.

The Fairy Queen teaches Odette how to dance.

All of Odette's friends join them!

If Prince Daniel tells Odile that he loves her, the Magic Crystal will lose its power, and Rothbart will rule the forest.

Rothbart gives Odile a magic necklace. Now every time Prince Daniel sees Odile, he will be tricked into thinking he sees Odette, his true love.

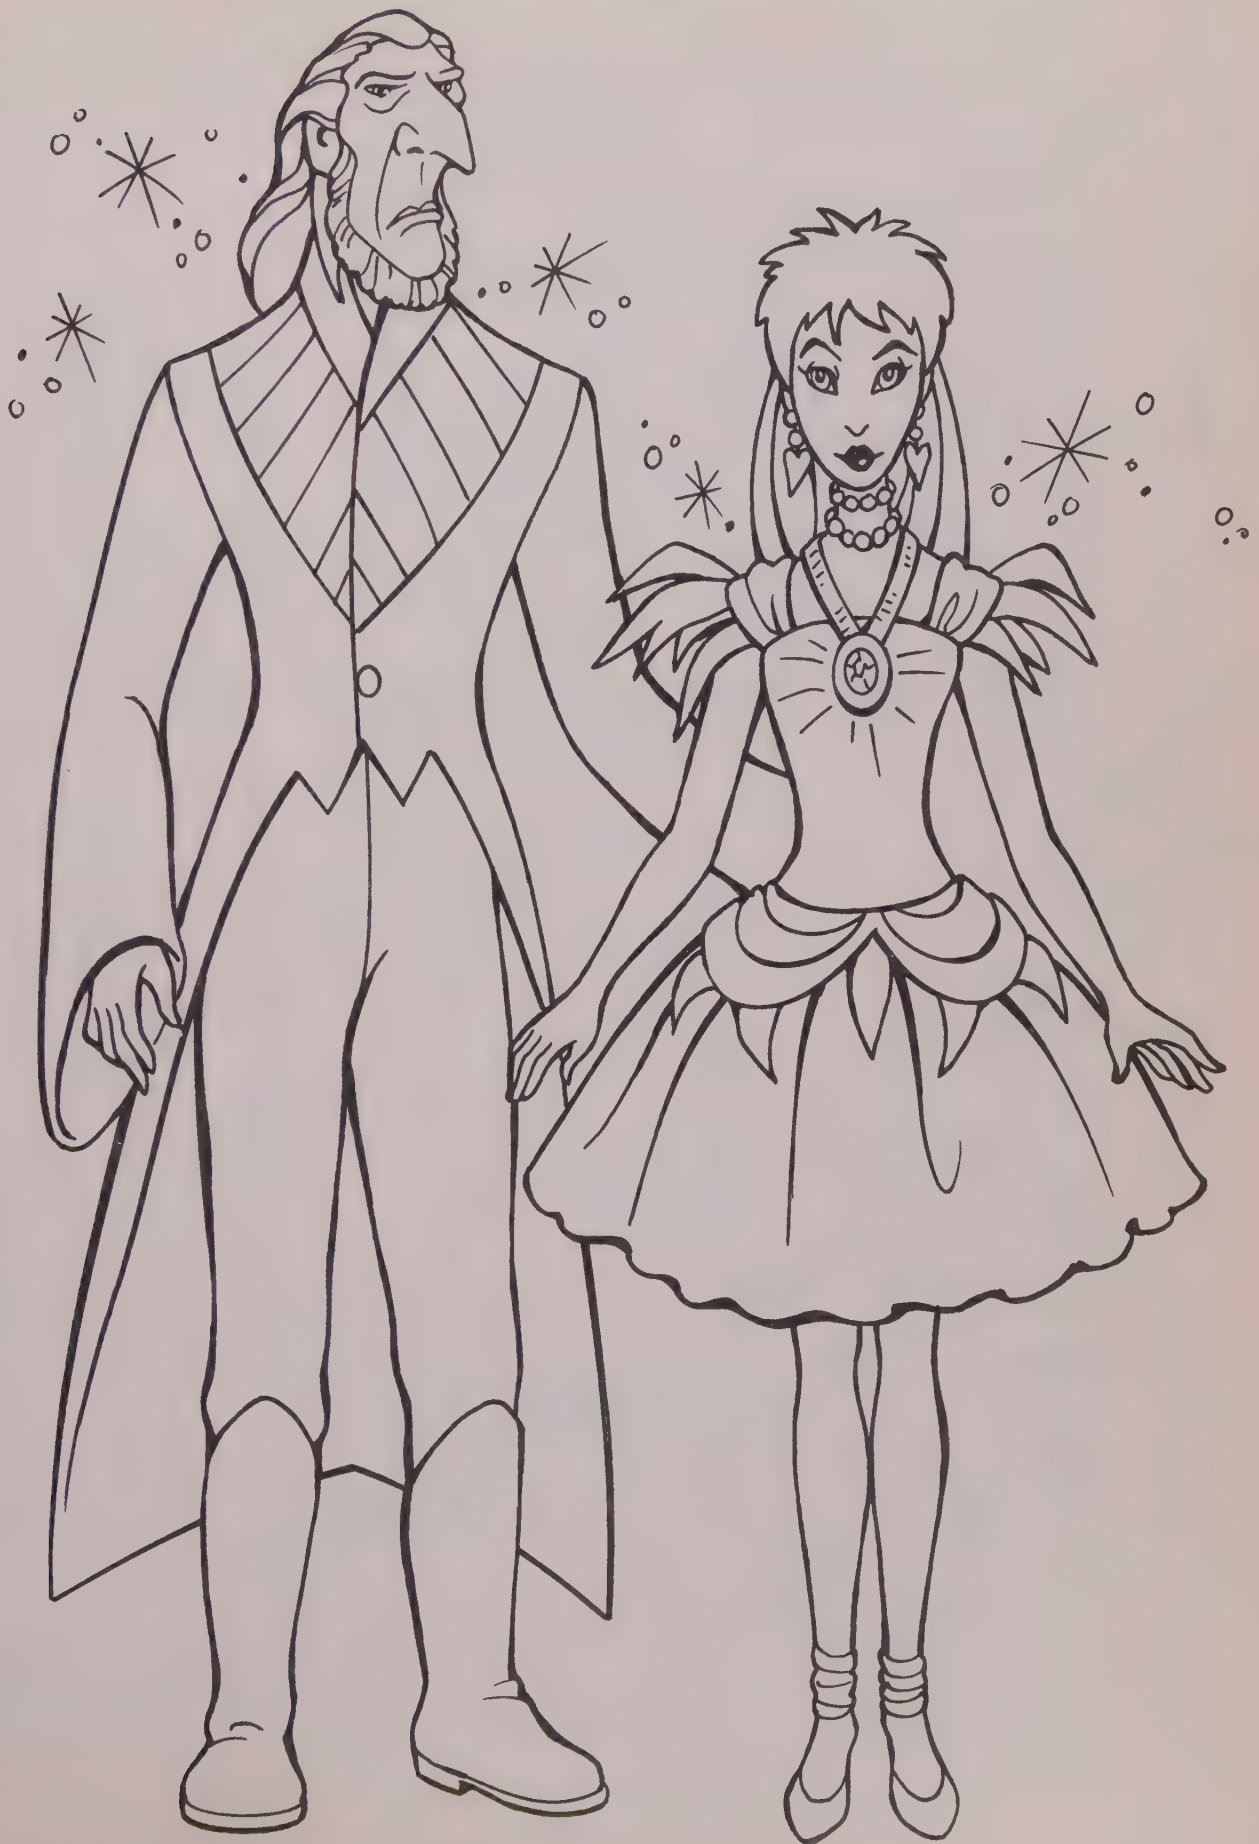

Rothbart snatches the Book of Forest Lore from Erasmus and casts a spell on him.

Rothbart turns Erasmus into a worm, a tasty snack for his evil ravens!

Rothbart and Odile arrive at the Royal Ball.

The Prince thinks Odile is Odette!

Odette the swan tries to warn Prince Daniel.

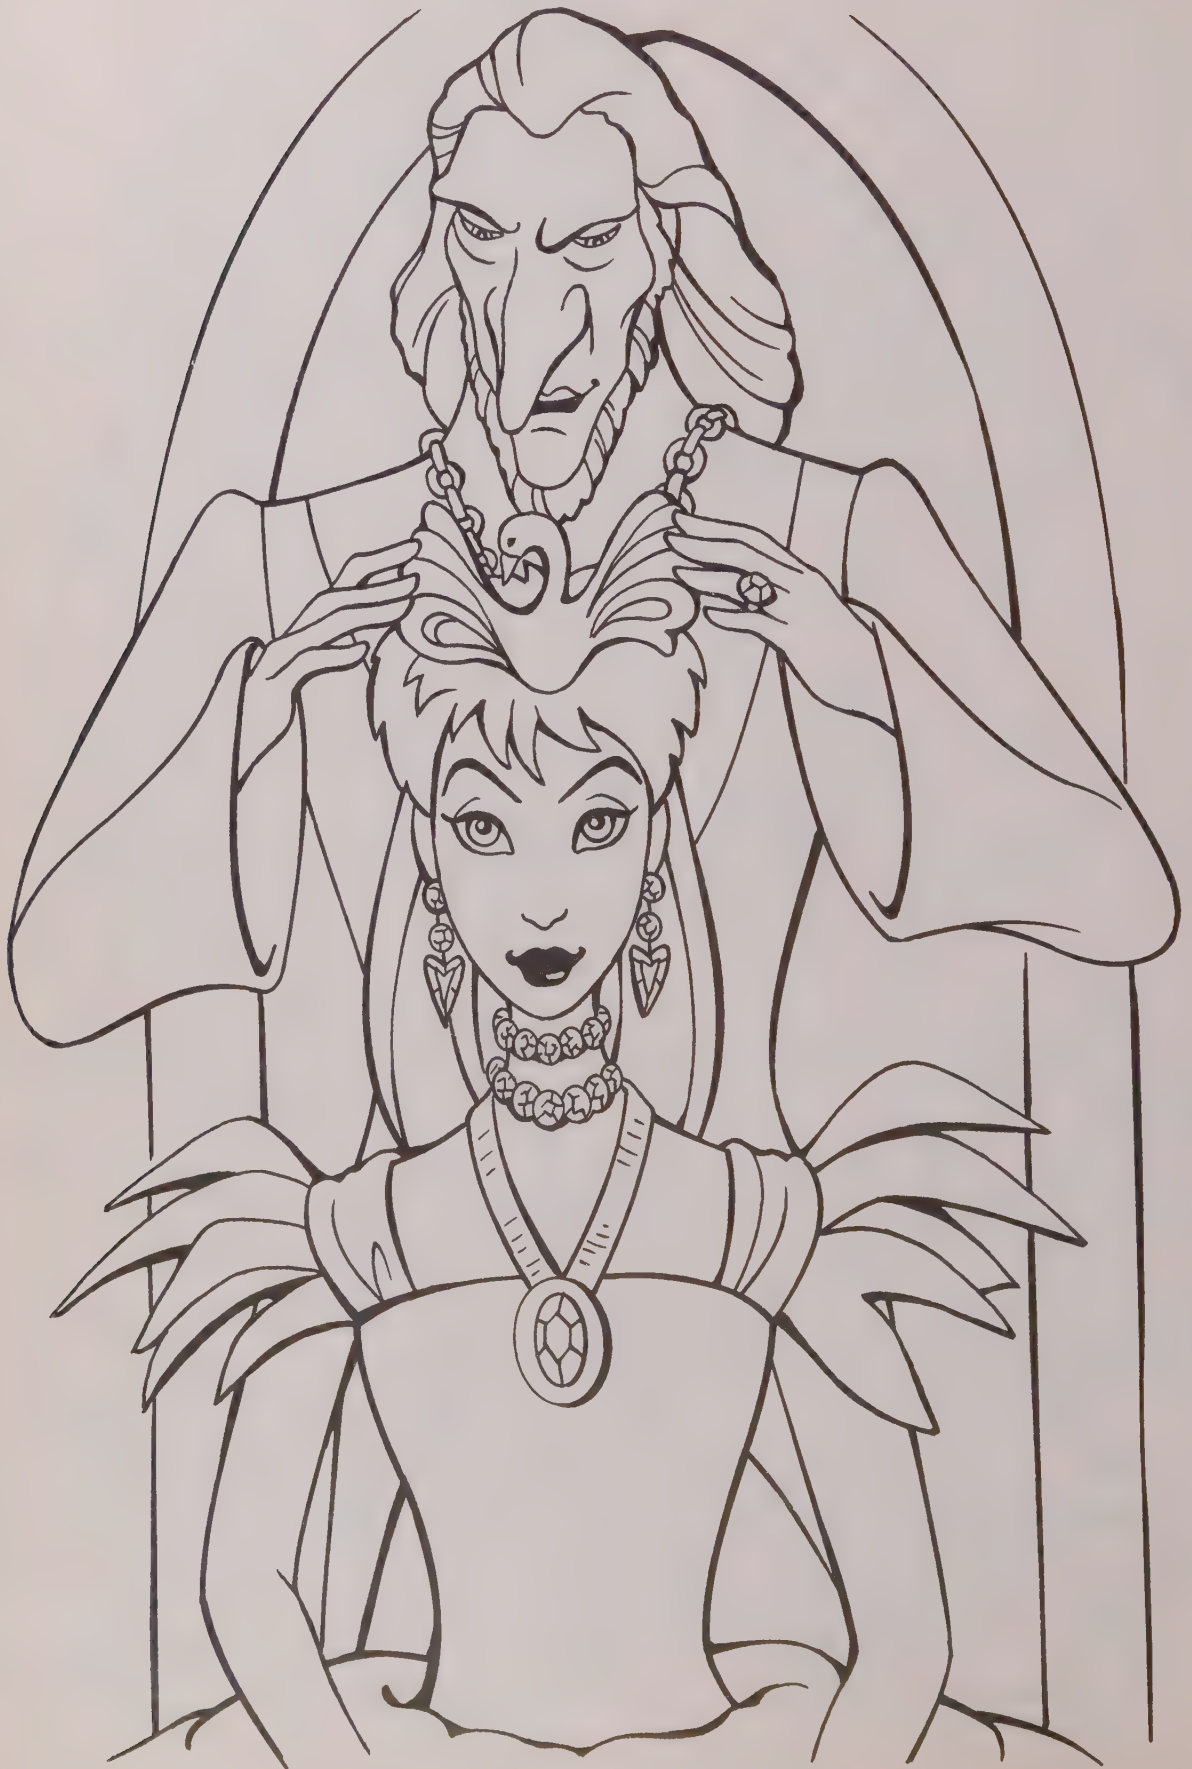

Prince Daniel tells Odile he loves her with all his heart.
He thinks she is Odette! The Magic Crystal loses its power.

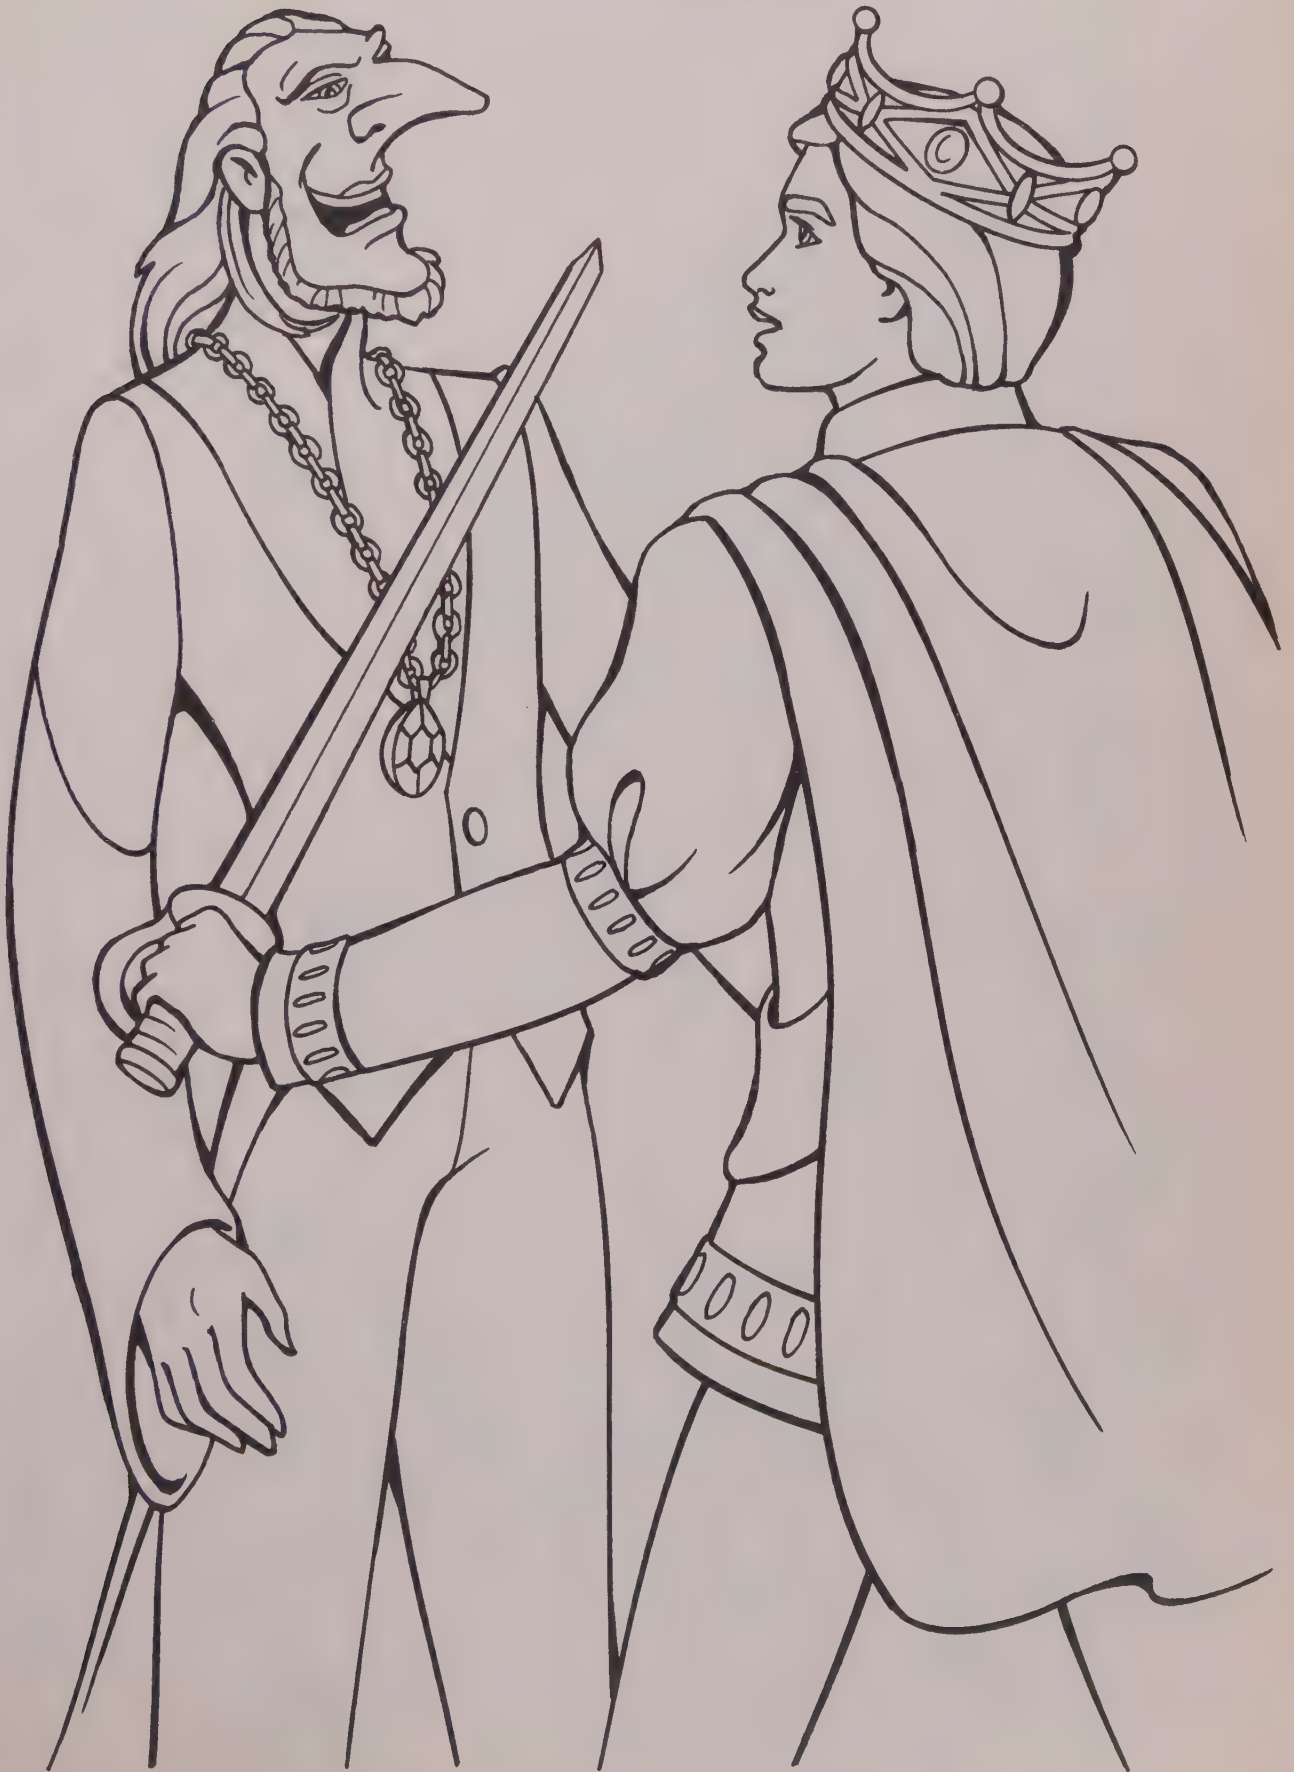

Rothbart takes the crown.

Rothbart steals the crown from Odette and gives it to Odile.

Prince Daniel arrives just in time to save Odette from Rothbart.

Odette's friends carry her to the Fairy Queen's carriage and take her back to the forest.

Rothbart turns himself into a bird and follows them.

The Fairy Queen does not have enough power to stop Rothbart, and he turns her into a mouse!

But before it's too late, Odette awakens and tries to save Prince Daniel.

Rothbart fires his magic and hits Odette and the Prince.

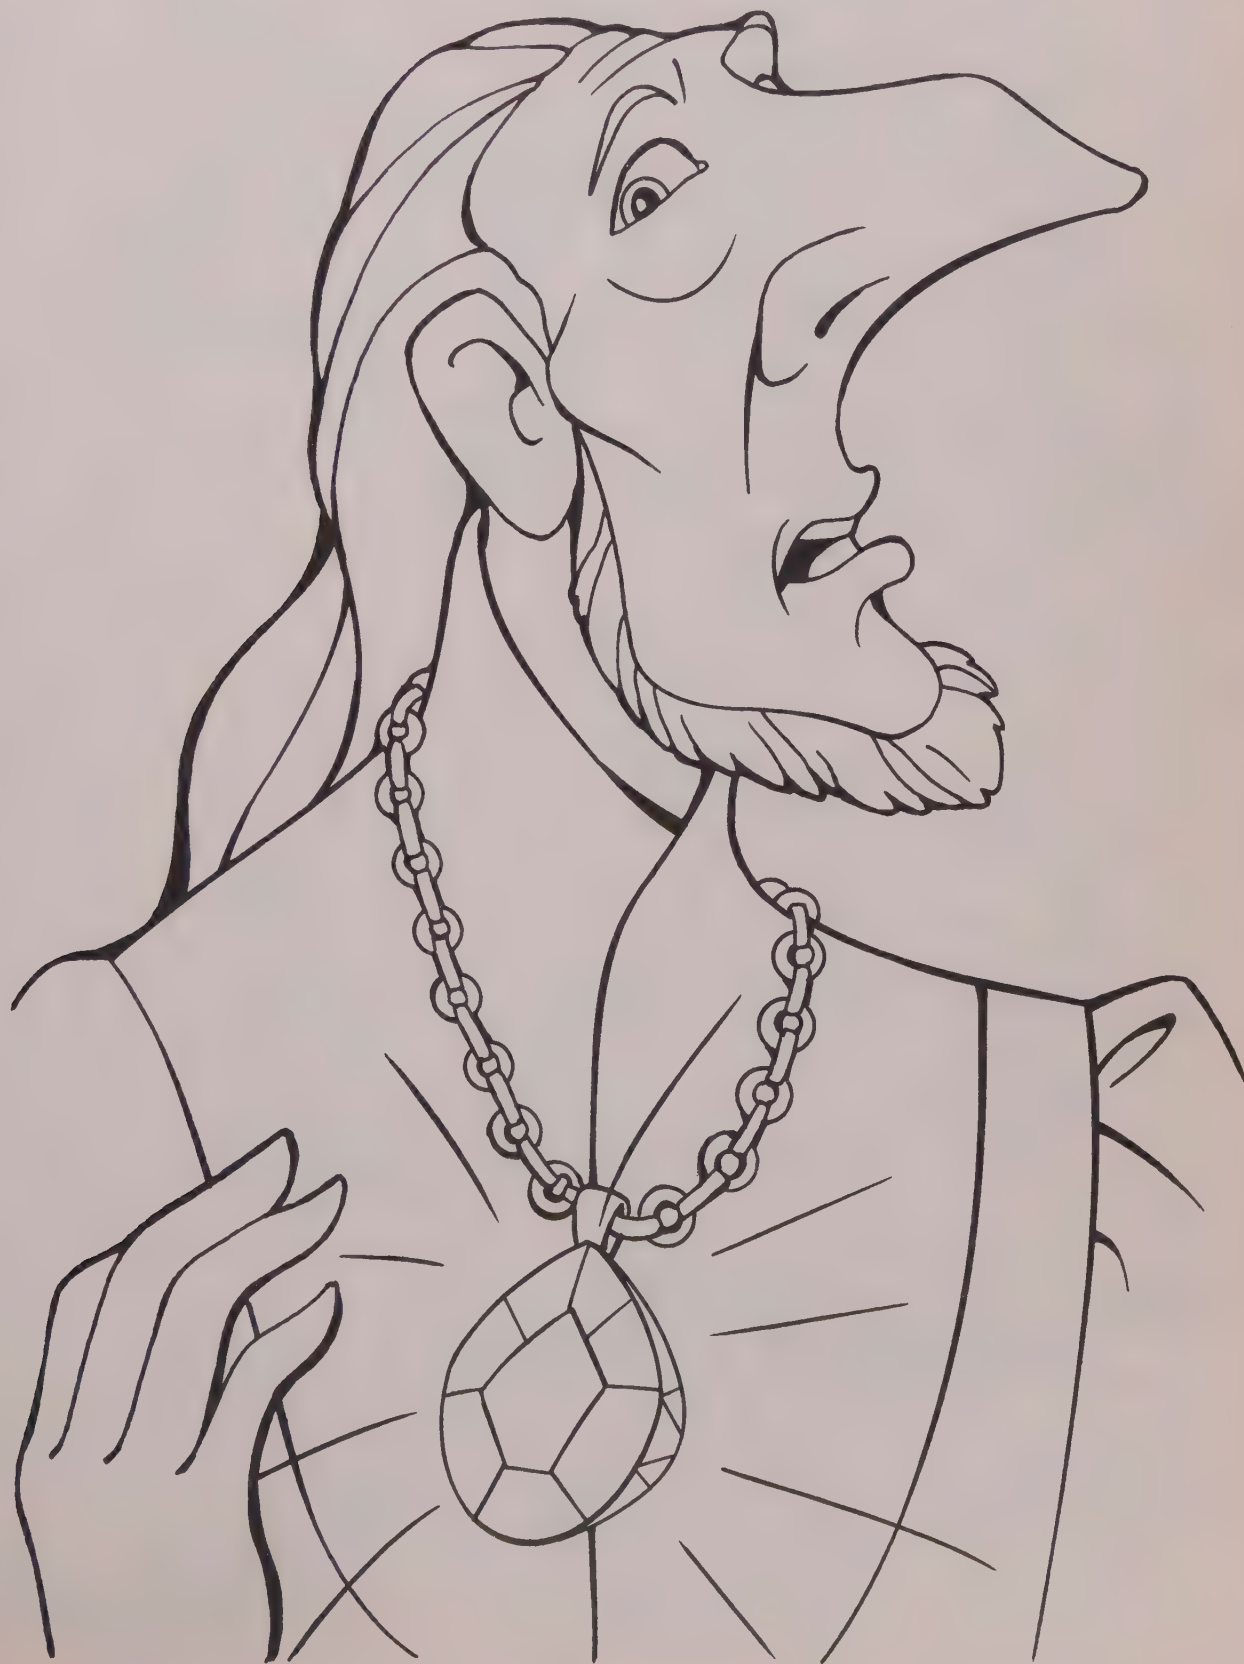

Odette does not have the Magic Crystal, but that doesn't stop her from standing up to Rothbart.

But Odette and Prince Daniel fall under Rothbart's evil spell. Rothbart thinks he has won.

Prince Daniel and Odette have proven they truly love each other. Their love overcomes Rothbart's evil spell, and the Magic Crystal begins to glow again.

Rothbart is finally gone.

Prince Daniel declares his love for Odette.

Rothbart's evil spell is broken, and the elves and fairies of the Enchanted Forest are no longer animals.

Odette and the Prince will soon be married.

Odile is not happy about her new job!

Odette's courage has saved the Enchanted Forest.

And the story of the Swan Princess makes Kelly feel a little braver, too!

A Perfect Match

Long ago and far away, a baby named
Princess Anneliese was born.

At the same time, a girl who looked exactly like the princess was born. Her name was Erika.

Princess Anneliese and Erika live in the same kingdom but never meet each other while they are growing up.

Anneliese lives a fancy life in a castle, while Erika works hard sewing dresses at Madame Carp's dress shop in the village.

For many years, Anneliese's mother, the queen, has been able to take care of her people with gold from the royal mine. But now the mine is empty!

To save the kingdom, the queen tells Anneliese she must marry a rich young king who is seeking a wife. But Anneliese wishes she were free to choose her husband.

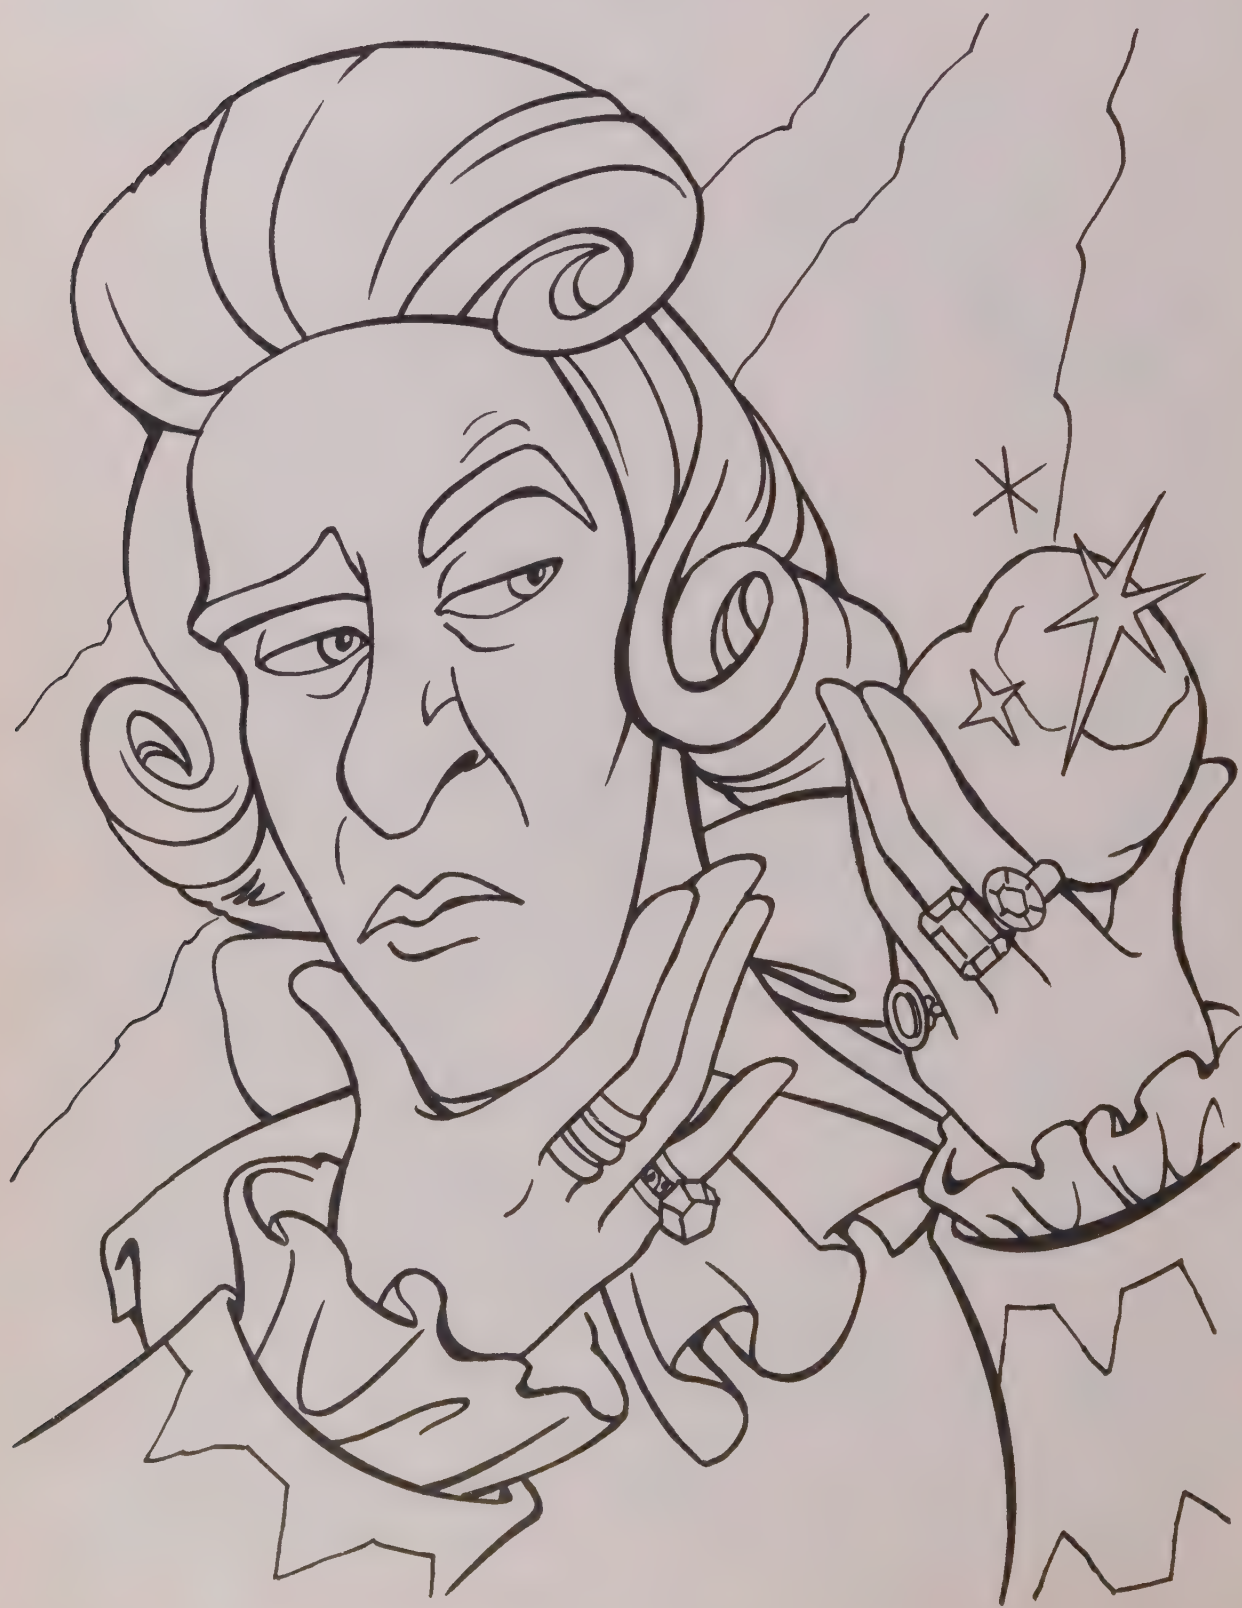

Erika wishes she were free to sing instead of sewing all day.

Deep in the royal gold mine, two thieves named Nick and Nack are stealing what is left of the queen's gold.

Nick and Nack work for Preminger, the queen's advisor.
He wants all the queen's gold and plans to trick her into letting him marry Anneliese so he can take over the kingdom.

Back at the castle, Anneliese's tutor, Julian, comes to tell her that the king has sent his ambassador and a page to meet her.

Anneliese doesn't want to marry the king. She is secretly in love with Julian. Anneliese doesn't know it, but Julian is in love with her, too!

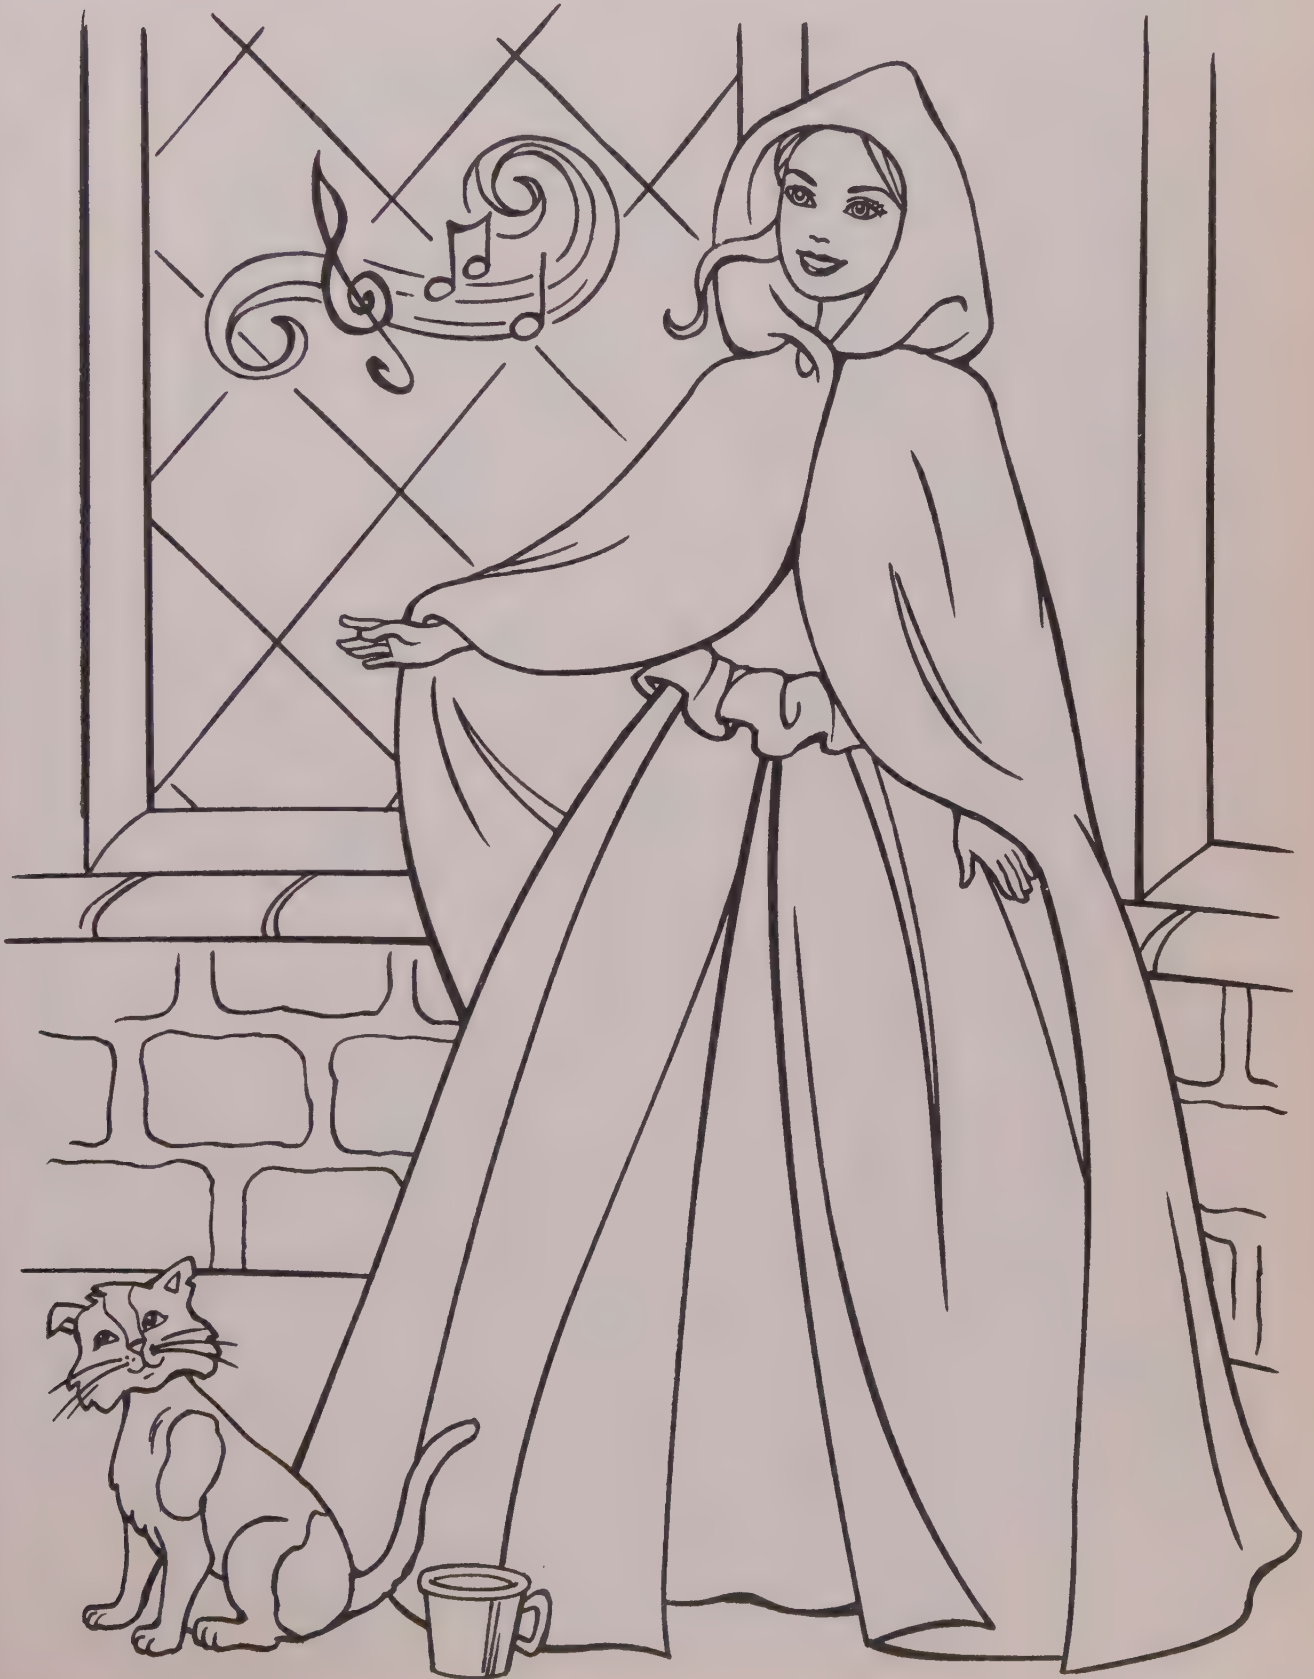

The queen announces that the wedding will take place in a week. Preminger now knows he must put his plan into action quickly.

Julian knows Anneliese isn't happy about the wedding.
He takes her to the village market to cheer her up.

On the other side of the market, Erika sings to the townspeople for some extra coins. Erika's loyal cat, Wolfie, thinks he's a watchdog and keeps her money safe.

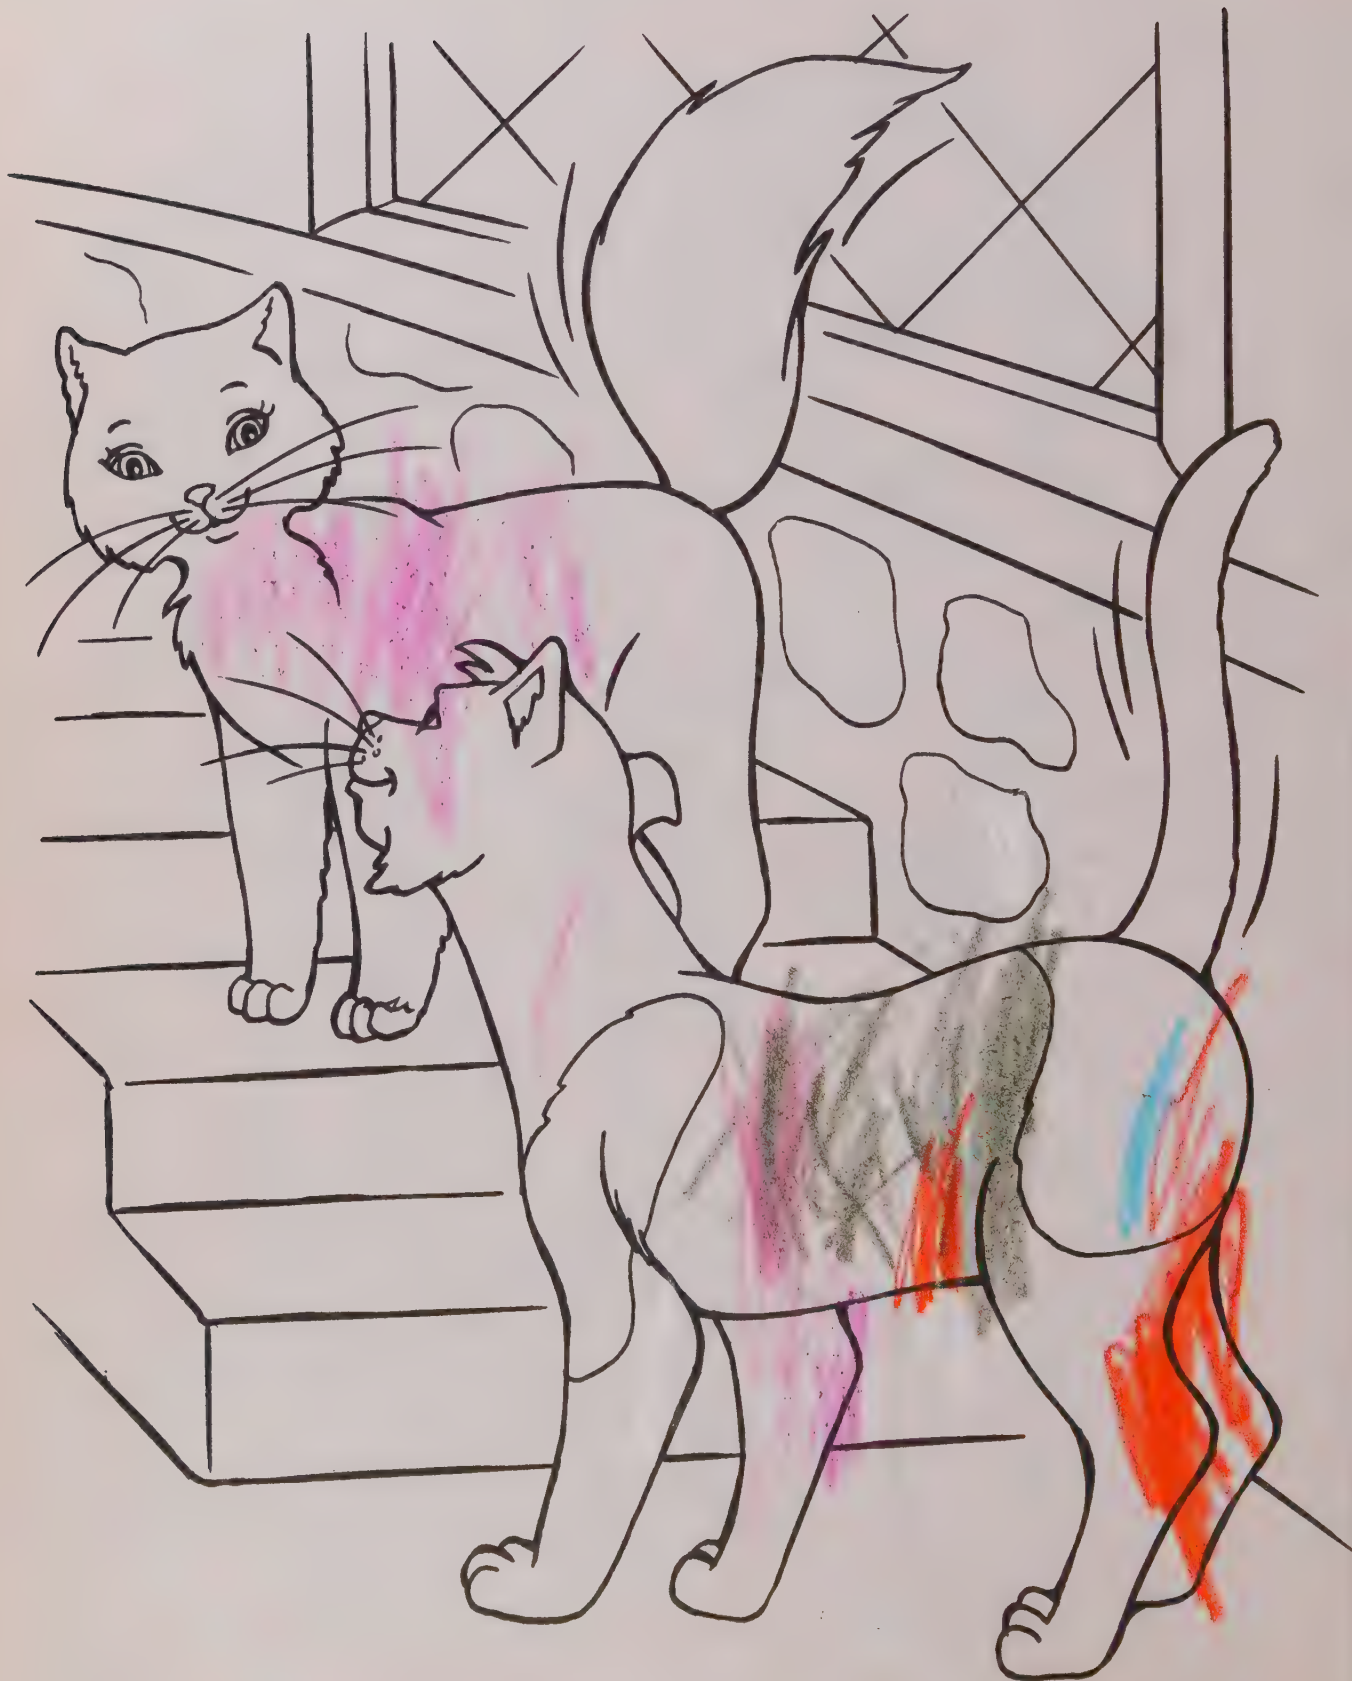

Finally, the two girls meet for the first time.
They can't believe how much alike they look!

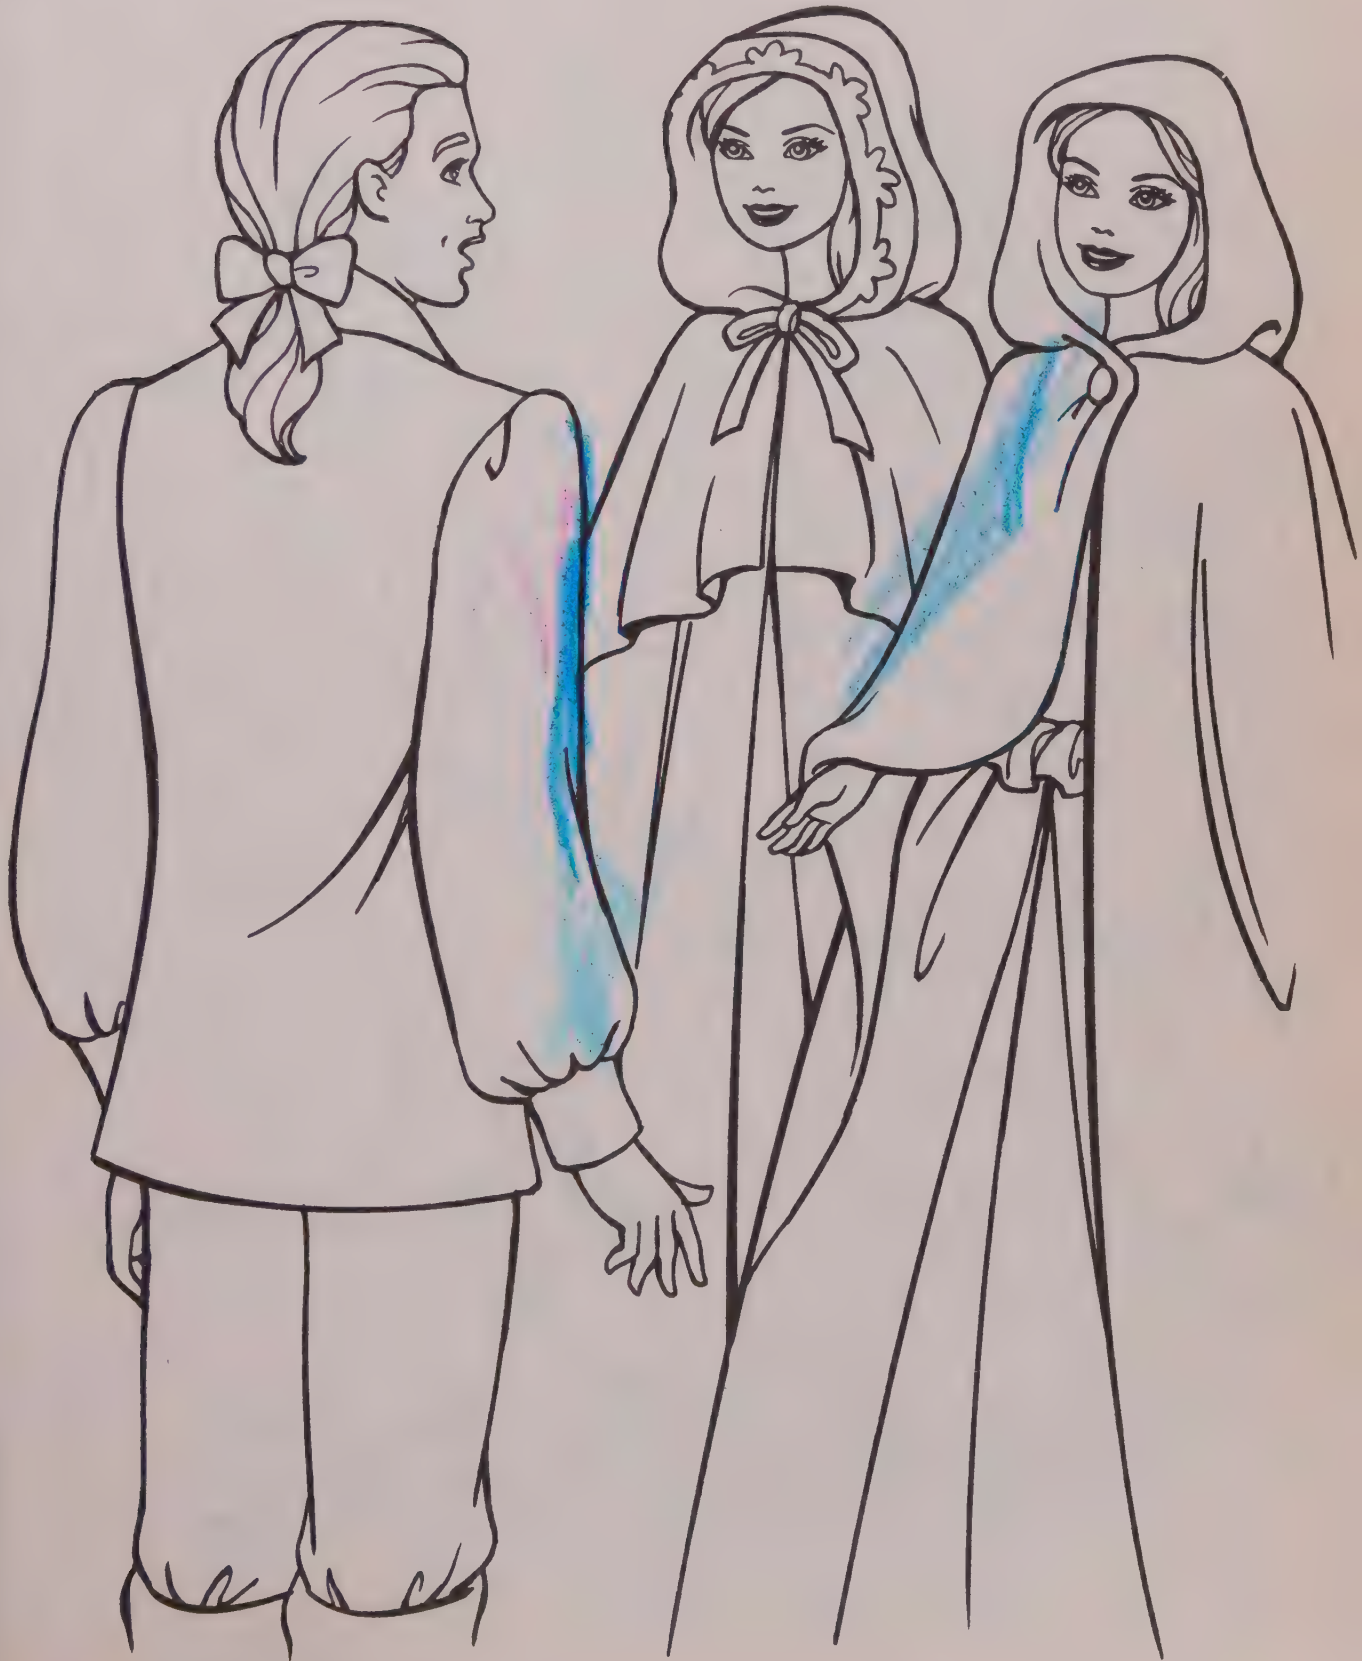

The girls notice that there are only two differences between them. Erika has dark hair. Anneliese has blond hair and a birthmark on her shoulder.

Their cats, Wolfie and Serafina, meet, too.
They like each other very much!

When Julian meets Erika, he can't believe how much she looks like the princess!

That night, Nick and Nack get Serafina to chase a toy rat out of the castle. They plan to capture Anneliese when she wakes up and looks for Serafina.

Nick and Nack's plan works. Anneliese wakes up to find Serafina missing! So she goes to look for her.

Nick and Nack follow Preminger's orders and take the princess to a cabin in the woods, far from the castle.

Serafina finds out who is behind the plan.

With Herve the horse's help, Serafina gets into the cabin to be with Anneliese.

The next day, the queen finds a letter in Anneliese's room. It says Anneliese ran away so she wouldn't have to marry the young king. But the letter was really written by Preminger!

The ambassador says the wedding must be canceled.
But Julian thinks the queen has been tricked.

Once Julian has figured out Preminger's plan, he comes up with one of his own. He asks Erika for help.

Julian needs Erika to pretend she is the princess so the wedding won't be canceled. Then he can trick Preminger into telling him where Anneliese is hidden.

Before Erika can get people to believe she is the princess,
she must practice . . .

... a lot!

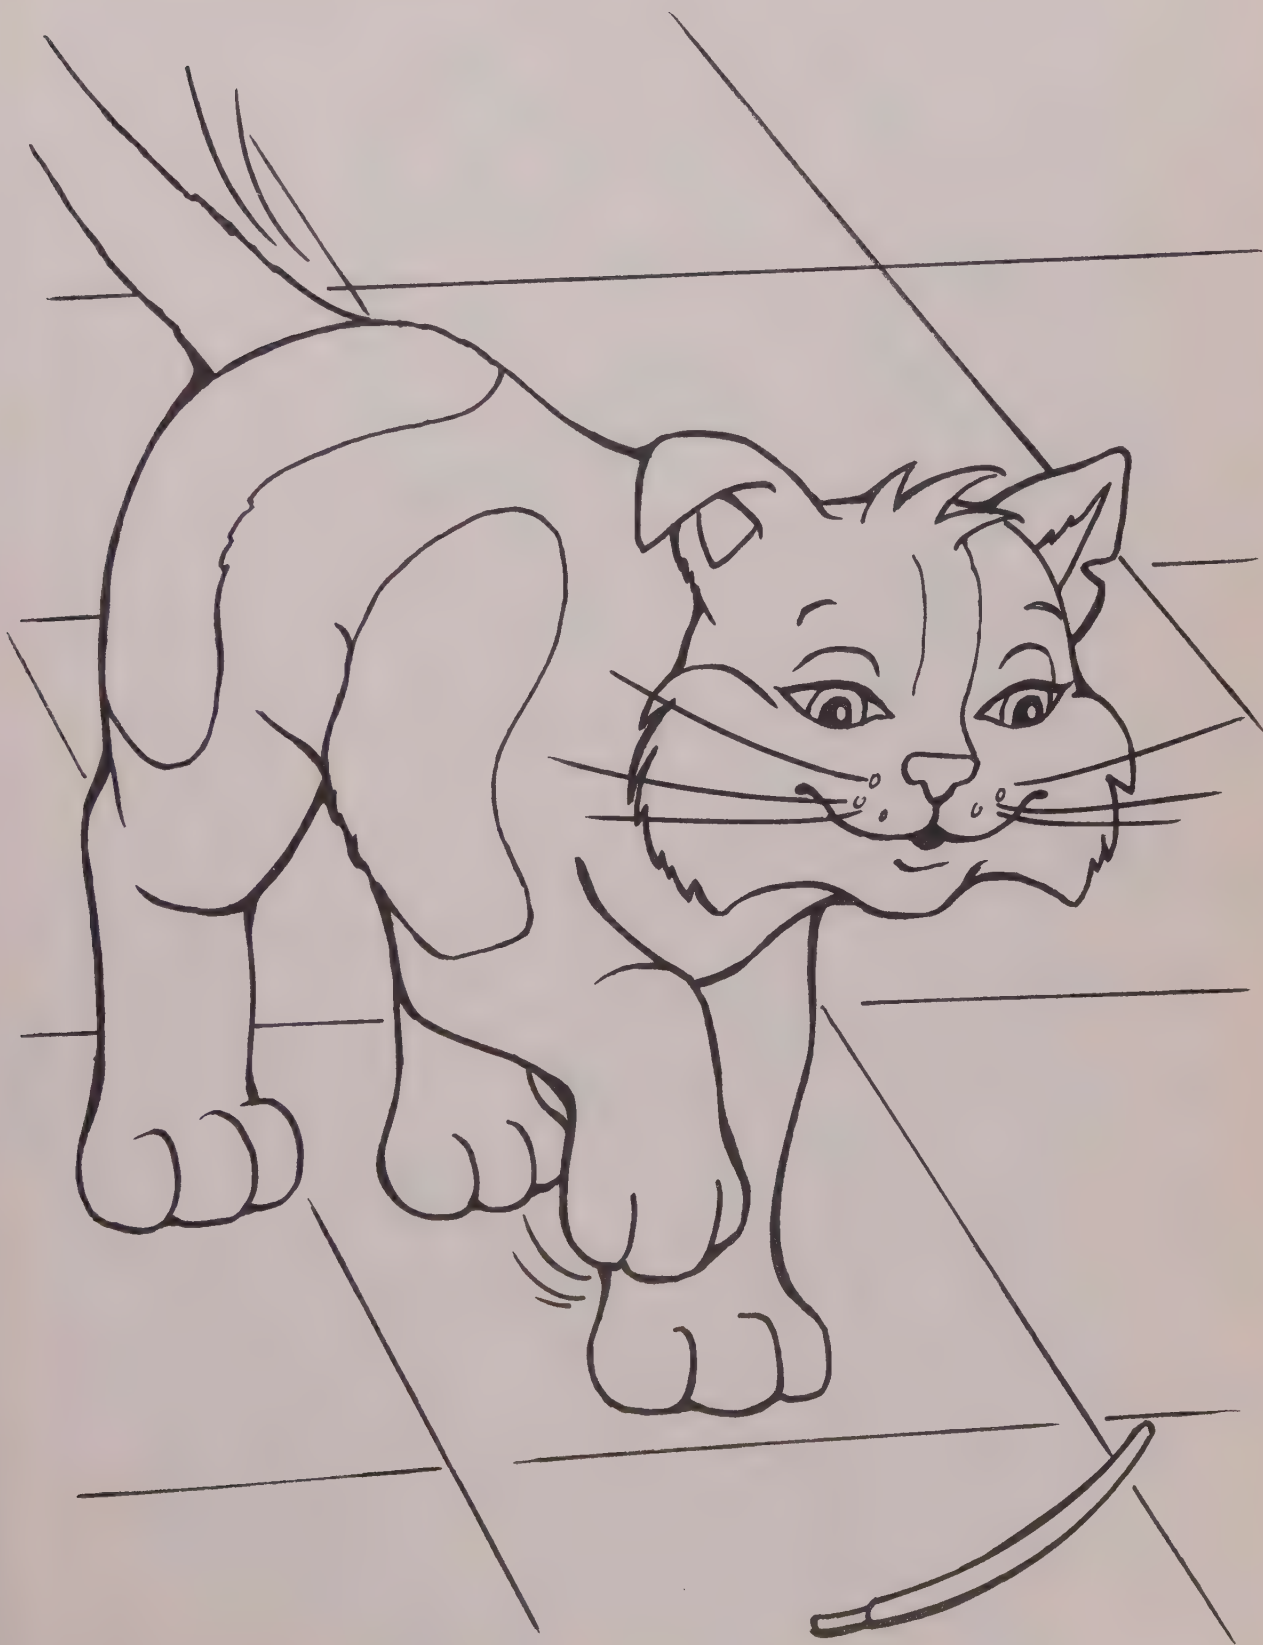

Erika is able to make the queen believe that she is Anneliese.

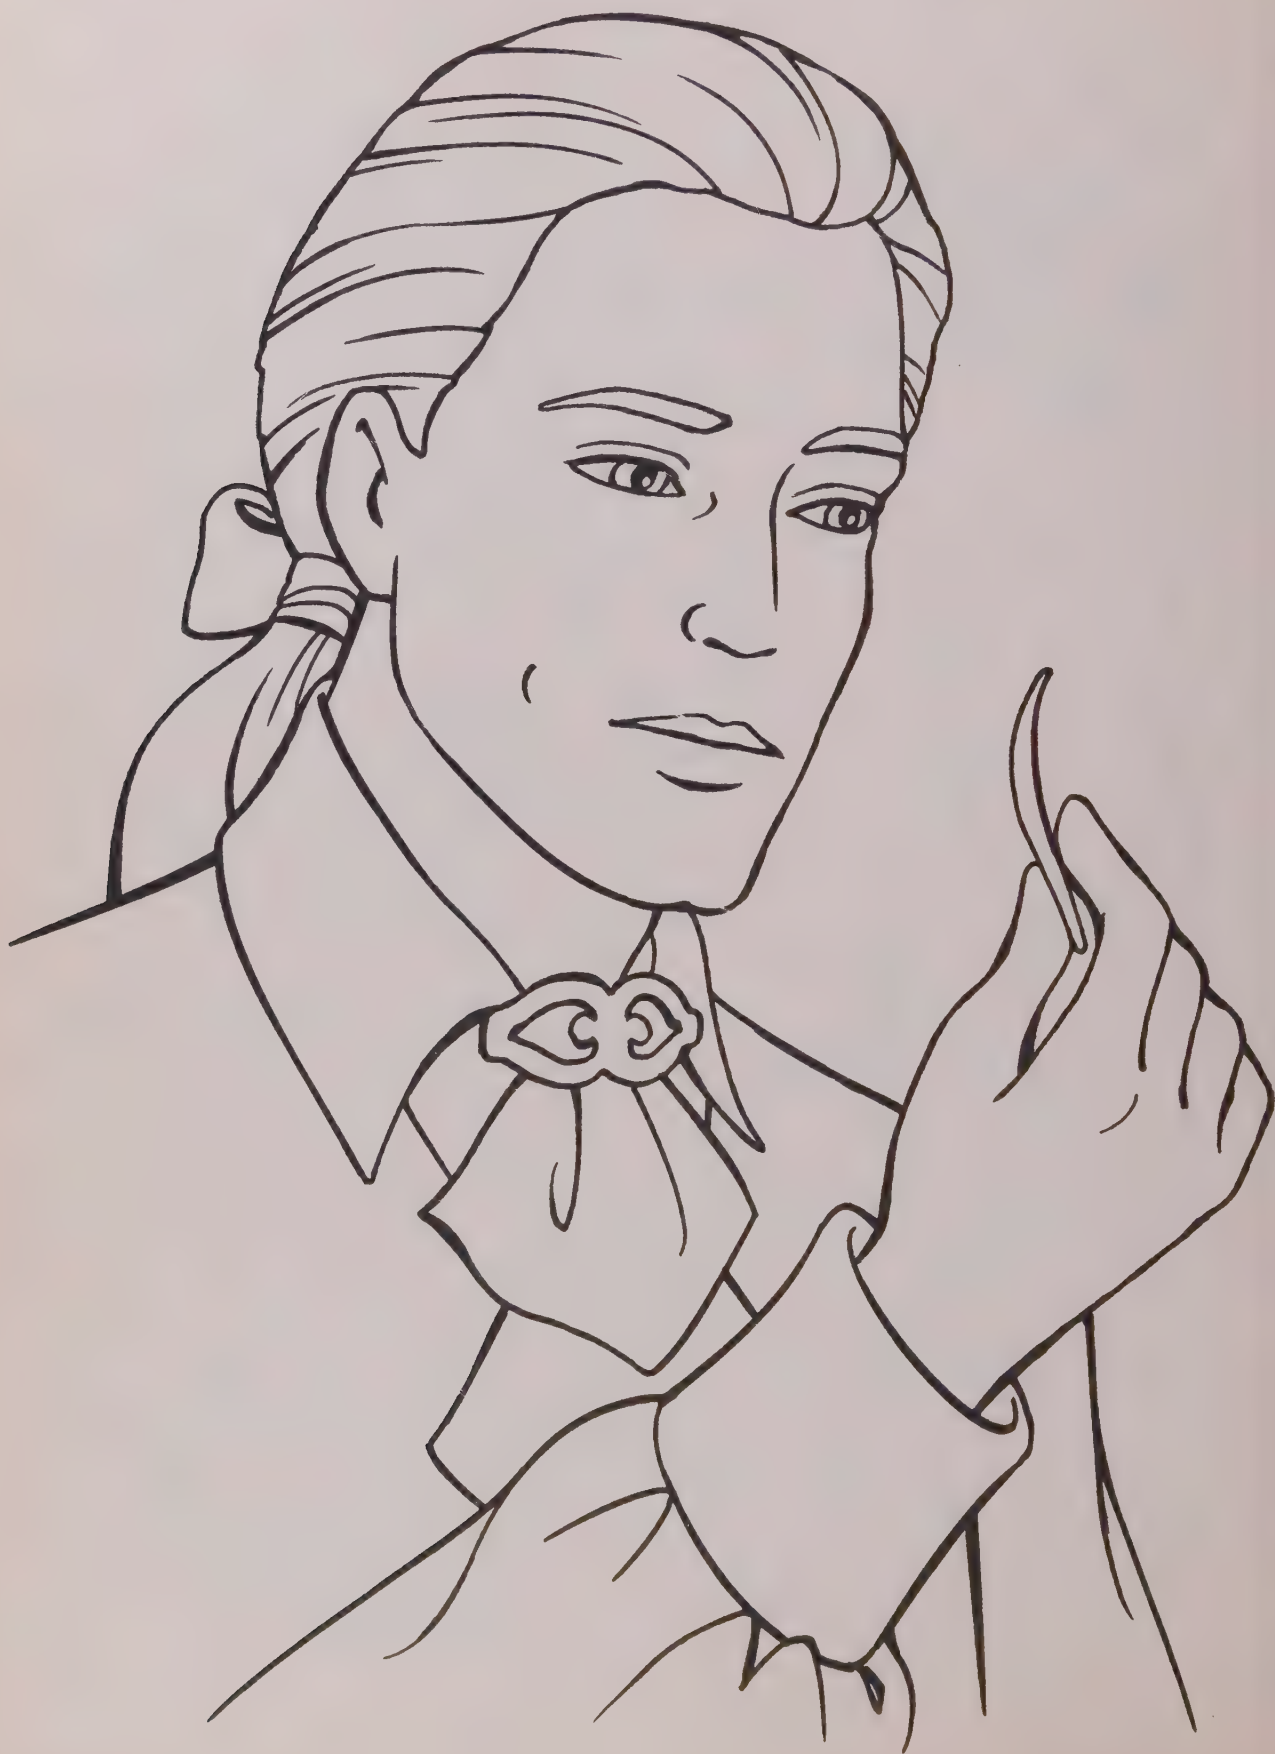

Julian's plan works! The ambassador now thinks Anneliese didn't run away and announces that the royal wedding is back on!

Wolfie spots something that fell off Preminger's boot.

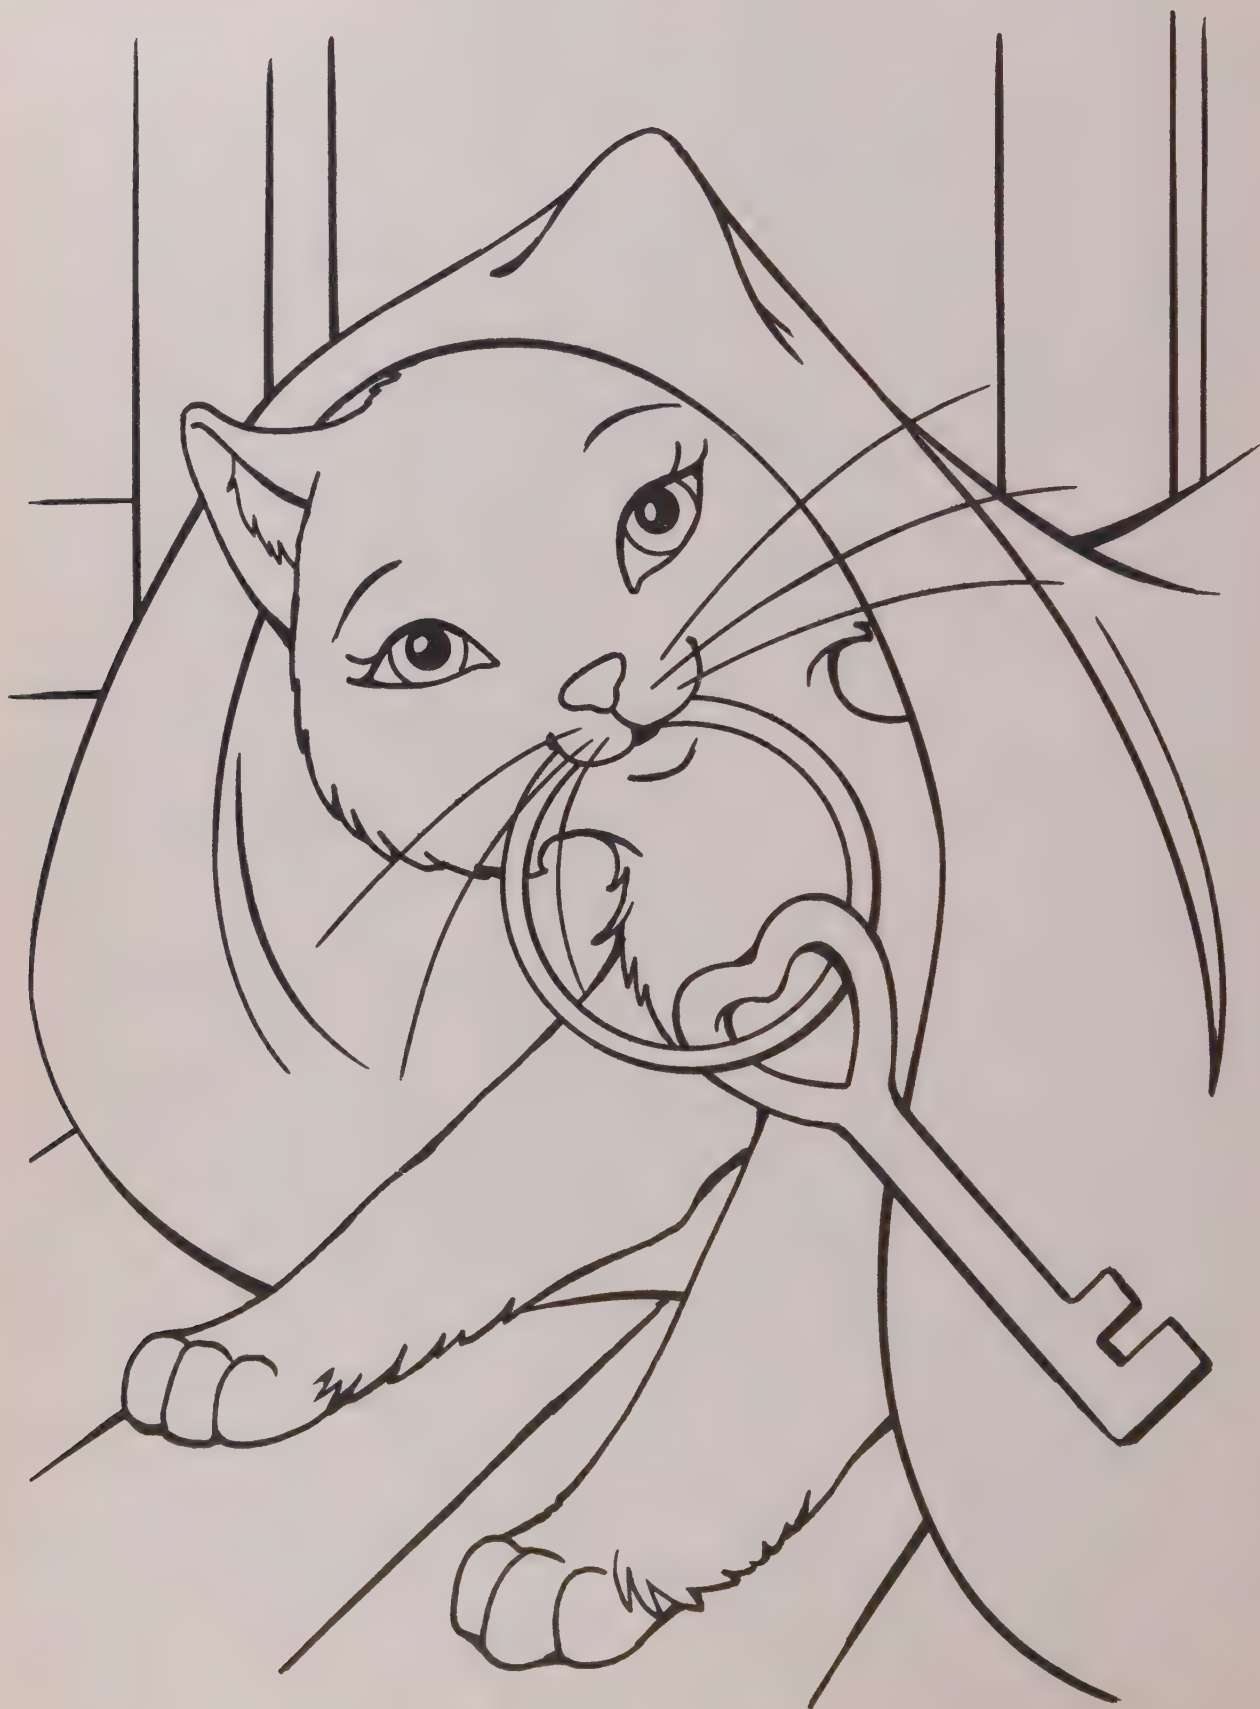

It's a needle from a silver fir tree in the western forest.
Julian wonders what Preminger has been doing there.

Meanwhile, Anneliese gets Nick and Nack to open the door of the cabin by pretending to see a ghost.

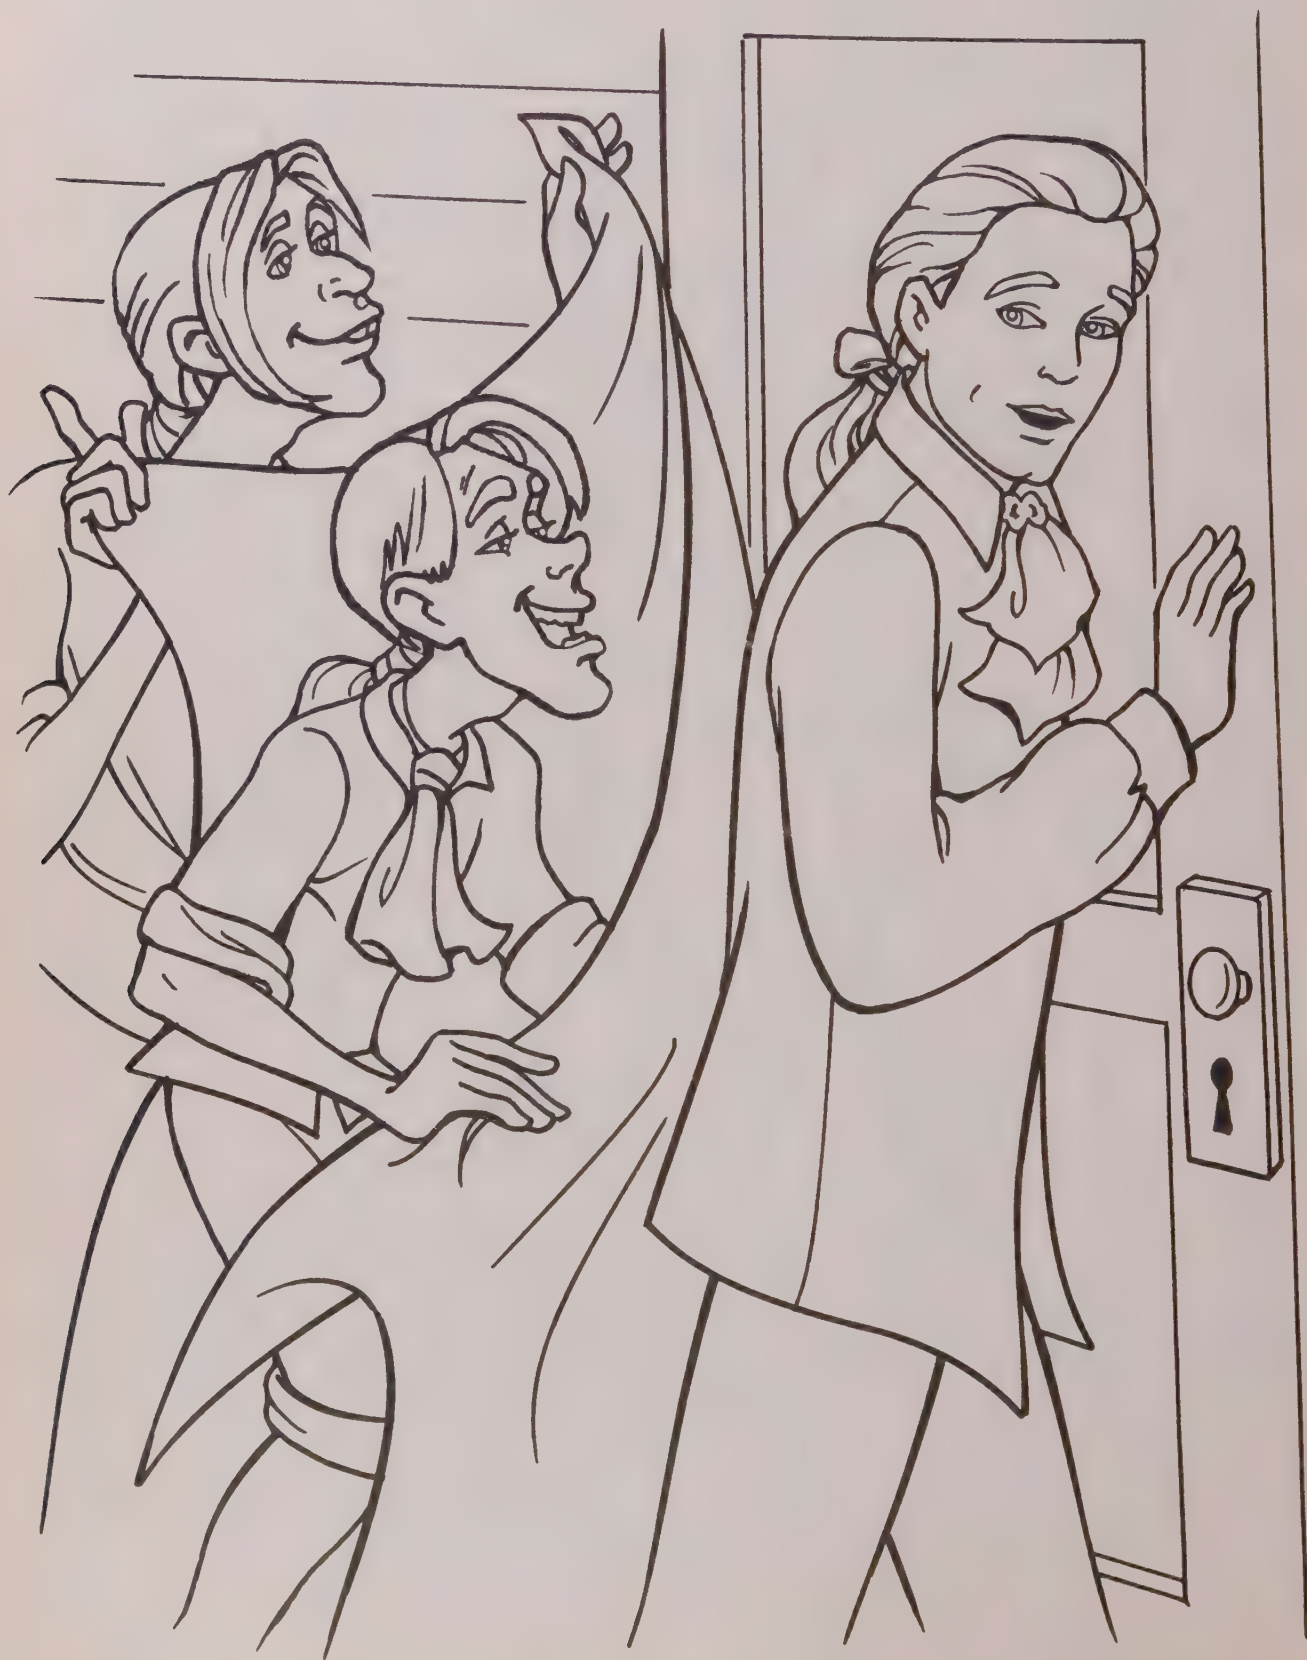

Serafina helps Anneliese escape by pretending to be the ghost and grabbing the key.

Preminger is not happy when he learns that Nick and Nack let the princess get away!

The fir needle helps lead Julian to the cabin, where he overhears Preminger talking about his plan. Before Julian can tell the queen, he is captured by Nick and Nack.

Anneliese and Serafina make it back to the castle.
But the guard doesn't believe that Anneliese is the princess and won't let them in.

With no place to go, Anneliese searches for Erika to help her.

Madame Carp thinks Anneliese is Erika and locks her up to finish Erika's work.

Anneliese sends Serafina to the castle with her royal ring and Madame Carp's dress label. Whoever finds these clues will be led to Anneliese.

At long last, Serafina makes it to the castle. Preminger discovers the dress label and the ring and heads to Madame Carp's to find the real princess.

Preminger finds Anneliese and takes her to the royal gold mine so she can't get away and marry the king. Anneliese learns that Preminger was behind the evil plan.

Before Preminger leaves, he locks Anneliese in a room and tells her of his new plan to marry the queen. Anneliese is surprised to hear the news and to see that Julian has also been captured.

Preminger returns to the castle to carry out his new plan. He tells the queen that he has discovered gold that he will share with her if she will be his wife.

Preminger shows the queen the royal ring and tricks her into believing the princess has disappeared.

The queen sees the royal ring and is very upset. She is surprised to learn that Erika is not really the princess.

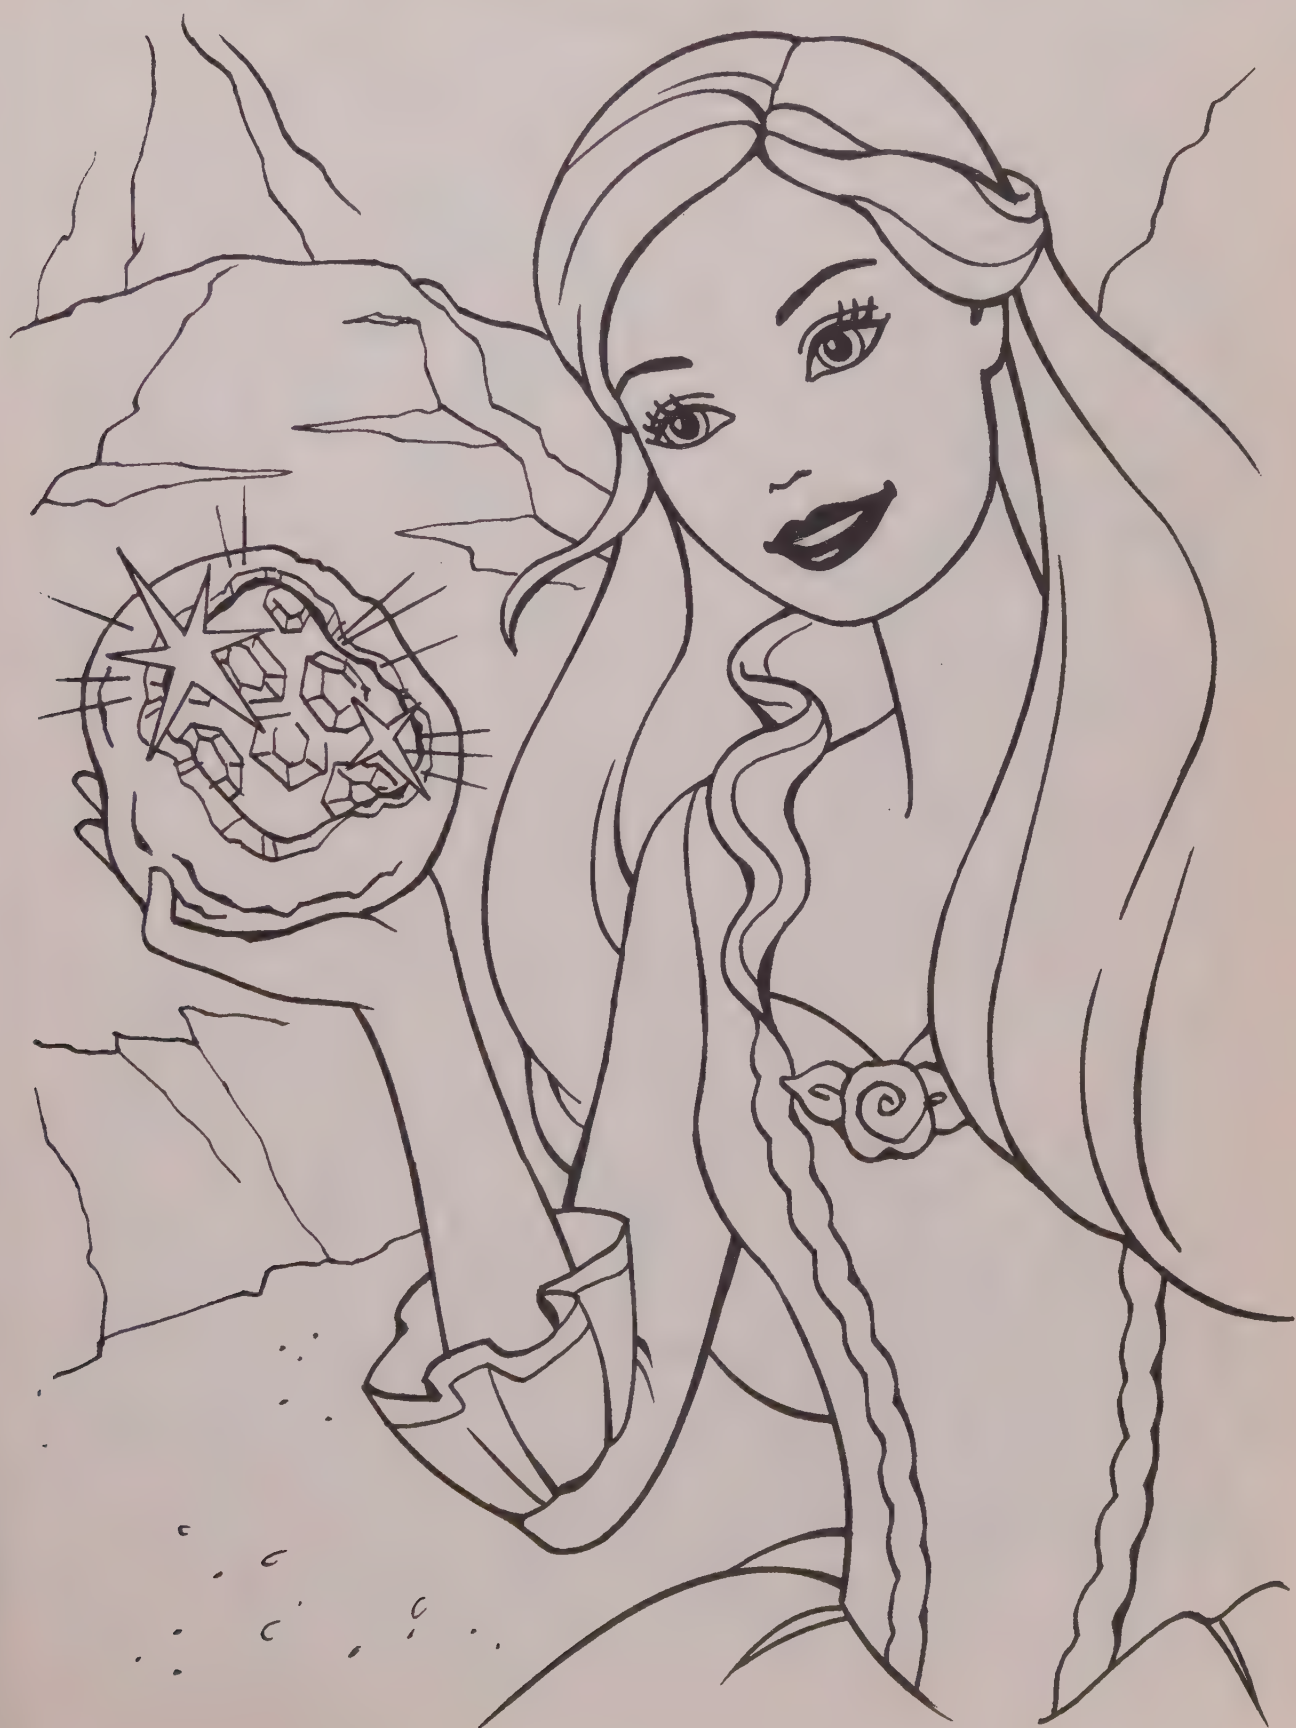

Preminger makes the guards lock Erika in the dungeon.
The ambassador calls off the wedding once and for all.

The queen agrees to marry Preminger to save the kingdom.

While Anneliese is looking for a way out of the mine, she is surprised to find rocks with sparkling crystals inside them.

Anneliese tells Julian she is really in love with him and doesn't want to marry the king. Julian tells the princess he loves her, too!

Anneliese comes up with a plan to get out of the mine. She remembers something she learned from Julian in a science lesson and moves rocks away so warm water can bubble to the surface.

The water fills the mine and lifts them out of the cave.

King Dominick pretends he's a guard and helps Erika escape from the dungeon.

Anneliese and Julian arrive at the castle just in time to stop the queen's wedding! Anneliese shows her crown-shaped birthmark to prove she is the real princess.

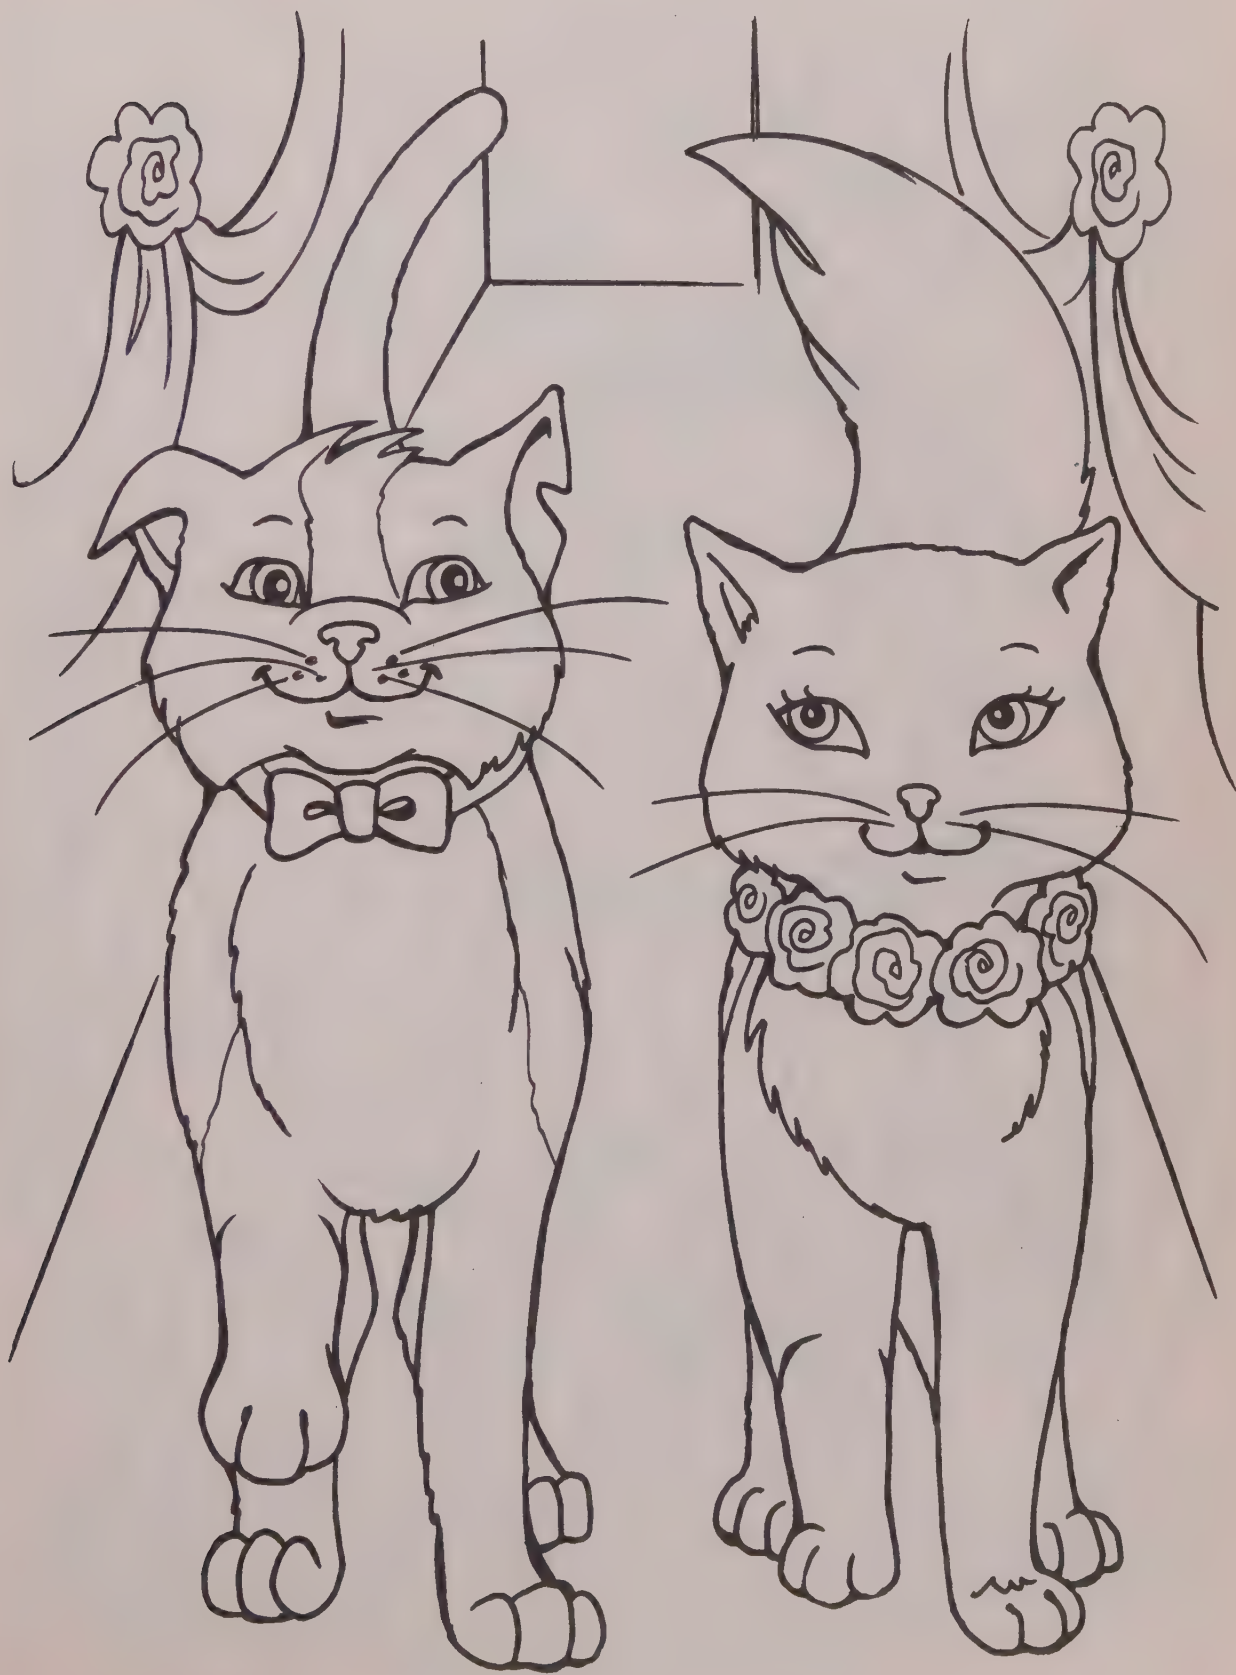

Once everyone has found out about Preminger's plan, he tries to escape. But Herve won't let him get away!

Anneliese tells her mother she doesn't want to marry the king because she is in love with Julian.

It is time for the kingdom to plan another wedding!

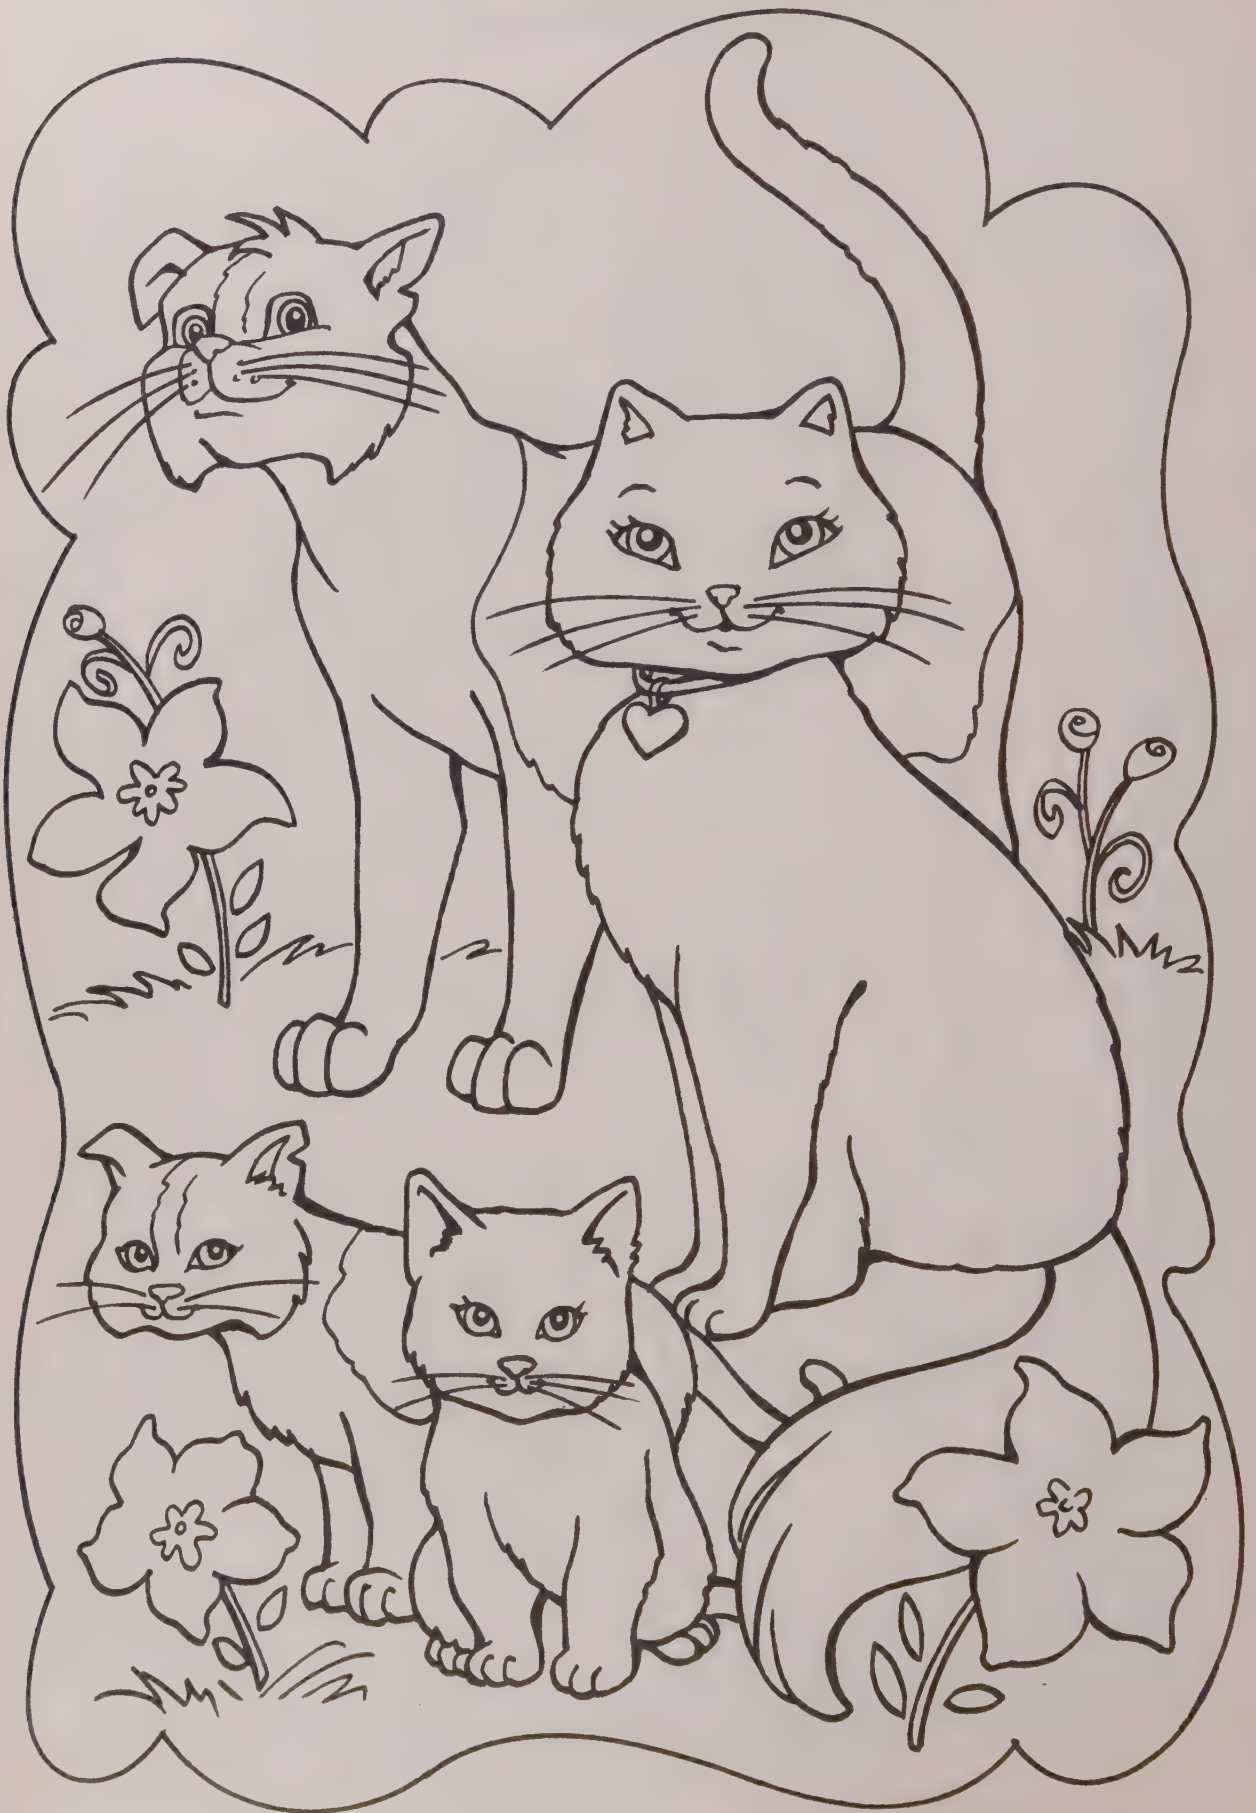

And so there is the most beautiful double wedding the kingdom has ever seen.

The years are good to the brides.
They remain friends all their days.

And everyone lives happily ever after!

Dancing
PRINCESSES

A Magical Tale

Princess Genevieve lives with her kitten, Twyla . . .

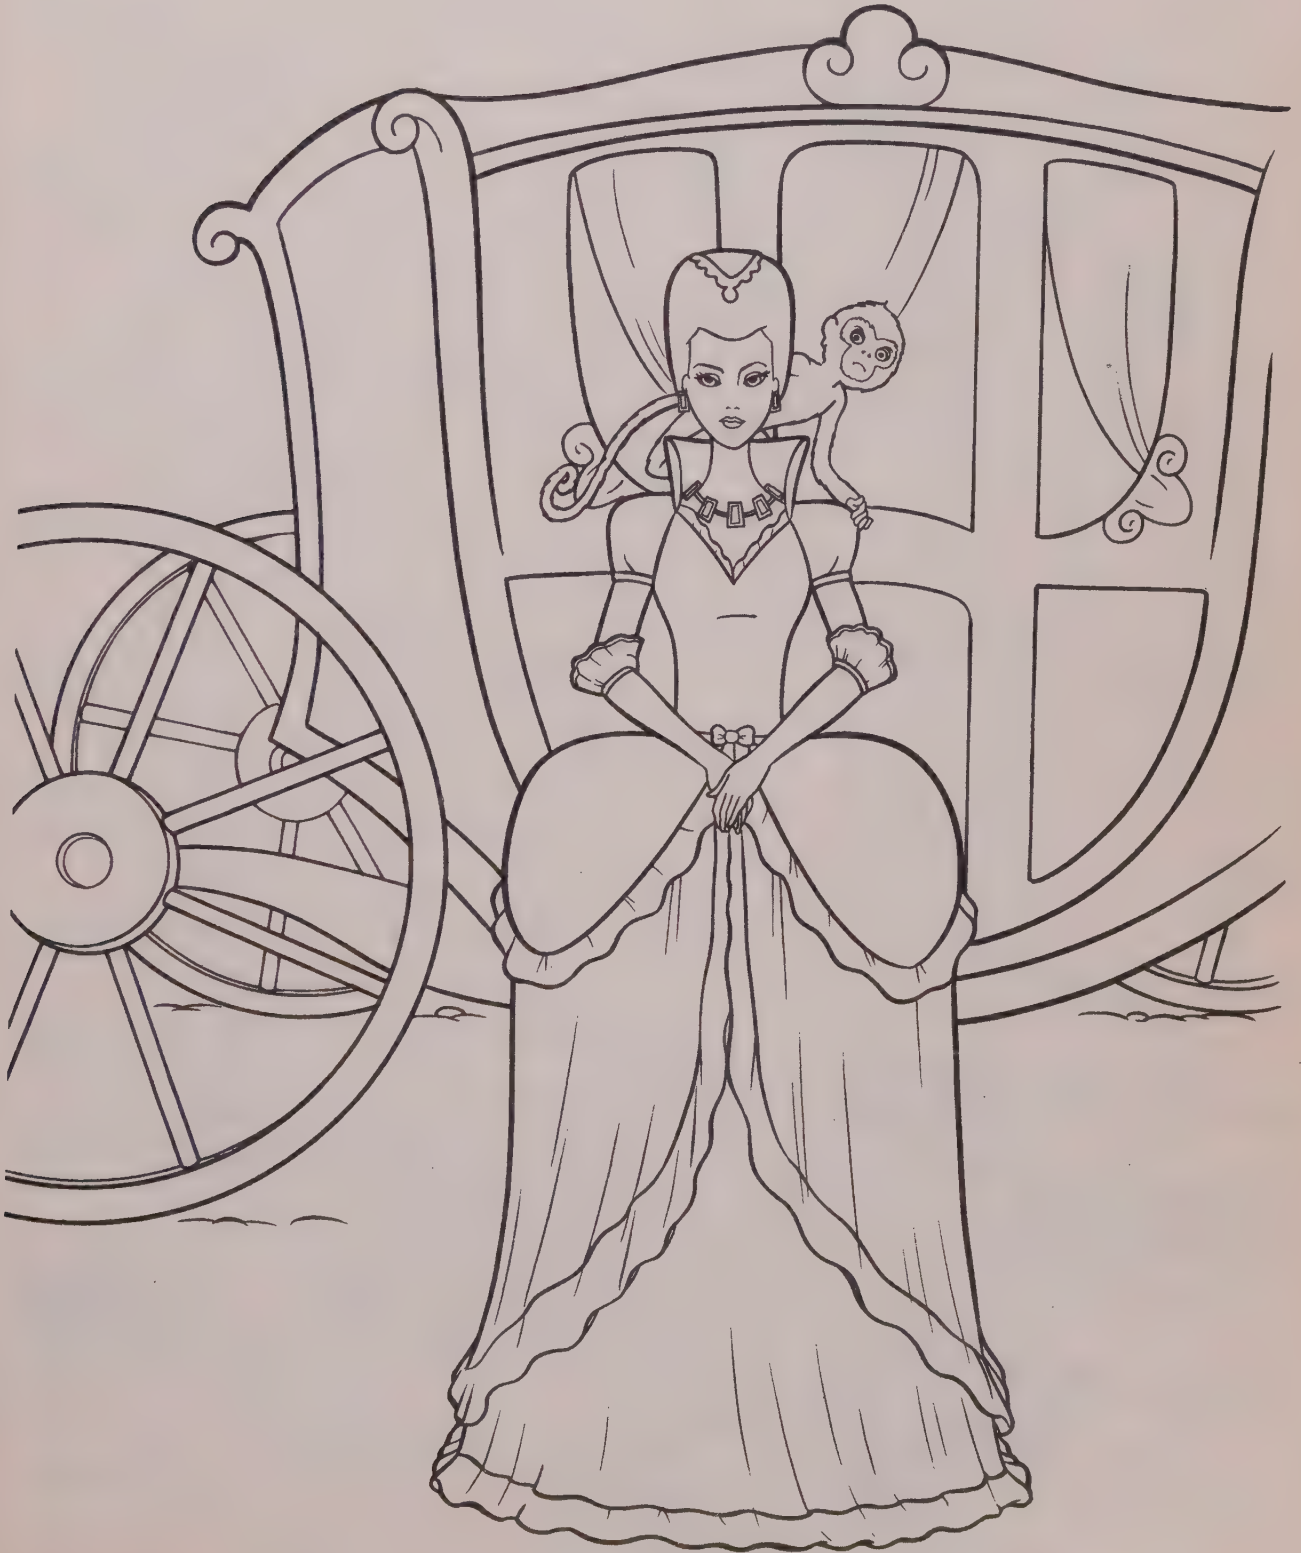

... and her eleven sisters. They all love to dance!

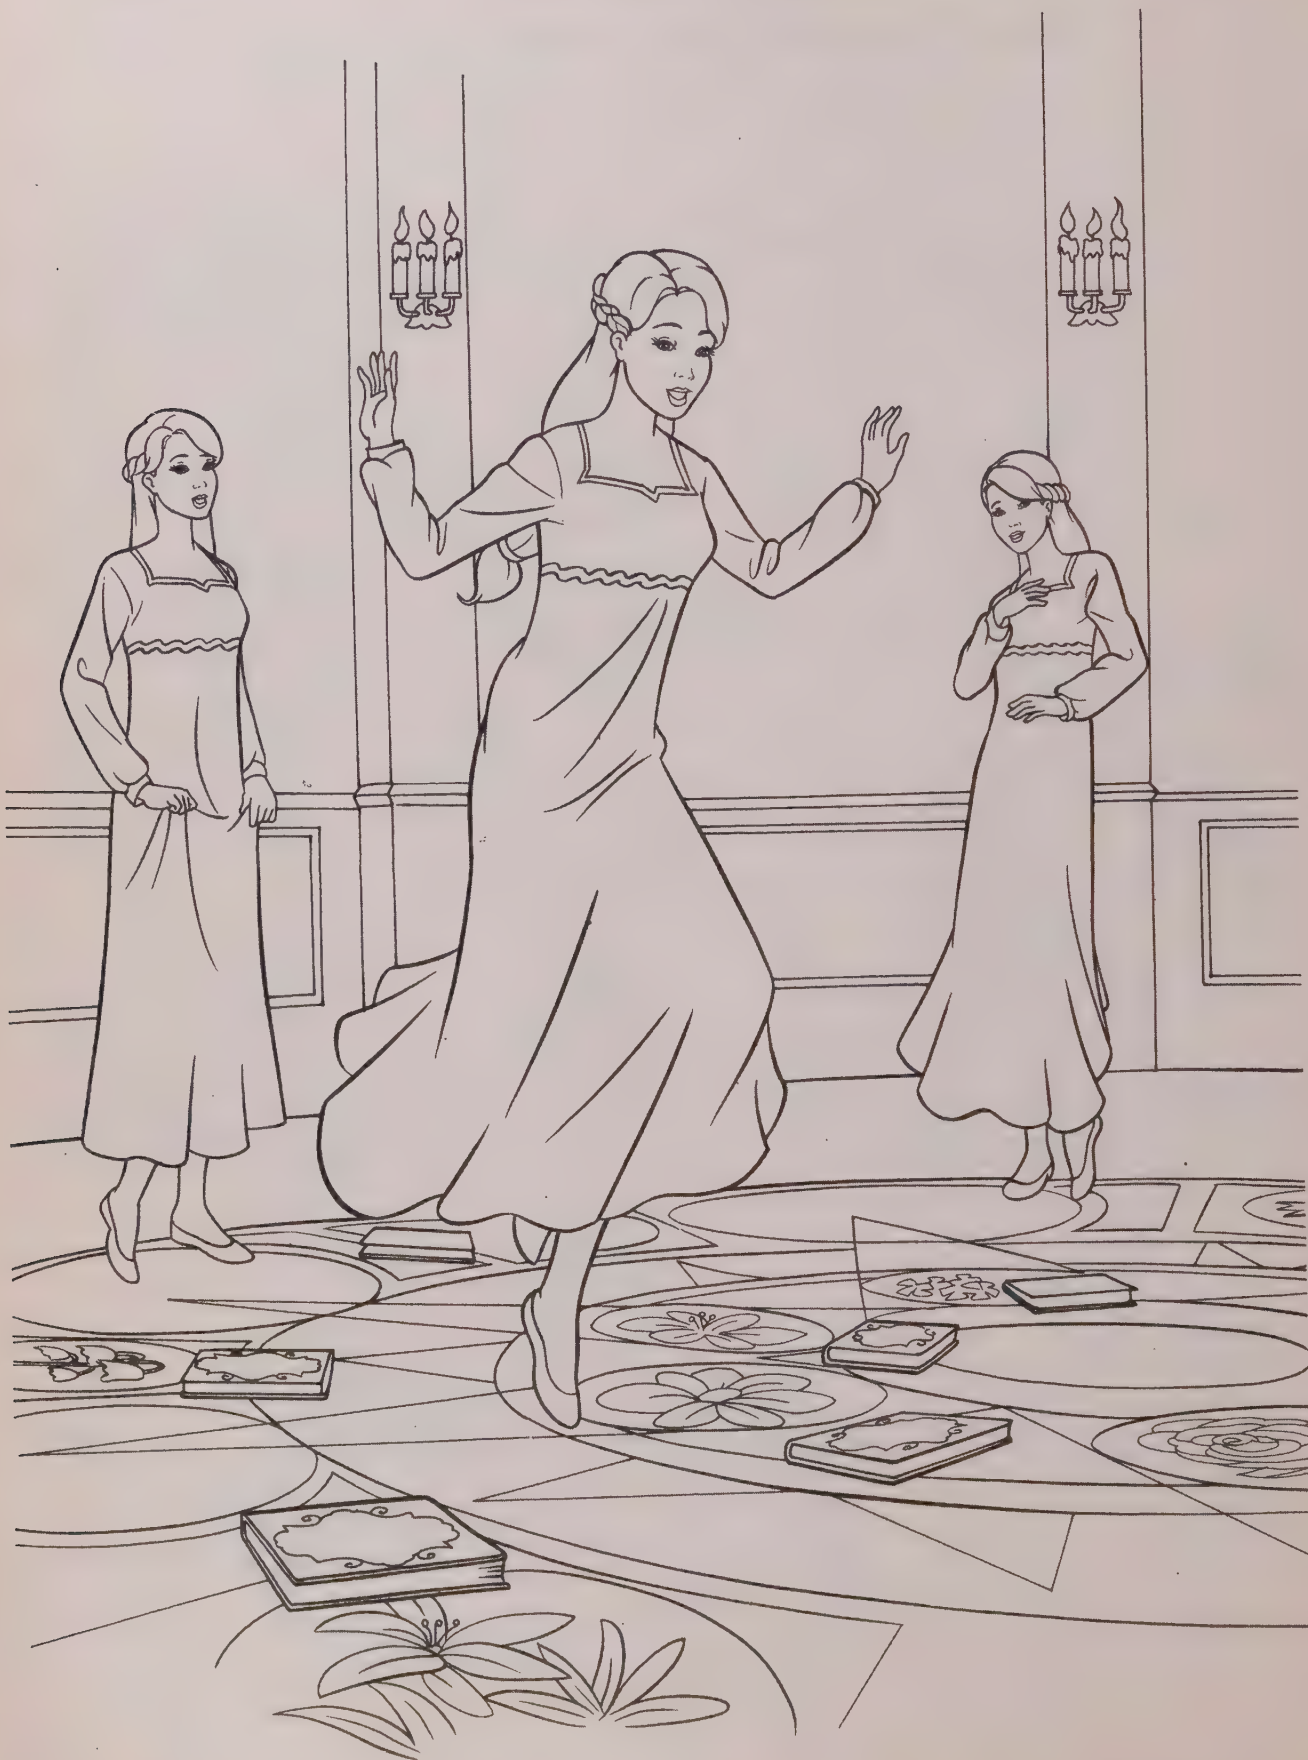

A guest at the palace tells the king that the princesses do not behave like ladies. So the king decides to invite his cousin, Duchess Rowena, to come and teach them how to act like proper princesses.

Duchess Rowena arrives at the castle with her butler, Desmond, and her monkey, Brutus. She is a cruel and greedy woman who wants to be queen!

Genevieve and her sisters discover a secret staircase to a magical world!

At the bottom of the staircase is a boat that takes the sisters to a beautiful pavilion, where they dance to magical music all night long!

The littlest princess, Lacey, has so much fun that she accidentally falls and hurts her knee. Genevieve takes her to the edge of a magical lake, and the water heals the cut! Lacey is amazed, and she decides to keep some of the water in a little bottle.

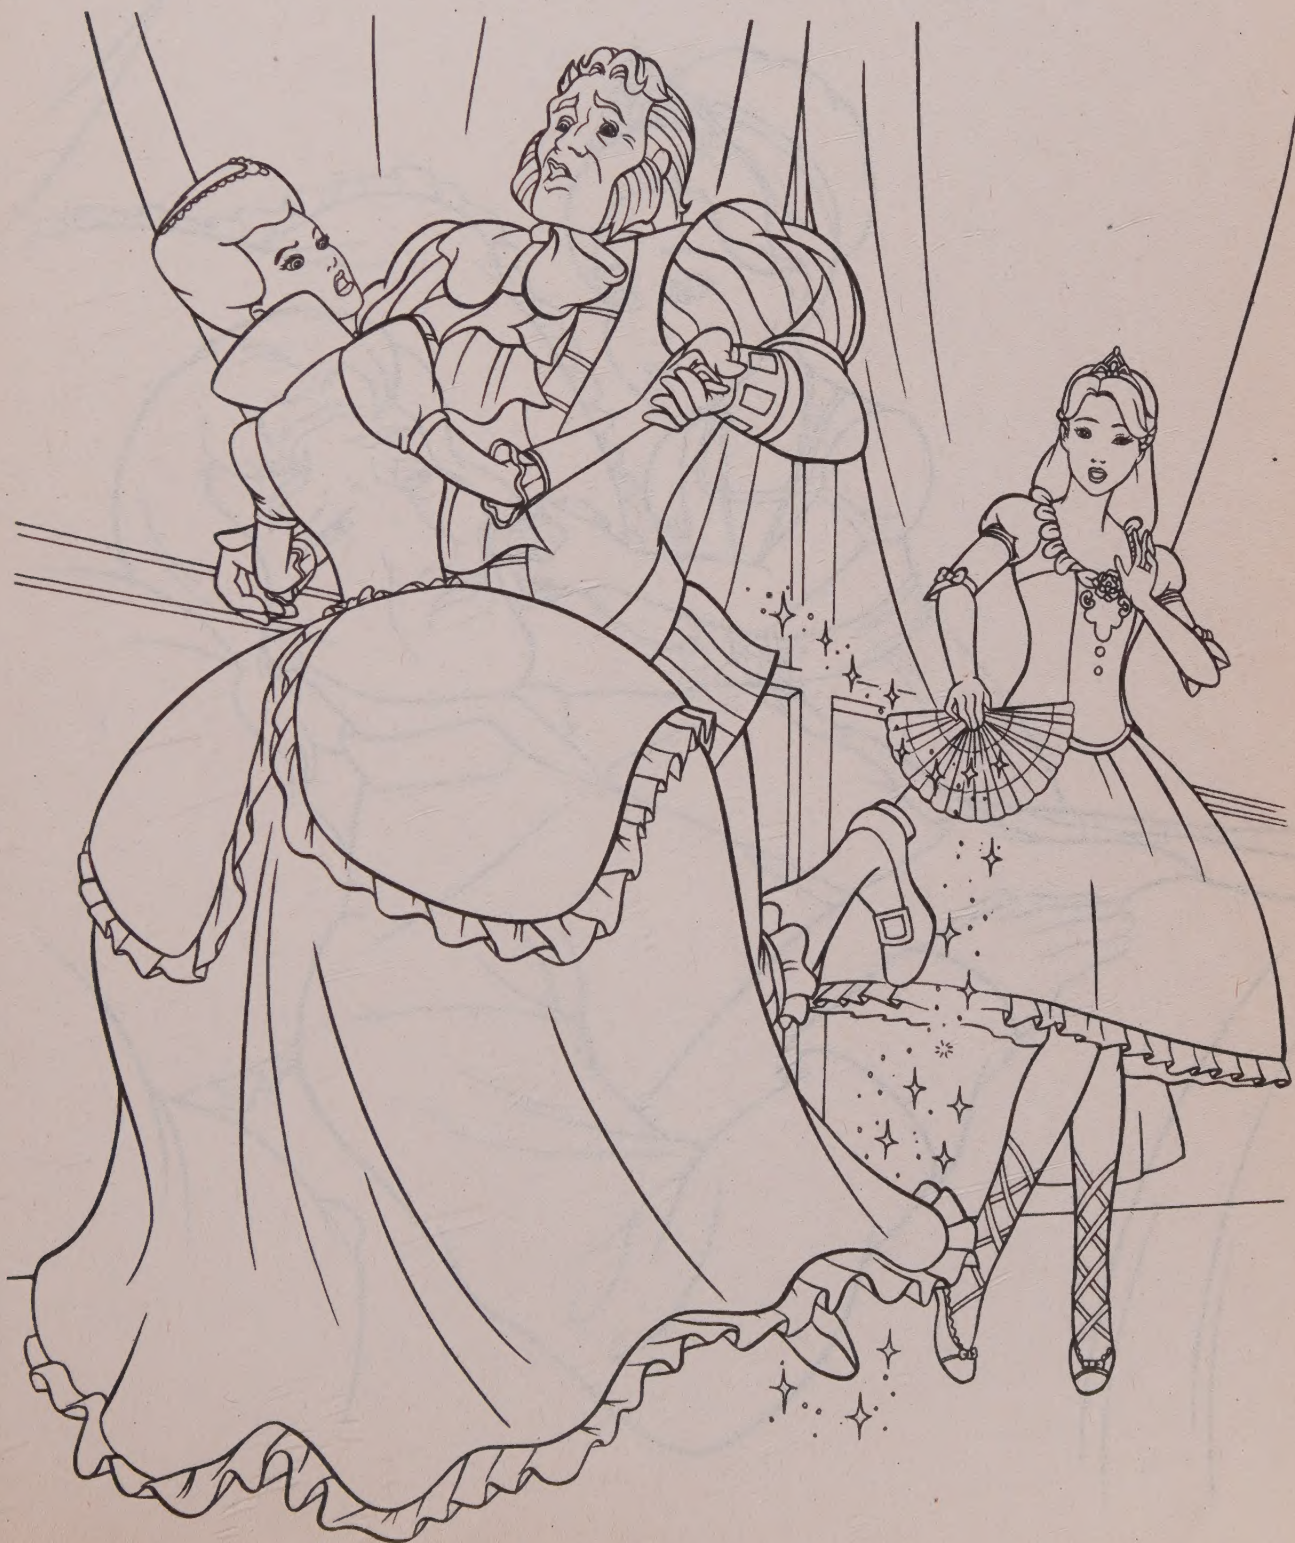

Brutus shows Rowena how to enter the magical land. She wishes she could see the princesses from where she is standing. When she discovers that the magical flowers can turn her glasses into binoculars, she takes some flowers back to the castle.

At the castle, Rowena destroys the stones on the princesses' bedroom floor and traps the girls in the magical land. Suddenly the staircase to the girls' room disappears! But when Derek and Genevieve waltz across special stones in the pavilion, they uncover a staircase that goes to the castle.

Derek, Genevieve, and her sisters gather in the castle and try to save the king. Rowena wishes on the magical flowers that Genevieve's feet will never stop dancing, not even for a second! But Genevieve blocks the flower dust with her fan. The dust hits Rowena and Desmond instead! Now they are the ones who can't stop dancing!

Rowena's poison has made the king very sick.
